

Receipts for Making Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Something over a year since a periodical issued in Berlin, Prussia, and laying claims to a scientific character, published what was represented as being the formulae or receipts for making Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The people were left to infer that these had been deducted from a careful chemical analysis of the medicines, which are rapidly growing in popular favor in that, as well as in other and most other civilized countries. The receipts were evidently invented by those jealous of the reputation and large sale of which these medicines are rapidly acquiring, and who are peculiarly interested in endeavoring to check their sale. So ridiculously preposterous are those receipts that medicines compounded after them could never have gained any reputation or sale in any country, for they would be so caustic, poisonous, immediately and positively injurious, as in every case to be promptly condemned by the people on the first trial as miserable, dangerous and wicked humbugs.

Whereas, it is a well known fact that all my medicines enjoy the reputation, honestly earned, of being not only efficacious, but perfectly mild, pleasant and harmless in effects. Notwithstanding, however, that the bogus receipts were so ridiculously preposterous as scarcely to have been believed by the most unscientific thoughtless and unsuspecting people, yet strange and incredible as it may seem, a paper of high scientific pretensions, published in this country, copied the notorious receipts from the German paper. This they evidently did without a single reason, for that much consideration is given by an intelligent and honest person to the properties and effects of the mixtures that would result from such a compounding of well known caustic and poisonous chemicals and drugs would have been extended to the most careful consideration, and the pretentious publishers of the receipts that originally inserted them, as either knaves or fools.

On my attention being called to the matter, in order that some thoughtless and credulous people might not be deceived and misled by seeing such an announcement in a paper laying claims to a scientific character, as well as to clear myself of the imputation of being guilty of perpetrating a wicked fraud upon the people, as such an announcement, if uncontradicted, would imply, I, as proprietor and manufacturer of the aforesaid celebrated medicines, went before a magistrate and made oath to the fact that the said receipts were utterly false. My affidavit was read to the publishers of the papers into which the bogus receipts had been copied, and in a subsequent issue an editorial notice was given of my denial. But notwithstanding such correction and denial, made under oath, certain individuals, who for a long time and in most large cities, gaining a livelihood by perpetrating all kinds of catch-penny frauds upon the credulous, were thereby given the hint, as my medicines were universally popular, by advertising for sale bogus receipts for making them, they could get lots of ignorant people to bite at their bait.

One Frank M. Reed, of 139 Eighth street, New York, who publishes "Love and Courtship cards," a "Fortune Teller and Dream Book," "The Mysteries of Love Making," "How to Woo and how Win," and various other swindles, sends his dupes the following in exchange for their stamps. It is copied from the papers alluded to and is as follows: "For Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, take eight grains carbolic acid, seven grains of chloroform, and two and a half grains of common salt, the whole to be colored with a little Prussian blue." This makes a powerful caustic mixture, as unlike Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy (which is perfectly un irritating, mild, soothing, and does not produce any heat, but has been so foolish as to have burned their noses sore with this caustic compound, thinking that they were using the same as Dr. Sage's celebrated Catarrh Remedy, they will, if it is to be used, profit by the lesson thereby taught them and not be so ready next time to bite at every catch-penny advertising lodge that swindlers may offer them. For Dr. Pierce's Medical Discovery the bogus receipt reads: "Take four drachms purified honey and extract of lettuce, thirty grains of opium, three and a fourth ounces dilute spirits, three ounces water. M." This is no new and untried discovery, but has been long used with wonderful remedial results, and is pronounced by the highest medical authorities, "the most powerful tonic and alterative known."
