LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NO CUTS INSERTED.

After the expiration of present contracts no more cuts or photographs will be inserted unless on metal base and not less than quite light faced.

The Philomathean Literary Society of Bloomfield Academy, will hold a basket picnic at Gibson's Rock, Perry county, Pa., on the 6th of August. All members are invited to attend.

Retired.—Mr. George Shrom announces that his connection with the News has ceased. He does not state who the purchaser of the paper is, but we are informed that it is Mr. Wm. Minick.

Second Crop of Oats.—A correspondent from Rye twp., says, "The late rains have started a second crop of oats, which promise a better crop than the first growth, and farmers are now in doubt, as to whether to cut the first growth or wait for the second to mature."

Notice.—I will call on the citizens of Bloomfield, this week, for their State and County tax for 1874. Please bear this in mind, and be prepared to fork over.

J. B. HACKETT, Collector.

Robbery.—The Duncannon Record says: On Tuesday night at about 12 o'clock, some person or persons broke in and robbed the gun shop of James Black of two shot guns. We learn that the thieves did attempt to go into the house at the kitchen door, but were frustrated in their plans. Rumor has it that a regular band of outlaws are now concealed in the mountains, with the plain purpose of committing robbery on inoffensive persons, and probably incendiarism, let all be on their guard.

On the same night the shoemaker shop of William DePugh's was broken into and robbed of a pair of boots, a rasp and several smaller articles. The robbers after leaving Mr. DePugh shop, went to the house of Mr. Joseph Smith, stealing several hams, a lot of fruit jars, and a large "mess" of pickles.

Narrow Escape.—A little daughter of Jonas Beets, residing at the east end of town aged about four years, made, on Wednesday, an almost miraculous escape from sudden death. The child, while crossing the Pennsylvania Railroad track, was struck by the engine of a freight train bound east, and pitched off the track. She fell immediately outside of the rail, where either because stunned, frightened, or greatly self-possessed, she lay quietly until the train was stopped, which was not done till about the half of a long train had passed by. Every wheel of the passing cars touched the body of the child and the circumstance is one of those marvellous escapes we occasionally meet, which would indicate the interference of a higher power.

An Elopement.—The Altoona Tribune says:—During the past twenty-four hours this city has been rife with rumors concerning the elopement of a well-known citizen in the person of John M. Bush, a merchant who does business at No. 1294 Seventh avenue, with a young Westmoreland county girl named Alice Hutchison. Mr. Bush and wife resided in the same building in which the store was located. They have been married for the past nineteen years during which time the family has not been blessed with any olive branches. About one year since Alice Hutchison was employed as a domestic in the Bush family, and immediately thereafter an intimacy sprang up between her and Mr. Bush which culminated in Mrs. Bush driving Alice from the premises. While she remained an inmate of the family it is alleged that J. M. B. bought Alice an organ for which he paid the sum of $175.00; at another time a gold ring, for which he paid $15, and at other times articles valued at various sums, from $5 to $100.

After she had been driven from the house Alice returned to her home in Westmoreland county, but kept up an uninterrupted correspondence with Mr. Bush, until a day or two since, when he packed up his other shirt in his little satchel, and meeting Alice at the depot, the twain left for where the woodbine twineth. Previous to taking his departure Mr. Bush had a little interview with his banker and drew out all the available money that he had deposited with him. He doubtless expects to remain absent for some time as he took the precaution to delegate to a friend with the power of an attorney to look after his business relations. Mr. Bush is a man who has but one arm, and has enjoyed the reputation of being a straight-forward business man, and honorable in all his dealings. It is said, however, that his domestic relations were of a very unpleasant nature.

Church Notices.

Preaching in the Reformed Church next Sunday at 2 1/2 o'clock, P. M. Prayer meeting on Thursday evening. No Preaching in the Presbyterian church during the month of August. Preaching in the M. E. church on Sunday evening, prayer meeting on Thursday evening.

Brief Items.

The real estate and personal effects of the Franklin Repository will be offered at Sheriff's sale on the 7th of August.

Mr. L. D. Welker, a resident of Marysville, employed as a brakeman on the N. C. R. R., was fatally injured on Saturday a week, near Hanover Junction.

Mr. Zach Rice has lost his pocket book, and wants it returned, as it contains $250, besides some valuable papers. He will pay $50 reward for it.

One of our subscribers says if these boys do not stop crowding about the work they have done, he will tell what "he knows about farming," and put them all to shame.

A new school house is to be built in Oliver township, near the Furnace. Nich. Hartzel has the contract for $750. He also has the contract for building an addition to the school house in Newport for $2,500.

On Saturday, July 18th, Harry, a little son about four years of age, of Jacob Sheibley, ate a large box of Indigo, which came near proving fatal, but prompt medical attention saved his life.

The enterprising proprietors of the Juniata Pottery, Messrs. M. & T. Miller, have placed a very fancy wagon on the road, for the purpose of delivering their ware.

Mr. Toland, the post master at Duncannon, has for some time been troubled by chicken thieves. He ended his trouble a few nights since by the capture of a mink in a trap he had set.

Candidates for the various offices to be filled at the next election are skirmishing around the county in a way that suggests that the men are hunting the office, and not the office the men.

A few days since, Mr. John Kramer had a narrow escape from serious injury. While working in a quarry on the farm of David Smith, five or six loads of stone fell, some of them bruising him on the leg.

Mr. Josiah Sloop, of Rye twp., has lost 2 cows and 1 heifer. The animals strayed away while Mr. S. was absent harvesting, and as yet he has no report of their whereabouts. If an honest man has them he will make known the fact.

Rye township is sadly troubled with thieves. Not long since they stole all the meat on the premises of John Frymoyer, and now to secure the vegetables to eat with the meat, they, or some other thieves dug the potatoes from the patch, belonging to Wm. Seitz, and carried them away.

An adjourned court was held in the Court House on Monday of last week. No business was done except to argue the mandamus applied for to compel payment of a sum claimed by Mr. Hartzel, for building road in Howe twp. No decision has yet been rendered.

On Monday afternoon of last week, a son of Joseph Mutzabaugh, aged six years, while playing around the Duncannon Blast Furnace, accidentally fell through a "vent" of the same, a distance of thirty-five feet. He was terribly bruised, and also sustained severe internal injuries.

For some time past Mr. Daniel Howard, residing below Newport, has been sorely afflicted with a bunion on one of his feet, so much so that he was compelled to quit working at his trade—carpentering. A few days ago while examining the supposed bunion, he extracted a "catfish stinger" from his foot, since which he has had much relief.

On Friday last, a crock containing cherry butter standing on the stove in the residence of Wm. Lupfer, burst with a noise as loud as that made by the discharge of a gun. Mrs. Lupfer who was stirring it at the time, was completely covered with the hot butter, and was somewhat burned on the face. The crock was broken into very small pieces.

Squirrels cannot legally be shot until the 1st of September this year. It is rather singular at what various dates our Legislature has legalized the shooting of squirrels within the last 33 years. In 1841 the law allowed this game to be taken from the 10th of June to the 1st of January; in 1852, from the 1st of July; in 1866, from the 15th of August; in 1869, from the 1st of August; in 1873, from the 1st of July, and in 1874, from the 1st of September.

Madison Still Ahead.

Mr. Editor:—Your last issue contained a piece signed Beholder, in which he states that there are some mighty working-men in Jackson. It reads as follows: "A. B. Troette and Hezekiah Minick, of our town, cut, tied and shocked on Captain Gutshall's farm, thirty acres of wheat in seven days. They cut this in seven days in succession. The wheat was as heavy as any in the county. Now who will beat this?" We answer Madison. Messrs. William, James and Samuel Arnold and Samuel Sheaffer, cut twenty-five acres of oats on Colonel Arnold's farm in three fourths of a day, the oats was heavy and hard to cut, being knocked down by a previous storm. Jackson, what do you think of that? It would be well for Centre to consult Jackson, but it would be still better for Jackson to consult Madison, before they crow so loud. It is very humiliating for one to be beaten, but how much more so is it for those poor men of Jackson to be taken down so miserably after thinking they did the business. We would only say to our Jackson friends before you speak again be sure there are none to beat you. Try again. M.

Where are those Whortleberries?

Mr. Editor:—One day last week, a party of twelve or fourteen went in a spring-wagon to the Bower's Mountain, about three miles south of Blain, for Whortleberries. It was a pitiful sight to see their return, and still more pitiful to hear the story of their adventures with different objects while there. Among the objects they encountered was an innumerable host of flies. That could have been easily seen by any person who saw their entrance into town. The horses and occupants of the "vehicle," were covered with fern leaves, especially Dick, for he was entirely covered with weeds, which he had mistaken for fern leaves. It is not necessary to mention what Dick. We suppose he knows whom we mean. But, in the language of our subject, we exclaim, "Where are those Whortleberries." We have not seen any of them, but we have heard of them. According to accounts they had a tinful apiece. We think they had better try it again. CORRESPONDENT.

Trouble in the Peace Union Camp.

Last week, Mr. B.'s hogs strayed out on the road, and got into "Peace Union" yard through an open gate, doing some little damage. Then "P. U." drove the hogs into his barn-yard, to shut them up, but the fence being bad, they broke through into the cornfield, which so raised the spirit of "P. U." that he set his dogs on the hog and stoning it, injuring it badly, then he threw it out over the fence, killing it then and there. After Mr. B., heard that his hog was killed, he talked to P. U., about it, and got but little satisfaction. Then P. U., took the hog home and buried it in his dung-beat right beside the public road and the stench is anything but agreeable to those who pass the road. As the citizens of this valley are all peaceable and quiet, nothing was yet done in the matter, but they would advise Peace Union not to go too far or he will provoke them to wrath, and the law will take its course. NEW GERMANY.

Cumberland County.—From the Cumberland county papers of last week, we copy the following:

Never did Cumberland county gather a larger grain crop than this year.

One morning last week, a large copper-head snake was found lying upon a table in the kitchen of Mr. William Powley's residence, on Mountain Street. Mr. Powley succeeded in killing his snakeship, but how it got into the house is a mystery.—Mt. Holly Echo.

Mrs. Swoveland, wife of Mr. Foster Swoveland, residing at Upper Holly was bitten by a copperhead snake on last Sunday evening. She had taken a few steps from her door, and it being dark, tread upon the reptile. Medical aid was immediately rendered by Dr. Lauman.—Id.

Owing to some misunderstanding between the officers of the Carlisle Gas & Water Company and the Messrs. Spahr, work at the new reservoir will be stopped for a few days. We have not learned the cause of the trouble. The mason work will not be commenced until next spring. It will take 100,000 brick to complete the job, and we are informed the brick will be furnished by William Barnitz.

Two prisoners named Francis and Charles Speelman, brothers, dug themselves out of our jail on Wednesday night of last week. With a case knife and chisel they made a hole in the wall of their cell sufficiently large to enable them to creep out. Then with a rope, made out of their bed ticking, they let themselves to the ground; with the aid of another rope, to which was attached grappling irons, they scaled the high stone wall, and took to their heels. The first-named is 5 feet 10 inches in height, 26 years of age, with light hair and dark eyes. The latter is 18 years of age, of stout build, 5 feet three inches in height, with light hair and eyes. They were in jail for burglary, and would have been tried at our coming August court. Sheriff Totton offers a reward of $50 for their apprehension. The escaped fugitives are old criminals, and were sentenced on two or three occasions in the Dauphin county court for stealing.—Volunteer.

Juniata County.—From the Millintown papers we copy the following:

Samuel H. Brown has been appointed postmaster for the borough of Patterson, vice Samuel Strayer, removed.

Simon Albright, proprietor of the Juniata hotel in this place, died last Saturday night about 11 o'clock, of a lingering illness. His remains were taken to Newport, Perry county, for interment, on Tuesday.

On Monday afternoon, during the prevalence of the rain, lightning entered the railroad telegraph office at Patterson, and, unseated and tumbled on to the floor Mr. Isaac Coffman and W. D. Cramer, Esq.—They were not seriously hurt. For a minute or two they did not know what ailed them.—Sentinel.

One day last week, Edwin Longacre's son, at Thompsontown, "hitched up" a colt in a one horse wagon. He then got in the wagon, but before he could grasp the lines the colt started and ran away. Mr. Longacre seeing the dangerous position of his boy attempted to stop the horse, and was thrown down and severely injured, the wagon going over him. His shoulder was bruised, arm out, and somewhat damaged. Dr. I. N. Grubb attended to his hurts. He is reported as recovering rapidly from his injuries.—Democrat & Register.

Stone and Earthen Ware.—The subscribers, proprietors of the Juniata Pottery, near Newport, desire to give notice that they are keeping up a full variety of stone and earthen ware, and are prepared to promptly fill orders for all goods in their line at low prices. Post office address, Newport, Perry co., Pa. M. & T. MILLER.

Sin is often the result of physical ill-health and feeble stomachs. During one-third of our time the process of digestion continues. To be dyspeptic is to be miserable; dyspepsia is the foundation of fever and all the diseases of the blood, liver, skin and kidneys. Dyspepsia yields to the virtues of the vegetable ingredients in that great purifier of the blood and restorer of health, Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters. 25 ct

"Time Tries All Things," and has proved that Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is the remedy par excellence for the cure of coughs, colds, croup, whooping-cough, bronchitis, asthma, phthisis, sore throat, and influenza. It cures coughs and colds instantaneously. It soothes the irritated parts; it heals the inflammation; and even consumption itself yields to its magic influence.

Officers and soldiers who served in the army, physicians, surgeons, and other eminent men and women everywhere, join in recommending Johnson's Anodyne Liniment to be the best internal and external family medicine ever invented. That's our experience.

All the year round, Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders should be given to horses that are "kept up." To horses and cattle that graze in summer they should only be given in winter and spring.
