

The Bloomfield Times. NEW BLOOMFIELD, PENN'A. Tuesday, June 9, 1874.

Laws Relating to Newspaper Subscriptions

The following is the law relating to newspapers and their subscribers: 1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered wishing to continue their subscription.

A Stranger in these Parts.

On Friday morning last, a large black whale was captured in the Raritan River, near Perth Amboy. The animal was first discovered by a boatman named John Spear, and seemed to be grounded on the oyster beds, just below Crow's Mills.

Miscellaneous News Items.

Watertown, N. Y., June 5.—Hiram Smith was last night convicted of being an accomplice in the murder of Charles Wenham, and sentenced to be hanged on the 24th of July.

A very eccentric newspaper man named James Johns recently died in Starkborough, Vt. He used to print with his pen and issue occasionally the Autograph and Remarker, and send his edition, which consisted from one to half a dozen copies, to any one he pleased.

Thirty Years' Experience of an old Nurse. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the prescription of one of the best Female Physicians and Nurses in the United States, and has been used for thirty years with never failing safety and success.

Tape Worm! Tape Worm! Removed in a few hours with harmless Vegetable Medicine. No fee asked until the entire worm, with head, passes.

RETURNS of the Oregon election indicate a majority for Grover, Democrat, for Governor. The Republicans still claim a majority for Williams for Congress.

GENERAL BRISTOW of Kentucky, has been appointed Secretary of the Treasury, in place of Mr. Richardson resigned. He will enter on the duties at once.

COL. THOS. A. SCOTT has been elected as President of the Pennsylvania R. R., in place of Mr. Thompson, deceased, and Geo. B. Roberts has been elected 1st Vice-President.

JUDGE DEAN has introduced a practice which might be adopted with advantage in other districts. He has prepared a charge to a grand jury, embracing all the points usually mentioned, and had it printed.

Crop Reports.

The Chicago Times publishes several columns of crop reports from various points throughout the States of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Indiana, Missouri, Minnesota and Kansas, from which it appears that on an average the wheat sown is much in excess of that of last year, and that the yield promises to be quite up to the average.

Forgeries by a Farmer.

A United States government service detective arrived at N. Y., last week with a warrant from Governor Hartranft of Pennsylvania, for Levi Saunders, a wealthy farmer and cattle dealer at Waynesborough, Franklin county, Pa., charged with extensive forgeries on the Franklin county bank, at Chambersburg.

The Condition of the Mississippi Levees.

It is said that the damages to many of the levees during the late war have never been repaired, and the present flood has so ravaged the levees which were rebuilt and impoverished the people as to render their repair and reconstruction impossible except by national aid.

A Curiosity.

There has been, for several days past, an exhibition at the News Book Store, a pair of deer antlers that may be regarded in the light of curiosities. These antlers were found Sabbath afternoon, by George Clever, Jr., over Kato's mountain, in Forsaken Hollow, who, with others, was fighting the flames from further devastation in that locality.

Heavy Express Robbery.

On Saturday night a week as the Atlantic express was passing between New Buffalo and Niles two unknown men forced open the front door of the express car and knocked down J. B. Heath, messenger, who was asserting his money packages for the different stations.

Struck by Lightning.

During the prevalence of a heavy thunder storm a few days ago, the barn on the farm of Mr. Abia Akers, in Monroe township Bedford county, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground.

Lightning at Cape May.

A new house at Cape May, just completed for the use of Mr. Hallenbach as a first-class private boarding house, facing the beach near the Stockton House, was struck by lightning on Monday afternoon in a terrific thunderstorm.

At Philadelphia, on Monday of last week, Timothy Brophy, a prisoner in the House of Correction, assaulted one of the guards, named Haines, and was throttling him, when Haines managed to reach a pistol and shot Brophy through the heart, killing him instantly.

The large and valuable brick block corner of Madison and Market streets, Chicago, owned and occupied by M. D. Wells & Co., wholesale manufacturers and dealers in boots and shoes, was entirely destroyed by fire on the 1st inst. The total loss was $400,000.

A freight train east on the Erie Railway on the afternoon of the 3rd inst., struck a wagon at a crossing about five miles east of Elmira, N. Y. Four persons in the wagon were killed.

Buffalo are moving in immense numbers west of Fort Dodge, and hundreds of hunters are gathering for the slaughter. Now is the time, if soldiers are any use on the frontier, to enforce the law against the wanton destruction of those valuable herds.

A lady was standing on one of the wharves in New York recently, bidding adieu to some friends who were about to take passage on a steamer. While standing there, a cask of molasses, which was being hoisted by an elevator above her head, burst, and she was deluged with the sweet but sticky fluid.

In De Kalb county (Mo.) recently, a woman named Jane Stivers went to hunt for eggs, leaving her child, about seven months old, playing on the floor of the house. During her absence, which was less than half an hour, a hog entered the house and on her return she found that the animal had killed the infant and partially eaten it, being intent on its horrible meal when the horror stricken mother beheld it.

C. W. Pool, claiming to live in northern Texas was arrested in St. Louis on Sunday night, on a charge of swindling a jeweller out of $5,000 worth of jewelry, which he purchased, giving in payment a mortgage bond against a farm in New York, which proved to be fraudulent.

The Burlington (Iowa) Hawkeye, relates the following incident: "Yesterday morning a boy sauntered up to a yard on Eighth street, where a woman was scratching the bosom of the earth with a rake, and leaning on the fence, said: 'Are you going around to the backyard after awhile?'"

The other evening two gentlemen paid a visit to a young lady in San Francisco. When they were about to take their departure one of them mistook an overcoat hanging on the hat rack for his own, and was about to put it on, when he felt something in the outside pocket, which he drew out, and which proved to be a revolver.
