LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NO CUTS INSERTED.

After the expiration of present contracts no more cuts or electrolyses will be inserted unless on metal base and not then unless quite light faced.

Our New "Eureka Jobber" which we run by steam, enables us to do work rapidly and well. Persons wanting printing of any kind done promptly and at low prices, will consult their own interests by calling at the TIMES OFFICE.

Lost.—On Wednesday last, Mr. Stephen Losh while coming down from Millintown to Newport, lost his pocket book containing $80. He thinks he may have dropped it out on the car seat. A reward of $10 is offered for its return to either the telegraph office in Newport, or Miller's Hotel.

Another Fire at Liverpool.—The incendiary arrested.—On Wednesday night last, between eleven and twelve o'clock, the stables of John Detrich, David Shumaker and Mrs. Bear were destroyed by fire, with all their contents. In Detrich's stable one horse, eighty-five dozen of wheat and a quantity of hay were burnt; Mr. Shumaker also lost a quantity of hay. Mrs. Bear lost all her hay and two calves. There was also a fine horse owned by a minister, consumed in the flames. Riley R. Brink, who was charged with the crime, was arrested and had a hearing before G. C. Sharp, Esq., on Thursday. Before the case was disposed of, however, the prisoner escaped and has not been re-arrested. A reward of one hundred dollars is offered for his capture.

Accident.—On last Monday afternoon as Mr. James Vanderwerker, foreman at the Duncannon factory was assisting in hoisting some boilers, a heavy oak plank fell and struck him on the cheek, just below the eye causing a very painful, but not a dangerous wound. He will soon be attending to his duties as usual.—Record.

Sudden Death.—On Thursday evening last, Mr. Theodore Pfisger, a respected citizen of Abbotstown, fell suddenly dead in the harvest field adjoining town. He ate his supper with the family and then went out to the field to assist in taking off the wheat. While carrying a sheaf he suddenly fell forward on his face. His son Charles immediately went to his assistance and found him dead. He was about 57 years of age and had been suffering from heart disease.—Star & Sentinel.

A Frightful Accident.—The Reading Eagle of Monday evening a week gives the following particulars of an accident: "Last night a young man by the name of Benj. Dunkelberger, of Leesport, accompanied by a young lady named Ulrich, were driving along the public road near Stamm's tavern, in Penn township, when the horse ran to one side, tumbled over the bank and rolled into the canal about thirty feet below. The buggy was smashed and the animal drowned. The occupants of the vehicle fell out during the descent, and were found at 11 o'clock, both were unconscious near the edge of the water, on terra firma. The young man had his jaw broken and was otherwise so seriously injured that his recovery is doubtful. He remained in an unconscious condition until this morning, as did also the young lady, though her injuries are less severe, and good hopes of her speedy recovery are entertained. The accident was a frightful one."

Brief Items.

The Rev. Jones will preach on ordinance of feet-washing, in the Germany Bethel, on Sunday evening, July 19th.

The Record says it is probable that an arrangement has been made, so that the mill at Duncannon will again commence work on Monday.

One of Mr. Graff's girls, in Centre twp., was bitten in the foot by a copper head snake, a few days since, and for a few days suffered severely from the effects.

The occupation of the "Croakers" is not gone. Having had a good growl over the dryness of last month, they are now having a howl over the wetness of this.

The Evangelical Association will hold a camp-meeting in Centre twp., about 2 1/2 miles south-west of New Bloomfield, to commence Aug. 13th, 1874.

One day last week the deputy sheriff of Dauphin county paid Sheriff Gill, of Chester county, a visit to be instructed in the art of making the "hangman's noose."—It was in view of hanging the Behm murderers that the official sought knowledge.

The storm of the 4th inst., was quite severe in portions of the lower end of the county. At the Acqueduct it was very heavy, moving the northwest end of the Duncannon Iron Company's warehouse about three inches, and taking the one side out.

On Saturday evening some chap stepped into a puddle of water, at the corner of the Presbyterian Church, and a moment afterwards we heard him vigorously calling for "Hellen-Blazes," but we don't see what she had to do with it.

The woman who gave birth to triplets at Ferrysville, a few weeks since has died. One of the children is also dead, and another is not expected to live. The parents being poor, and not having been in that country long enough to gain a residence, Perry county will probably have a chance to foot the bill, as we learn that the woman was a resident of Saville twp.

An attempt was made by some incendiary to burn the Susquehanna bridge at Benvenue, on Monday night a week at about 12 o'clock. Coal oil had been poured on the bridge and then set on fire, but the attempt was frustrated by the watchman discovering the fire in time to extinguish it.

Many persons suppose an unsealed letter is carried in the mails for one cent.—That is a mistake, for if the envelope contains any writing, whether sealed or open, they must pay letter postage. We are frequently called on to pay the deficiency caused by persons making this error.

Supervisors should make an inspection of the various culverts which are planked over in their townships. We hear several complaints of holes in these little bridge-ways in which it is possible for a horse to get his foot fast and break his leg. A little watchfulness and repairing before the accident happens will save a law suit for damages.

On Thursday night a farmer in Centre twp., was aroused by a noise in his house, and descending the stairs, fell over a pair of heavy brogans, which the prowler had left as collateral security for the return of any articles he may have taken, in his hasty retreat. These shoes are big enough, if properly filled up, to kick the stuffing out of Mahoney Ridge. Who has got such big feet around here?

Fires.—On last Wednesday, July 7th, the house of Mr. Peter Cooney, about three miles south of Blain was totally destroyed by fire, with all its contents, except those on the first floor. The fire originated from a pipe which extended through the roof. No insurance.

Since writing the above we have just heard of another. The store and linner shop about two miles above New Germantown, belonging to J. Rowe, was destroyed by fire last night, (July 7th,) with every thing it contained. The store and shop were under one roof. No one was at home at the time, and it is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. It is insured for three thousand dollars in the "Madison, Jackson and Toboyno Home Insurance Company." This is the first loss this company has sustained since its organization.

Juniata County.—From the Millintown papers we copy the following:

The storm on Saturday blew the roof off the barn of Mrs. Andrew Patterson, at Academia, part of the roof of Pomeroy's barn, a large tree fell upon the Johnstown school house, smashing in the roof. There was not a house in Johnstown and the farm houses up the valley for three miles but had nearly all the glass broken out. George Smith, just above Johnstown, had his wheat crop entirely destroyed by the hail. It is not worth cutting except for the straw. The oats, corn and wheat crops in the vicinity of Johnstown are all destroyed.

The road from Johnstown to Academia was filled with fallen trees, blocking the road so as to impede travel until Monday morning. The cherries and apples were all knocked off the trees, destroying the entire crop.

On the Thomas Harris farm near Johnstown, the entire apple orchard was destroyed—not a tree left standing. The cherry trees upon the farm were also nearly all blown down.—Democrat & Register.

A distressing accident occurred at the Soldiers' Orphans' School at McAlisterville on Friday last. A boy aged about fifteen years, named Milson, whose mother resides at Shamokin, was employed in hauling water with a mule and cart. In passing along near the school building the mule shied at a flag that was floating in the breeze, and the boy having hold of him by the bridle the mule threw him down, and the wheel of the cart passed over his body killing him instantly. His remains were neatly confined and sent home on the 11:30 A. M. train on Saturday for interment.

About 2 o'clock on Wednesday night of last week, the dwelling house on the farm of George W. Smith in Delaware township, was destroyed by fire. Mr. Smith's son farms the place and lived in the house. When the family awoke the house was all in flames and they narrowly escaped with their lives. Mr. Smith lost about $500 worth of furniture that he had in the house, and his son lost about $300 in furniture and clothing. Mrs. Smith lost all her wearing apparel with the exception of 2 dresses. The house was worth $3,000, with an insurance of $400. The fire originated in a lot of old rails piled up against the wash-house and from the wash-house communicated to the dwelling house, and is attributed to the torch of an incendiary.

Cumberland County.—From the Cumberland county papers of last week, we copy the following:

The United Brethren of the Shippensburg circuit will shortly erect a church edifice at Scotland.

Mr. William Moore, of South Middleton, twp., recently sold five fat steers, which weighed 6,790 pounds.

On Friday evening, Charles Rahn, residing near Mt. Holly, accidentally fell off a high porch at Ahl's store at Boiling Springs, and broke his collar bone.

During the storm on Saturday one of the large linden trees in the First Presbyterian Church Square, Carlisle, was twisted off and fell to the ground with a crash.

Sometime during Sunday night the store of Mr. Ensminger, leather dealer, on North Hanover street, Carlisle, was burglariously entered, and a good quantity of sole leather stolen therefrom.

On Sabbath of last week, a little son of Mr. William Sellers, residing at Hockersville, fell from a cherry tree, breaking one of his arms, and otherwise injuring himself. Dr. Longsdorf gave the necessary attention and the boy is doing well.

Miss Mary Creamer, of Big Spring, fell from a cherry tree at the residence of Mr. Geo. Earner, near Carlisle, on Monday last, and alighting on her head was severely injured. She was insensible for some time but is now recovering.

On Thursday of last week, a son of Mr. Samuel Baker, of Southampton township, had his right leg broken by a kick from a horse. It appears the young man, while riding through the lane was met by a number of horses belonging to a neighbor, when one of the animals kicked at the one he was riding with the result as above stated. The kick was quite severe, breaking and shivering the bones of the limb below the knee in a serious manner. The boy is about fourteen years of age, and is doing well, under the attendance of Dr. C. A. Howland.—Shippensburg News.
