ONLY 10 CENTS a YARD

CAN BE HAD OF F. MORTIMER.

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

PREPARED BY SETH W. FOWLE & SONS, Boston, Mass., and sold by Druggists and Dealers generally.

Nature's Great Remedy

THROAT AND LUNG DISEASES!!

It is the vital principle of the Pine Tree, obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medicinal properties are retained. Tar even in its crude state has been recommended by eminent physicians of every school. It is confidently offered to the afflicted for the following simple reasons:

1. IT CURES, not by abruptly stopping the cough, but by dissolving the phlegm and assisting nature to throw off the unhealthy matter causing the irritation. In cases of seated consumption it both prolongs and renders less burdensome the life of the afflicted sufferer.
2. Its healing principle acts upon the irritated surface of the lungs, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain, and reducing inflammation.
3. IT PURIFIES AND ENRICHES THE BLOOD. Positively curing all humors, from the common PIMPLE or ERUPTION to the severest cases of Scrofula. Thousands of affidavits could be produced from those who have felt the beneficial effects of Pine Tree Tar Cordial in the various diseases arising from IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD.
4. It invigorates the digestive organs and restores the appetite.

All who have known or tried Dr. L. Q. C. Wishart's remedies require no references from us, but the names of thousands cured by them can be given to any one who doubts our statement. Dr. L. Q. C. Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills and Worm Sugar Diarrhoea have never been equaled. For sale by all Druggists and Storekeepers, and at Dr. L. Q. C. WISHART'S Office, No. 232 N. Second St., Philad'a.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are: Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritive, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

F. MORTIMER

A Damsel.

One midsummer day, when Æolus slept and the thermometer stood in the nineties, a lady entered a store not a thousand miles off, and inquired for parasols. The obliging proprietor spread out before her samples of a large and varied stock. "Have you any of this shade of a size larger?" said the lady. The size larger was produced. "I think on the whole I prefer the size smaller." The size smaller was presented. "Have you any of this size a lighter shade of blue?" The required shade was brought out. "Haven't you any of this kind with a crooked handle?" The shade with the crooked handle appeared. "Have you any with the crooked handle not quite so heavy?" said the lady, and so continued her inquiries for every conceivable size, shade, and weight possible in the line of parasols. After nearly an hour had been thus consumed the fair shopper gathered up her handkerchief and gloves and moved for the door. "Can't I sell you a parasol?" inquired the exhausted proprietor. "Oh dear, no," replied the lady, "I was merely inquiring the prices. I am going into mourning and have one for sale."

A Girl's Knowledge.

A little girl had seen her brother playing with his burning-glass, and had heard him talk about the "focus." Not knowing what the word "focus" meant, she consulted the dictionary, and found that the focus was "the place where the rays meet." At dinner, when the family were assembled, she announced "as grand as could be," that she knew the meaning of one hard word. Her father asked her what it was. She said it was the word "focus."

"Well, Mary," said he, "what does it mean?"

"Why," she replied, "it means a place where they raise calves."

This, of course, raised a great laugh. But she stuck to her point, and produced her dictionary to prove that she was right.

"There!" said she, triumphantly: "Focus!—a place where the rays meet.—Calves are meat, and if they raise meat they raise calves. And so I am right, ain't I, father?"

A firm in Pittsburg, dealing largely in photographs, lately received a letter from a correspondent in an adjoining county, with the following singular request: "Mr. —, living here, wants a picture of his wife. She has been dead forty-four years, was a medium-sized woman, light sandy complexion, hair a little on the dark sandy order, blue eyes, weight 140 pounds, red cheeks, and thirty-five years old when she died. Enclosed find fifty cents for the picture." This bona fide request was complied with. A picture was selected from a large assortment in stock as near the description as possible, and forwarded on. Singularly enough it proved entirely satisfactory.

One day Dr. Whately was walking with a young officer of artillery who was allied to him in blood, when the latter propounded the following riddle: "What is the difference between a donkey and an archbishop?" Whately gave it up, and received the following reply: "The one carries his cross behind and the other before," referring to the marks of the cross on the back of the domestic ass and on the apron of an archbishop! Very good, indeed," laughed Whately; "and now can you tell me the difference between a donkey and a captain of artillery?" "No, indeed, I cannot," replied the officer. "There is none whatever," rejoined the archbishop.

Robert Leighton, Bishop of Dumblane, was once wooed by a maiden. The would-be Mrs. Leighton was a spinster of mature age, who called to tell the bishop she had received a revelation from heaven that he was to become her husband. The prelate, though somewhat startled, was equal to the emergency. He assured his visitor that such an intimation was not to be despised; but as yet, the designs of heaven were but imperfectly explained, seeing they had only been revealed to one of the parties. He would wait to see if a similar communication were vouchsafed to himself, and whenever that happened, would be sure to let her know.

A young lady in San Jose, Cal., about a month ago secretly married the man of her choice, and then went right along attending to her business as if nothing had happened. But the other day the happy couple concluded to publish their marriage in the local paper, and the old man saw it. Showing the notice to his daughter he sternly demanded, "What does this mean; is it a joke, Maria Jane, or is it really?" The daughter raised her head, her face suffused with blushes, and answered, "Yes, father, it is a joke—on you!" The old man weakened.

Alluding to the fact that three steamers have been fatally weakened by additions to their length, the Christian Register says:—"Many fine sermons have been ruined in the same way."
