LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NO CUTS INSERTED.

No Cuts or Stereotypes will be inserted in this paper, unless light face and on metal bases.

Blanks.—Justices' and Constables' blanks for sale at this office.

Sales.—We call attention to the following sales, bills for which have been printed at this office:

On Saturday, September 13th, Mr. John Deltrick, Sr., will sell at his residence, in Liverpool, household goods and a lot of blacksmith's tools.

On Tuesday, September 29, 1874, at one o'clock p. m., Samuel Shopo will sell a farm situate in Tyrone twp., the property of the late Jonathan Shopo, deceased.

Sad Accident.—Miss Catharine Dean, resident of West Beaver, while returning from the Camp Meeting at McClure City, fell from a spring wagon which was upset while being driven over a stump, breaking both of her wrists.

Notice.—I am making out a list of accounts, to place in the hands of a Collection Bureau, for collection. Persons knowing they owe me, will please take notice, and keep their names from the list, by prompt settlement.

F. MORTIMER.

Plants.—If you want plants or flowers, go to the Riverside Nursery, in Harrisburg. We received a lot from there last week that are splendid. One advantage for persons in this section of the State in getting plants from there is, that the plants reach home in good condition. Col. G. F. McFarland is the proprietor of the Riverside Nursery, and Samuel Parker is the Superintendent. Those two names make a strong guarantee that everything coming from there will be as represented.

A Hint.—In the court at Meadville, Judge Lowrie gave the constables a gentle hint that might be applicable about here. Every one reported everything lovely in his jurisdiction, whereupon the judge remarked that such a state of affairs was admirable, if it was true; but he did not think it was exactly as represented. For instance, the law requires constable to see that guide boards are placed at every road crossing. He said he had been out driving in various directions and knew of many crossings at which there were no such guide boards.

Stealing a Child.—The Selinsgrove Times says: "On Tuesday evening about 8 o'clock, some unknown person attempted to steal the infant child of M. H. Cooke at this place. Mrs. Cooke was up stairs in her room and the child lay in the cradle. Mr. Cooke had just gone down into the cellar on an errand, when he heard his wife scream. It appears that as soon as he had gone down stairs an unknown man came out of an adjoining room, displayed a knife, and seized the child and ran down stairs. The alarm given by Mrs. Cooke immediately brought up her husband, but the man was gone, and the child was found lying on the platform of the stairs. Why any one should wish to steal so small a child seems a little surprising.

Accidents.—The habit so often indulged in by farmers and wagoners of intrusting their teams to the care of children is a most dangerous one. A very serious accident arising from this cause occurred at Chambersburg, on Saturday last. Two men were leaving town with a four-horse team and allowed a boy aged six or eight years to drive, when the team became unmanageable and ran off, the child being unable to control them. They ran over two children in the street and one of the men fell from the wagon. The man and one of the children received comparatively slight though painful injuries, but the other child was hurt so badly that her recovery is considered doubtful. The men who should have had the team in charge were intoxicated, which often makes the case more aggravated and criminal.

Sold.—A spry-looking young fellow arrived at Lancaster, a few days ago, and registered at one of the first hotels. Representing himself as one of the owners of a noted trotting horse of the country, and professing to be in Lancaster for the purpose of buying the fast Lancaster nag, Lizzie Keller, he was soon surrounded by the sports, who were so much pleased with him, after a day's acquaintance, that they insisted on entertaining him at a supper at Lancaster's aristocratic restaurant. The stranger was fascinating, and the bottle passed round freely. In the course of the evening a bet was made between some of the party on pitching quoits, and the young man (no longer a "stranger") was asked to hold the stakes, which he cheerfully did just to oblige his new-made friends. But the next morning it was found that the young man and the stakes had vanished. The Lancaster sports are not happy now.

Church Notices.

Preaching in the M. E. church on Sunday evening, prayer meeting on Thursday evening.

Presbyterian Church.—Preaching next Sabbath at 11 A. M., and 7 P. M. Prayer meeting at 7 P. M. on Wednesday.

For the Bloomfield Times. Pleasant twp., Butler co., Kansas. August 29, 1874.

Mr. Editor:—I ask you to please publish this for the Kansas sufferers. I have no doubt but you have seen before this reaches you the condition of affairs in Kansas, through the western papers. Our crops are a total failure, from reasons of the Chintz Bug and Grasshoppers, and out here in these new counties there has been no time to lay up anything for the rainy days, as a great many came here to get homes and brought but little capital, and when such a plague as the grasshoppers came among us and destroy our crops and leave us without anything to subsist on. I ask you to publish this, and if any of your subscribers may see fit to donate anything, such as underclothing, shoes, stockings, etc., will be thankfully received. I have many acquaintances in Perry county, and when a boy lived in Fishing Creek Valley. With this I remain yours truly, HENRY A. BILLOW.

Brief Items.

George Blattenberger, Esq., and his wife celebrated their "Golden Wedding" at their residence at Mt. Patrick, on Saturday, the 29th ult.

Showers fell all around us on Sunday afternoon, but not a drop of rain fell in this borough. Two miles South and South-East of us they had a nice shower.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the Printers' Pic Nic, in Cumberland county, on the 12th inst., and are very sorry we cannot attend.

Abner C. Harding, a native of this co., died on the 18th ult., at Monmouth, Warren county, Illinois, leaving an estate estimated at $2,000,000.

The Ladies of the Lutheran Society, of this borough, will hold a festival in the Rice House, on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week, for the benefit of the Sunday School.

The Newton Hamilton camp-meeting has been a success financially and so far as a crowd is concerned. Whether as much can be said of it spiritually is a question. Several families from this place were in attendance.

Mr. S. P. Stambaugh, of this county, and formerly in the mercantile business at Green Park, is now traveling in the grocery business for Messrs. Patterson & Newlin, whose card will be found among the Philadelphia advertisements.

Two young men of this county, Messrs. Morrison & Willhide have opened a new store, at what was known as the "Kirk stand," in East Waterford, Juniata co.—They open with a very nice stock of goods, bought at a good time, and we hope they will be successful.

The Altoona Tribune says: "A person who represented that he was a clergyman, presented himself at the office of a prominent real estate firm in this city, one day last week, and asked if the firm would give him a list of all the farms offered for sale and owned by widows." The query naturally arose whether he wanted to buy a widow or marry a farm.

Juniata County.—From the Millintown papers we copy the following: A valuable horse belong to C. B. Bartley, of Fermanagh township, was found dead in his pasture on Sunday morning a week. There was a wound in the belly of the beast, from which entrails protruded.—That wound it is supposed caused the death of the horse.

The dwelling house of Josiah Kepner, in Turbett township, with nearly all its contents was destroyed by fire, last Friday afternoon. No insurance. Origin of the fire not known.

On Monday evening as Noah A. Elder and Henry S. Goshen were driving through Main street, in a buck wagon, the horse became frightened, ran off, throwing both the occupants out. Mr. Goshen was considerably bruised about the body. Mr. Elder escaped unhurt.

The Republicans nominated the following ticket last week: Congress—Jeremiah Lyons, of Millintown. (Subject to decision of District Conference.)

Assembly—George M. Snielker, of Tuscarora township.

County Commissioner—C. D. Shellenberger, of Fayette township.

County Surveyor—Capt. James J. Patterson, of Beale township.

County Auditor—Lient. J. L. Barton, of Spruce Hill township.

On Friday afternoon of last week Mr. Henry Aughey, of Milford township, fell and broke his left fore arm just above the wrist. He had been down at the creek looking after his stock, and when returning home the accident befell him. Medical aid was summoned and the fracture was properly treated.

Cumberland County.—From the Cumberland county papers of last week, we copy the following:

We are informed that a serious, if not fatal, accident occurred on the farm of Moses Bricker, in Monroe, township, about 2 1/2 miles east of Churchoona, on Sunday morning last. Daniel Gutshall, the tenant on the farm, and his hired man were out riding together. Mr. Gutshall was mounted on a riding horse, and the hired man on a young colt. The colt was a very vicious and stubborn animal, and Mr. Gutshall and his man were endeavoring to break him of these vicious habits. The colt became unmanageable, rearing up and down, and kicking at every object in his way. While thus capering about, he came up alongside of Mr. Gutshall and his horse, who had been some distance ahead of him, and succeeded in giving Mr. Gutshall a violent kick on the ankle, inflicting a very serious and painful wound. Mr. Gutshall was carried to his house, and now lies in a very critical condition. We learn that he is a raving maniac, and that his friends fear that death from lock-jaw will be the fatal result.—Volunteer.

Vick's Floral Guide for Autumn, is at hand. It is a publication that should be in every house in the land, and will be found of interest to residents of either city or country. Published by James Vick, Rochester, N. Y., at 25 cents per year.

Mid-Day Burglars.—On Tuesday, several tramps traveling along the ridge broke into the house of Widow Hoffman, in Juniata twp., and stole a gun and a pair of boots. The family were absent at the time, but a farmer residing near saw them prowling around, and had two of them arrested. On examination before Squire Clouser, one was discharged and the other committed to jail to await trial. Entrance to the house was had through the window.

Corner Stone Laying.—The corner stone laying of the Centenary Church, of the U. B., in Christ, at Marysville, Perry county, Pa., will take place September 20th, 1874. Appropriate services will commence at 10 o'clock A. M., conducted by Rev. Wm. A. Raber, of York, Pa. All are cordially invited to be present. Come all. G. W. LIGHTNER.

The postponement of the Gift Concert of the Kentucky Public Library to November 30th, 1874, was resolved upon to make a full drawing a certainty. There will positively be no further postponement, and the grand prize will be the magnificent sum of $250,000, no matter as to the tickets disposed of. Who will get it? What a pestered man Gov. Bramlette, of Louisville, business manager, would be, if people supposed he could tell! As it is, it requires an army of clerks to send off answers to the car-loads of letters of inquiry the Library Association receives daily at the office in Louisville.

Refitted and Improved.—The Dellville Mill, owned by the subscriber, is again in running order. Having been entirely refitted and improved, adding all the modern arrangements that have by experience proved of value, I am prepared to do work in the best manner. Having also largely increased the power, I can turn out work promptly, not only for my old customers but for all who will favor me with a call. Any grain brought to my mill, I will guarantee to grind promptly and in such a manner as will ensure satisfaction. The public generally, are invited to give me a share of their patronage. ELI YOUNG. Sept. 1, 1874, 4t.

Estrays.—There have been on my premises in Tuscarora twp., for a number of days, two head of young cattle; one a red steer, and the other a bull, red with white stripes on the back. The owner is notified to pay charges and take them away, or they will be disposed of according to law. WM. M. TROSTLE. August 1st, 1874.

If the Druggist Offers any kind of herb-flavored alcohol for dyspepsia, biliousness, or any other ailment, tell him that you want medicine, not a bar-room drink. Ask him for Dr. Walker's California Bitters, the best regulating preparation known, and which you know is free from "Satan's Elks." Reject all the fiery "Tonics" and "Appetizers," and cling to that remedy. There is no medicine that compares with it. [36 4w.

We would not recommend the frequent or constant use of any medicine. It is important to take even a good article judiciously.—Parsons' Purgative Pills are safe, prompt and reliable as a laxative or cathartic.

Base ball is undoubtedly good exercise and capital amusement, but it is often occasions bugged eyes, broken skins and blistered hands. We can tell you that in all such cases if Johnson's Anodyne is resorted to, it will reduce the swelling and stop the pain.

Reader, if you are troubled with any kind of pain, no matter what the cause, try Pain Cure Oil. Only 50 cents and warranted.

For sale by F. MORTIMER, New Bloomfield, and B. M. EBY, Druggist, Newport, Pa.

Forty Years' Experience have tested the virtues of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and it is now generally acknowledged to be the best remedy extant for pulmonary and lung diseases; embracing the whole range from a slight cold to a settled consumption.—Were it not for its merits, it would long since have "died, and made no sign."

The Confessions of an Invalid, Published as a Warning and for the benefit of Young Men and others who suffer from NERVOUS DEBILITY, LOSS OF MANHOOD, etc., supplying the means of Self-Cure. Written by one who cured himself after undergoing considerable quackery, and sent free on receiving a post-paid directed envelope. Sufferers are invited to address the author. NATHANIEL MAYFAIR. P.
