LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NO CUTS INSERTED.

After the expiration of present contracts no more cuts or photographs will be inserted unless on metal base and not then unless quite light faced.

Our New "Eureka Jobber" which we run by steam, enables us to do work rapidly and well. Persons wanting printing of any kind done promptly and at low prices, will consult their own interests by calling at the TIMES OFFICE.

Too Much Fire.—On Thursday afternoon fire broke out in a clearing on the land of Morris Heston, Esq., in Centre twp., and before it was extinguished burnt about 25 cords of wood for George Eckert, who had cleared the land, and considerable fence for Mr. Heston, and Mr. A. B. Comp. The fire communicated to the clearing, from a burning stump which had been fired several days previous.

Crushed to Death.—On Tuesday morning the mangled body of Andrew J. Martin, a brakeman in the employ of the Northern Central railroad company, was found about five miles south of York. He was last seen alive at Hanover Junction. As his body lay in the centre of the track, it is generally supposed that he fell between the bumpers. Letters on his person indicated that he was from Marysville. His age was about twenty-three.

Disappeared.—On the 4th of June, a man named Noah Baker, employed by C. A. Rippman, as finisher of upper leather, left Newport, it is said, for Tyrone, and has not since been heard from. He left there under very mysterious circumstances, leaving his work unfinished, and an amount of money yet coming to him. He was a sober, upright man, and about five feet six inches tall, with sandy hair. Any information as to his whereabouts will be thankfully received by C. A. Rippman, Newport, Pa.

Fire at Liverpool.—On Tuesday night one dwelling house belonging to S. M. Shuler, one cabinet-maker shop and eight stables were destroyed by fire. Abraham Grubb, Wm. Wenner, Wm. Wallis, Jos. Shuler, S. M. Shuler, Geo. Singer, Jesse Cauffman, and others are the losers. All agree that it must have been the work of an incendiary. The fire broke out about 8 o'clock. It was only by the most strenuous exertions that the flames were extinguished before they extended to more valuable property. Most of the property was partially insured.

Fatal Accident.—A correspondent from Blain sends the following: "On Saturday June 13, a young man, by the name of Henry Gutshall, living near this place, and his brother-in-law, James Johnson, of New Germantown, came to town in a buggy. They unhitched, took the harness off the mare which they were driving, and were in the hotel until about four o'clock in the afternoon, when they went to the stable to hitch up. As young Johnson was laying the lines on the animal, after he had put on the harness, she kicked, and hit young Gutshall, who was standing some distance behind, in the pit of the stomach. It knocked him about fourteen feet. They took him home after he had revived, but on the following Monday evening, at about nine o'clock, he died. He suffered the most intense pain during that time.

West vs. Winn.—On Thursday last Mr. West, accompanied by the Sheriff of this county, went over to Licking Creek from McVeytown, and took possession of the house built and occupied by John Winn, on land of Wheeler and West, and fired it burning the structure to the ground. It appears that notwithstanding the action of the Court last winter, and the burning of his cabin afterwards, Winn put up another house and carried on an extensive business in manufacturing tar from pine knots locating his pits in Juniata county, however. About three weeks since Mr. West went to see Winn, and secured his promise to leave in two days if West would pay his passage to Clearfield, which the latter agreed to do. But he persistently went back to his pits, and it became necessary to dispossess him, as above stated. We have not heard of his leaving.—Lewisport Gazette.

Sudden Death.—The Gettysburg Star & Sentinel says: Andrew Low, Esq., of Fairfield, met with a sudden death in that place on Monday afternoon of last week. He had called at the residence of John B. Paxton, Esq., and sat on the porch for some time talking over school accounts, when they started for the public school-house, where the School Board was to meet. When they reached a point in front of Mr. Smith's residence, Mr. Low suddenly threw up his hands, exclaimed "Oh my!" and fell over dead. He was carried over to Mr. Samuel Smith's porch and Dr. O. W. Scott called in, who found him beyond the reach of medical aid, his death being caused by apoplexy. Mr. Low was a much respected citizen, and for a number of years filled the office of Justice of the Peace. He was about 61 years of age.

Stolen.—On Sunday a week a black horse, with a new falling-top buggy, were stolen from the premises of Mr. Levi T. Mehring, near Littlestown. The horse was of medium size, branded "C" under the mane, hair off between the hoof and pastern on right hind leg. Two ladies' blue shawls and a summer horse-cover were in the buggy when taken. Mr. Mehring offers a reward of $50 for the recovery of the property.

Almost a Fire.—Just before dark on Saturday night, a smoke was seen issuing from the roof of the house of Dr. Wesley Williamson, in Liverpool. Instant search was made for the cause, when fire was found blazing up between the weather boards and plastering, and was extinguished with a few buckets of water. A little longer delay would have resulted in another serious fire. It is not known in what manner the fire originated.

Brief Items.

Something in particular—PaAoRmTe-It CHUInAgR. The Rev. Mr. Shoup, will speak to the Pineville Union Sunday School in Little Germany, on Sunday morning June 28th.

Improvements are the order of the day, in this town. Among other changes, is a new porch in front of the Perry House.

Several communications from the upper end were received to late for insertion this week.

The Duncannon Record has made a reappearance, this time, however, as a patent inside. Messrs. Vines & Sheller are the proprietors.

A few days ago Dr. Orris' horse got his foot fast in a country bridge, in Wild Cat, and fell over, buggy and all, down an embankment. The doctor had his head cut.

A young man named James Williams shot himself on Monday of last week, near Shippensburg, and died from his wounds on Thursday. It was a case of suicide, caused by money troubles.

The Shippensburg News grows about the new time table on the C. V. R. R., and the Oakville Enterprise is pleased with it. The railroad company have not reported what they are going to do about it.

The girl who was burned by coal oil in Snyder County, at the residence of Capt. Meeker, the account of which appeared in last week's TIMES, has since died from her injuries.

The man roaming around with a large dog, who is supposed by some to be Bob Aker, is a man named Sheaffer. A few days since he was seen on the farm of Mr. H. D. Long, near Thompsettown, where he set the woods on fire in several places.

The citizens of the county who prefer to be treated by Homoeopathic remedies, can now be gratified. Dr. Darrah, who comes here well recommended, has taken an office at the Eagle Hotel, in this place, and at Gantt's Hotel in Newport. He will divide his time between the two places. See his advertisement in another column.

On Friday a week, a fire broke out in the clearing of J. B. Seidle, Esq., in Rye twp., and before it could be stopped, it burned 800 cords of wood and ten or fifteen cords of bark. It was only by great exertions that the flames were kept from extending to a large quantity of bark belonging to other parties. The fire originated from a coal pit.

A few days since, a little son of Dr. Shatto, of this borough, met with a singular mishap. He climbed up to the roof of a stable being erected by Mr. C. Roth, and put his head up between the lath, which were on ready for the shingles. After putting his head through he turned around and losing his hold, was left hanging by his chin and back of his head. He was soon discovered and removed in time to save him from serious consequences.

On Friday evening a week, a tramp stole a coat and small hand wagon from Mr. John Pennell, at the Cove. Mr. P., followed the thief on Saturday morning and overtook him near Baily's, and brought him back to Duncannon. The chap was brought before Esquire Shearer, and subsequently discharged, after giving up a portion of his plunder.

The Duncannon Record says, "Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis, has just returned from Philadelphia, where she had been to consult an optician. She had been blind for about 3 years, but we are happy to state that the surgical operation, removing the cause of blindness, was successfully performed, by Dr. P. D. Keyser, 1630 Arch St., Philadelphia, and Mrs. Lewis walked alone on the streets of this borough, Sunday, the 15th inst., for the first time in three years, with her sight fully restored."

Renovo, Pa., June 18th, 1874.

Mr. Editor.—On Friday, June 12th, quite a sad affair occurred at this place, which resulted in the accidental drowning of a young man and horse.

On the above named day, Henry Brickel, a young man of 17 years of age, and at the time driver of Mr. Petriken's Express wagon, attempted to drive into the river, (the river being quite high at the time,) either for the purpose of watering his horse or catching driftwood, of which plenty was floating at the time and by some means the team got out too far into the stream, upsetting the wagon and the young man becoming (it is supposed, entangled in the harness, both horse and man drowned. The horse and part of the wagon were found about 15 miles east the next day, and the man was not recovered till Monday 15th, about one mile from the place of accident.

Another suspension of hands at the P. & E. R. R. shops, at Renovo, took place this week, and those remaining are fearful lest they may be cut down to half time.

The through freight traffic on this road is heavy, but local traffic is very light, on account of the dullness of the times and the scarcity of money. Heavy shipments of lumber are everywhere awaiting the more activity of the market, as also is other freight along this road, such as coal, iron ore, etc.

The season has been very wet and late here, on account of the heavy rains, still the indications are that we will have a good crop of grain and fruit. Great preparations are going on at the Halls of the different orders and secret societies of Renovo, for the proper celebration of the 4th of July. As also are those dealing out the "queer" behind the yellow blinds in different parts of the town, making great efforts to lay in a good supply of "rot-gut," "Local Option," O, how feeble thou art. The Renovo House has its full share of summer visitors, who seem to enjoy the pure air and beautiful scenery of the "Allies." Yours, &c., X. X. X.

Juniata County.—From the Millintown papers of last week we copy the following:

On Thursday last, S. W. Henderson, residing in Fermanagh township, shot a favorite hound belonging to him, which exhibited symptoms of hydrophobia.

Mrs. Nicholas Bitner, residing in Port Royal, gave birth to triplets, on Sunday last,—two girls and a boy. The father is doing as well as could be expected.

T. Jeff Middagh sold a span of horses one day last week to a party from Buffalo, N. Y., for $950. He bought the span but a few days previous. Jeff always gets blooded stock and buyers come from far and near to purchase from him.

Mr. Henry W. Brubaker, formerly of this county and brother to Samuel Brubaker of Fermanagh township, was drowned on the 31st of May, in Waterloo county, Canada West, while bathing in the river. A boy was with him at the time, but was unable to render assistance. Mr. B. was aged 27 years, and leaves a wife to mourn his death.

FIRE IN MIFFLIN.

About three o'clock, on the afternoon of Sunday last, a fire broke out in the hay-loft of the stable belonging to John Wright. The following are the losses:

John Wright, stable, out-house, grain, &c., $1,000. No insurance.

Mrs. Oswald, stable, $500. Insurance, $350.

Cornelius McClellan, stable, $600. No insurance. Mr. McClellan's house and furniture were damaged to an extent of $400.

N. E. Littlefield, occupied Mr. McClellan's stable as a tin shop. His loss is about $1,000, including fifteen new stoves, a large lot of roofing tin, already prepared and intended for roofing the new store-room building being erected by R. E. Parker. No insurance.

R. E. Parker's stable was injured to the amount of $100.

The fire extended to the lumber yard of C. B. Bartley, & Co., and burned a lot of shingles, estimated at $125.

The dwelling houses occupied by John Wright, Cornelius McClellan, and the Oswald house, occupied by John Yenckley, were completely cleaned out—the furniture being carried across the street. All the furniture and carpets were badly abused.

There are different opinions in regard to the origin of the fire. Some attribute it to boys smoking on the hay-mow, and others to an incendiary.

Water was procured at the basin, by forming a line and passing buckets, and it was only by the most heroic exertions on the part of the citizens of this town and Patterson that the dwelling houses of Mr. Wright, Mrs. Oswald, and Mr. McClellan, were saved.

Sparks were carried across Main street, and the roofs of the dwelling houses occupied by John N. Howe and Gen. Bell, were on fire; also the roof of the basin bridge. The precaution, however had been taken to station men with buckets of water on the roofs of the bridge and residences of Gen. Bell, John N. Howe, Amos G. Bonaall and H. S. Goshen. These men extinguished the sparks as they fell, and thus prevented a very serious conflagration.—Democrat & Register.

Cumberland County.—From the Cumberland county papers of last week, we copy the following:

A child of Mr. Henry Wolf, proprietor of one of the hotels at Mount Holly Springs, was badly scalded on last Monday afternoon, by spilling a pot of starch over itself.

On Wednesday last, a horse, belonging to Capt. Jacob Zug, of Carlisle, broke his neck in the following manner: In attempting to pass out of a yard, he was headed off, when wheeling suddenly around, fell, killing himself instantly.—Sentinel.

Mattie Swigert, daughter of Christian and Margaret Swigert, of this place, a girl young in her teens yet, died on Wednesday evening last apparently without any previous disease. The family are deeply grieved over this sudden and unexpected bereavement.—Newell's Star.
