which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

SETH W. FOWLE & SONS, Boston, Mass.,

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

A Dog's Enjoyment.

About noon yesterday a freight clerk at the Central depot thought he would like to take a good wash and a nice swim, and he proceeded down the yards to a slip, looked all around to see if a policeman was in sight and then shed his linen and made a dive. He left his clothes on some boards where he had a fair field to look out that the boys didn't sly it on them. He came out of the water happy and refreshed. He looked for his pants and they had disappeared. He looked down the yards, and saw a big dog playing with them. The canine would toss them aloft and catch them as they came down, and then he would pretend they were "game," and the sound of his clashing teeth could be plainly heard. The clerk started for the dog, but just then several women, looking for an excursion boat, came in sight, and he had to dodge around a lumber pile. When the women had passed he began whistling at the dog, but he might as well have whistled at the barn. Then he tried coaxing, and when that had no effect he hurled a club. The dog picked up the pants and disappeared around the corner of the wheat elevator, where he was safe. The clerk put on his shirt and vest and started out, but he heard a passenger train coming in and he had to get back. Pretty soon he noticed a small boy down by the elevator and he called to him. Some more excursion women happened along, and hearing the cries they approached the lumber. The clerk put his head out and warned them that he was insane, and they halted. The boy came up, two workmen approached, and finally a crowd of about forty stood gazing at the lumber pile, not one of whom dared approach for a long time. Then two of the men armed themselves with clubs and flanked around, then threw stones over the pile to scare the man out, and before any one knew who it was and what had occurred, the crowd had grown to a hundred. The clerk finally made them understand what was the matter, and when his torn and tattered pantaloons were brought up he slipped into them and sulked down along by a freight train, swearing at every jump.—Detroit Free Press.

At a recent prayer meeting of colored people at Erie, the decency and good order of the meeting being disturbed by a negro named Brown, whose prayers in public were only incoherent ravings, the pastor inquired, "What fool nigger's dat pray'n down dar near the do?" A dozen people replied with one voice: "It am Brudder Brown, sah." "Den," replied the pastor, "Brudder Brown, subside, and let some one pray dat's better acquainted wid de Lord."

A far-sighted fellow at Bristol, Eng., wrote to his fiancée: "I wish, my darling, that you would not write me such long letters. If you were to bring an action for breach of promise against me, the lawyers would copy the correspondence between us and charge fourpence for every folio of seventy-two words. The shorter the letters, the more we save from the lawyers."

An unfortunate man in Connecticut who is always disappointed in every thing he undertakes, went clamming the other day, and fished up a pocket-book containing gold, silver coin and bank notes to the value of a thousand dollars. "Just my confounded luck again," he remarked, "here I go for clams and I get this truck. It's rough on a feller."

What would our wives say if they knew where we are?" said the captain of a schooner when they were beating in a deep fog, fearful of going ashore.

"Humph, I shouldn't mind that," replied the mate, "if we only knew where we were ourselves."

A junior asked a young lady the following conundrum: "If small girls are wafers, are large ones wafers?" "Certainly," she replied. "At any rate, the boys are in the habit of applying them to their lips in sealing their vows."

A painter being asked to estimate the cost of painting a certain house, drew forth pencil and paper, and made the following calculation: "A nought is a nought; three into five twice you can't—I'll paint your house for fifty dollars."

A New York paper gravely observes that the suicide of a farmer, which it notices, "is singularly strange, inasmuch as he has not been in the habit of doing such things."
