LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NO CUTS INSERTED. After the expiration of present contracts no more uts or electrolypes will be inserted unless on metal uses and not then unless quite light faced.

Blanks.-Justices' and Constables' blanks for sale at this office.

J. H. B .- Your communication being entirely for the purpose of advancing the interests of a candidate for office, can only be inserted as an advertisement. We do not advocate the individual interests of any candidate, but our advertising columns are open to you, or any other party, at regular

The Champion Fisher. We think Mr. Herman Eppler, of Marysville, can surely be called the champion bass fisher. Last year, he and his brother caught with hook and line 1,519, and this season they have caught over 300, some of which weigh five and a half pounds.

A Curious Chicken .- Mrs. Rhodes, of Rye twp., has a chicken on her premises that has three legs. The third leg is behind the two regular ones, and as the chicken runs, that leg appears to be used as much as the others. On the third leg there are only three toes, otherways the leg is as perfect as the others.

Saved a Dog .- On Saturday night a week, Col. J. Hartzell, of Newport, heard a splash in the spring back of his house, and supposing some person had fallen in, hastened to their relief. Feeling around in the darkness, he grasped a dog which he pulled out in safety. In return for his kindness, the animal gave him a severe bite in the Prosperous Potters.-Two weeks since we noticed the fact that Messrs. M. & T. Miller, had placed a splendid new wagon on the road for the delivery of their ware. And now we see, that they have still another fine wagon. Well, potters who make good ware and are gentlemanly men to deal with, deserve to prosper, and we suppose that is the secret of the Miller boys success.

Republican Convention .- A Republican Convention was held in this borough, on Monday of last week, for the purpose of selecting Rrepresentative delegates and Senatorial conferees. Mr. John D. Cree, of Landisburg was elected delegate to the State convention, and Messrs. John Rouse, James E. Stephens and Emanuel Reisinger, Senatorial conferees, with power to appoint their own alternates.

Democratic Conventions,-Two Democratic Conventions will be held in this county, this fall. The first will be held on Monday, Aug. 15th, to name a candidate for Congress, elect a representative delegate to the State Convention, and appoint conferees to meet the conferees of Juniata and Mifflin to choose a Senatorial delegate to Pittsburg.

The second will be held on Monday, Sept., 28th for the purpose of forming a county ticket.

XA Reckless Feat.-Most of our readers have seen the high ledge that towers above the dam a little below Gibson's Rock .-This ledge must be at least 80 feet high, and is nearly perpendicular. A few days ago two young ladies from Philadelphia, crossed the creek and went around to the top and, then descended down the face of these rocks in a little gully, that has probably been cut by the action of the water .-This is a feat, we think, that no man in the country was ever foolish enough to try, and exceedingly risky.

A Cow Dispute.—Two neighbors in Rys township, Mr. R., and Mr. S., have a queer cow case on hand. Both of them have had a young cow missing several weeks, but recently a cow came on to the premises of Mr. S., which he supposed his missing animal. Mr. R., also claimed the cow, and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Mr. S., for detaining his property. The arrest was not made, however, as many of the neighbors who supposed they knew the animal well, sided with Mr. S., and said the cow was his; others who knew the cow that was lost by Mr. R., were equally positive it was his missing animal. Both parties have a record of the time when their cow would be fresh, and as Mr. R's., was to come in about October 1st and Mr. S's., not till Spring, the matter was left for time to decide. It is not often that there is so perfect a resemblance between two cows as there appears to be in this case, and it is fortunate there is a way to correctly test the matter. Had there not been, we should probably have had a suit similar to one which occurred in this county some years since, when two parties claimed one animal.

Church Notices.

No Preaching in the Presbyterian church during the month of August. Prayer meeting service every Wednesday

No preaching in the M. E. Church next Sabbath. Prayer meeting on Thursday

Brief Items.

We call attention to the valuable real estate of the late William Adair, deceased, to be sold at public sale, at Loysville, Per-ry county, on Saturday, September 26th.

Each side has had "a say" on the Hog Killing Scrape and that ought to be enough. At any rate it is enough for us.

To-day the Republicans of Cumberland county hold their county convention.

Messrs. Hetrich & Fleisher, of Newport, have received the contract for the erection Dr. Crawford's new dwelling house, in Mifflin.

The U. B. camp meeting, near Sher-mansdale, will commence August 14th. No huckstering will be allowed on or near the grounds.

Mr. David Milliken, of Brown township, Mifflin county, recently advertised a horse as lost or stolen. Last week he found the horse upon his own farm, doubled up in a sink hole 12 feet deep, dead.

Mr. Frank Till of Reading, has commen-ced taking out iron ore on Darius Long's farm about 2½ miles south west of Bloom-

Mr. Zachariah Rice is putting up the finest brick dwelling house in Spring township, and probably, as fine as any in the

During court in Bloomfield we noticed but one person who appeared to be under the influence of liquor. The hotels were quiet and good order prevailed. So much for Local Option.

There are over sixty city boarders now stopping in this place. The largest num-ber of them are boarding at the Academy. The Perry House has leased a portion of Miss Wilson's house, to furnish accommodations for some of their guests.

In answer to several inquiries, we reply that "Kerosene Oil" is what is known in 'this vicinity as "Coal Oil." In New York, and all the eastern states "Petroleum Oil," prepared for furnishing light, is known only by the name of "Kerosene."

A New York state paper says: "A Troy clergyman went a fishing the other day, but had no luck. On his return he stood his pole and line up against the house, and in a short time caught a hen." If this clergyman had been a Brooklyn man, we might moralize, and get off a joke too, by saying, thus did the hen re-ward Beecher.

A young lady in Newport a few nights since, put a piece of wedding cake under her pillow, with the belief that she would dream of the man she was to marry. But that evening she had a couple of plates of ice cream, and considerable cake, and a piece of water melon, and the consequence was, that she says, she will remain single all her life, rather than to marry the man she saw in her dreams.

Cumberland County .- From the Cumberland county papers of last week, we copy the following:

copy the following:

The Newville Star says: On Tuesday last, as Dr. Hemminger and Stacy G. Glauser, of this place, were leaving Carlisle with a double team the horses took fright when opposite the depot, at some loading which was going on there and ran, gyrating badly, in the street. Dr. H. got out unburt, but Stacy G., in attempting to escape, got his foot entangled in the line and fell, the horses dragging him over a newly-made pike at a high speed. Our friend G., appreciating his perilous position, made a correspondent effort to free himself. By dint respondent effort to free himself. By dint of all the exertion possible, he succeeded in grasping the line, and seizing hold of the axle of the buggy with the other hand, bore himself off the ground long enough to free himself. The distance he was dragged is several hundred yards, and upon examina-tion of his injuries it was found that one ankle was badly wrenched, head bruised and cut, and the skin scratched off a considerable portion of his left thigh. All in all it was a most perilous accident, for his life depended entirely on his ability to free his entwined leg. The horses were caught sev-eral miles out of town. Mr. G. has met several narrow escapes of recent years, and it would most likely behoove him to in-quire into what sign he was born under. He is able to be about on crutches.

Juniata County .- From the Missintown papers we copy the following :

On Thursday morning last, the family of Dr. Beale, in Port Royal, being absent after berries, some thief entered the house by crawling in at the window, and taking therefrom a box containing $93.00 in money belonging to James Thompson, jeweler, who had deposited the money in Dr. Beale's house for safe keeping.

Last Friday Mr. Amantas Howell, a citizen of Spruce Hill township, in cleaning out a spring exposed himself too much to cold water. Sometime during the fore part of the following night his limbs were seized upon by rheumatism.— Mrs. Howell went to the attic to get certain herbs to make tea for Mr. Howell. The tea was made and drank, and both Mr. and Mrs. Howell passed into a sleep, from which they were suddenly aroused by a neighbor shouting that their house was on fire. The neighbor lived away about half a mile, and was aroused by his horses in a pasture field running and snorting with fright at the burning house. Some of the contents of the dwelling were got out.—
The building was entirely destroyed. It was insured in the York at $1400. The furniture was insured at between $200 and $300.—Democrat & Register.

Camp Meeting.—There will be a camp meeting held by the U.B. Church, commencing August 28, on the farm owned by Lewis Gingerich, one and a half miles North-east of Ickesburg and eight miles South of Millerstown, in Raccoon Valley. All men thus introding, will not only offend the better thinking class of people, but will incur the divine-displeasure of God upon them, and will be severely dealt with. All the ground laying convenient, will be as secured that men thus coming will be trespassing. LEWIS GINGERICS PETER WAX, SOLUMON ROTE, Court Proceedings.

The regular term of our Courts was held last week. All the Judges were in present. The attendance during the first portion of the week was unusually large. The general miscellaneous business was transacted on Monday, and on Tuesday the trial list was taken up and the following cases disposed of:

Upon motion of C. H. Smiley, Esq., Wilson Lupfer was admitted to practice law in the several Courts of this county. Also, upon motion of Chas. A. Barnett, Esq., J. B. Ewing, Esq., of Harrisburg, was admitted to the Bar of this county.

* COMMON PLEAS.

Martin Smith vs. W. R. S. Cook. This was an appeal from the Judgment of a Justice of the Peace and arose from a dissustee or the reace and arose from a dis-pute in regard to the admeasurement of some lumber. Verdict for plaintiff for $18.80. Potter and Barnett for plff. McIntire and Sponsler for deft. Mary A. Reed vs. David Buchanan. This was an action of trover and conversion brought to recover for four sheep that strayed away, and were identified by plaintiff, as her sheep though among those owned by deft. This was the first time that the title to "Mary's Little Lamb" was ever contested in our Courts. Verdict for plaintiff for 210 25 Malaring for 210 25 Research tiff for $19.25. McIntire for plff. Barnett for deft.

Elias Weaver and Mary Ann, his wife, rs. James Hoffman and Alice, his wife. This was an action of slander, for words

This was an action of slander, for words uttered by defendent's wife derogatory of plaintiff's wifes character previous to her marriage. Verdict for plff. for six cents damages and all costs. Smiley and Markel for plff. McIntire and Sponsler for deft.

James P. Scott vs. Philip Cook administrator of Henry Cook. This was an action on an article of agreement, which had been entered into by Scott, with Henry Cook in his lifetime to farm decedents farm, and plaintiff claims damages for breech of said plaintiff claims damages for breech of said agreement. Verdict for plaintiff for $70. Barnett and Markel for plff. McIntire and Sponsler for defendent.

Sponsier for defendent.

Samuel Klinepeter vs. H. Simonton administrator of Jacob Klinepeter. This action grew out of partnership transactions during the lifetime of Jacob Klinepeter, and their accounts had never been settled between them. After the trial had proceeded to some length the parties settled upon the following terms: Defendent confessed a independent to heintiff, for $75 and fessed a judgment to plaintiff for $75 and each one paid his own costs. Sponsier, McIntire and Markel, for plff. Barnett and Smiley for deft.

G. W. Reamer, administrator of Philip Reamer, vs. Juniata Township. Continued

QUARTER SESSIONS. Commonwealth vs. Charles Jackson. The defendent in this case was a young man of about 18 years of age, and a native of the island of Barbadoes, one of the West In-dia group. He had been a sailor during a great portion of his life, and seen much of the world, and possessed considerable edu-cation, which made him rather an interest-ing character. He was in color a Mulatto, ing character. He was in color a Mulatto, or more properly as termed in his own country, a French Creole. Having been treated badly on board the vesel he landed at New York, and on his way to the west, he stopped in Marysville, where he broke into a saloon during the night, and was caught in the act of taking a couple of pies. The indictment contained two counts, one for burglary and the other for larceny. The count for burglary was imperfectly drawn and quashed on motion of perfectly drawn and quashed on motion of counsel. Defendent plead guilty to the larceny, and was sentenced to thirty days imprisonment in the county jail. Baily and Barnett for Commonwealth. Junkin and Seibert for deft.

Com. vs. Thomas Campbell. Indictment fornication and bastardy upon oath of Mrs. Mary Hart. This did not present the or-dinary case of youthful indiscretion, but both parties had reached an advanced age. The prosecutrix, a widow and the defend-ent a widower. Much interest was manient a widower. Much interest was manifested in the result of this trial by the people in the upper end of this county, where both the parties lived and were well warded coulty. Defendent movknown. Verdict guilty. Defendent moved for a new trial and the case is held over to next term for argument. Baily, Junkin, Smiley and Lyons for com. Sponsler and Barnet for deft. Same vs. G. J. Davis. Indictment adultery upon oath of Charlotte Scont. Recognizance of defendent forfeited for failure to appear, but was respited to next term.

Same vs. T. W. Morisy. Indictment, assault and battery, upon oath of Mary H. Rice. Verdict not guilty and prosecutrix to pay costs. Bailey, Barnett and Ewing for Com. McIntire and Sponsler for deft.

Same vs. Mary H. Rice. Surety of the peace upon oath of T. W. Morley. The defendent in the case on the witness stand, took it upon herself to recount a brief sketch of her life, and of the treatment she had received, at the hands of her prosecutor. Her language was well selected, and her story told with marked effect upon all who heard it, and although the jury found against her in the assault and battery case in which she was prosecutix, yet we are of the opinion that she was decidedly victorious in the end, in accomplishing her purpose. Defendant required to enter into her own recognizance, in the sum of $300 for her appearance at the next term of of court. Balley, McIntire and Sponsler for Com. Ewing and Barnett for deft.

Same vs. Wm Gray. Surety of the peace upon oath of Wm. O'Donnell. Defendant sentenced to pay costs of prosecution.— Bailey and Barnett for com. McIntire and Lyons for deft.

BILLS PASSED UPON BY THE GRAND JURY. Com. vs. Michael Shearer.—Indictment, fornication and bastardy. A true bill.— Defendant not arrested.
Same vs. Lucinda Long.—Indistment, fornication. A true bill. Defendant not arrested. Same vs. Daniel Etter, Jr. Indictment rape. A true bill, but defendant not ar-rested.

Same vs. J. W. Morley. Indictment same vs. J. W. Morrey. Indictment adultery. Not a true bill.
Same vs. James Hayes, Margaret Hayes and Maria Ross. Indictment assault and battery. A true bill, and defendants put under bonds for their appearance next former vs. James A. Bailey. Indictment forgery. Not a true bill and prosecutor, Amos Clouser, pay costs.

Same vs. Amos Clouser. Indictment perjury. Not a true bill, and prosecutor, James A. Bailey, to pay costs. Same vs. Isaac Dunkle. Indictment sell-bill, and county to pay costs.

Same vs. Peter Wertz. Indictment selling liquor without license. Not a true bill and county to pay costs.

NOLLE PROSECTES. Commonwealth vs. Wesley Baxter.— Indictment burglary, upon oath of Elizabeth March.
