LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NO CUTS INSERTED.

No Cuts or Stereotypes will be inserted in this paper, unless light face and on metal bases.

Sales.—We call attention to the following sales, bills for which have been printed at this office:

Mrs. Helen Miller, at her residence in this borough, will sell household goods on September 3rd.

On Saturday, September 13th, Mr. John Detrick, Sr., will sell at his residence, in Liverpool, household goods and a lot of blacksmith's tools.

Personal.—Col. Audenreid, of the U. S. Army, is now on a visit to the family of Mr. James Orr, in this borough. Col. A., was during the war a member of Gen. Grant's staff, and is well known not only in this county, but in Europe. On Saturday evening the Bloomfield Cornet Band gave him a serenade, which compliment was acknowledged by the Col. in a short speech.

Bush Meeting.—The Bush Meeting in Mr. Sheibley's woods will begin on Saturday night, September the 5th. Preaching at 7 1/2 o'clock, also on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, after which there will be communion services; children's meeting at half-past one; preaching at 2 1/2 o'clock, also at 7 o'clock. Persons will please bring provisions along—so as to remain all day on the grounds on Sabbath; several preachers from a distance will be present. Should it so happen that the weather should be too disagreeable to go to the woods, the meeting will be held in the United Brethren church in Duncannon.

Information for Sportsmen.—Under the game laws now in force in this State, it is legal to kill game as follows:

Deer, Squirrels and Pheasants from Sept. 1st to Jan. 1st. Partridges from Nov. 1st to Jan. 1st. Reed Birds from Sept. 1st to Dec. 1st. Rabbits from Oct. 1st to Feb. 1st. Wood-cock from July 4th to Jan. 1st. Wild Turkeys from Oct. 1st to Jan. 1st. Wild Ducks, Wild Geese, Pigeons or Snipe can be shot at any time. Black Bass can be caught from June 1st to March 1st. Trout can be caught from April 1st to Aug. 15th.

The fine for violation of any game law is from $5 to $50, one half of which goes to the informer.

Shot at.—On Monday, whilst Capt. Mitchell, one of the proprietors of the Stage route from this place to New Berlin, Union Co. was on his way to deliver the mail at this place, and about two miles north from here, where he has to pass through a woods for a distance of two or three miles, and whilst driving along leisurely, he was shot at twice, one of the balls passing under his arm very close to the body, and both balls piercing the stage. A few think that he got in range of some one shooting at a squirrel, and that it was purely accidental. The prevailing opinion, however, is that it was the intention to kill the driver, (knowing that it was the stage) and rob the mail.—Middlebury Post.

Brief Items.

A. M. Markel, Esq. of this borough, was one of the secretaries of the Democratic Convention, at Pittsburg last week.

The Mansion Farm belonging to the George Hoffman estate, was sold on Thursday last for $6,000. Hon. Joseph Baily, was the purchaser.

Mrs. Joseph Miller has sold her house, in this borough, to Hon. Joseph Baily, and will have a sale of personal property on the premises, on Thursday of this week.

It gives a town an enterprising appearance to see on the public square, several able bodied men busy playing croquet, and twice as many more lazily looking on. Now isn't that so?

A large number of persons attended the camp meeting, near Leeburg, on Sunday. The camp is located in a pleasant place when you once reach it, but the getting to it is awful, and we know, because we tried it.

Between this place and Duncannon the fences and roads are in places covered with potato bugs. One farmer says they hang on his fences in such numbers, that he thinks he will have to prop up the rails to enable them to support the weight.

Bass will be plenty, we suppose, in the streams throughout this State before many years. Last week Mr. J. W. S. Kough, of Newport, sent off another fine lot to stock the streams in Clearfield county. The fish were taken from the Juniata near Newport.

Citizens of this borough who don't keep a cow, can appreciate the last two lines of the following notice: At Woodford, Va., a farmer has put the following notice in his field: "If any mans or womans cows or oxen gets in these here oats, his or her tail will be cut off, as the case may be. I am a Christian man and pay me taxes; but blast a man who lets his critters run loose, say I."

Lippincott's Magazine for September has been received, and is replete with interesting stories and sketches and finely illustrated. Among its contributors we notice the names of J. M. Thompson, T. A. Trollope, E. G. Bruce, Geo. McDonald, Mary Hooper, and others. If you want a good Magazine, subscribe for Lippincott's, 715 and 717 Market St., Philadelphia.

Blanks.—Justices' and Constables' blanks on sale at this office.

Cumberland County.—From the Cumberland county papers of last week, we copy the following:

At the Cumberland Valley camp meeting near Oakville, a distressing accident occurred about noon on Sunday. While the services were being held in the tabernacle circle, a great number of persons crowded on the ministers' platform for the purpose of getting shelter from the drenching rain. While thus crowded, a sudden crash was heard, and the platform gave way, precipitating all to the ground. For a time all was confusion. The services were at once stopped, and all rushed to see who was hurt. Several persons, who had got underneath, were badly injured, more or less. One man, Daniel Givier, residing at Plainfield, this county, was taken out severely, if not fatally, hurt. It was believed that some of his ribs were broken, his shoulder dislocated, and that he had sustained other undiscovered internal injuries. He was placed in a covered wagon, driven to the station, where he was transferred to the cars, and taken to his home. At this writing (Monday), we learn that he is in a critical condition. There were four or five others, whose names we did not learn, who sustained slight injuries. This was a very unfortunate affair, and was the only incident that marred the pleasures of the day.

One day last week, Mr. Sam'l R. Claudy, of this place, who is superintendent of one of the ore mines near Mount Holly Springs, was robbed of his pocket-book, the contents of which contained a full month's wages.—Mr. Claudy had placed the pocket book with the money in his coat, which he had left hanging on a nail, but on going for his coat a short time afterward, he was surprised to find that it had been stolen.—Volunteer.

On Monday morning last, a party of gentlemen were engaged in seining in the Yellow Breeches Creek, near Brindle's mill, in Monroe township. One of the seining party, Mr. Henry Kline, got out into the creek too far, and sank and drowned. His body was recovered soon after the accident. He leaves a wife and two children.

A colored bushmeeting, under the auspices of Rev. Perry Stanton and others will be held in Heberling's grove, one mile west of Newville, commencing Saturday, Sept. 5th. As usual, we have no doubt the attendance will be immense.

Juniata County.—From the Millintown papers we copy the following:

The Democrats met in convention last week, Monday, and nominated the following ticket:

For Congress—Dr. A. J. Fisher, of Fayette township. (Subject to District Conference.)

For Assembly—Jerome Hetrick, of Walker township.

For County Commissioner—Thomas Watta, of Monroe township.

For County Surveyor—Adam Wilt, of Greenwood township.

For County Auditor—J. S. M. Gibson, of Port Royal.

On Tuesday of last week, Robert M'Farland, of Lack township, met with an accident that in all probability will cost him his life. He was assisting in threshing at the barn of Mr. Knepp, as driver, and by some means fell into the horse power, his left arm caught in the cogwheel, drawing his body into the machine, crushing him in a fearful manner. The machine had to be taken apart before he could be extricated. At last accounts he was still living.—Democrat & Register.

The other night Banks, second son of Mr. J. W. Muthersbaugh, while in his sleep jumped out of the second window of his father's residence, on Cherry street, and strange to say sustained only slight injuries. The little fellow says he thought he was trying to see how far he could jump, and when he awoke found himself lying on the pavement.

On last Sunday the Dunkards held a bush-meeting at Free Spring, Walker township, which was largely attended by the citizens of Mifflin and surrounding country, and would, no doubt, have been both pleasant and profitable, had not the rain compelled an adjournment.

A cow belonging to John T. Mettlen, undertook on Monday evening to cross the river bridge, forgetting that the bridge was being repaired, and, the plank of the first span had been taken up. As the result of her carelessness she fell through into the river and was instantly killed.

The annual fair of the Juniata County Agricultural Society will be held on their grounds in Port Royal, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 7th, 8th and 9th.
