

A Correct Account of the troubles in Louisiana. Shreveport, La., September 1.—Major A. F. Stephens, of De Sota parish, who arrived here to-day, furnished the following account of the Conshatta troubles...

The lives of several respectable white residents of the parish have been threatened by the negroes, and a few days ago Williams, a respectable citizen of the Third ward of Red river parish, was threatened with assassination by two notorious and desperate negroes...

Thursday night a small party of white men went to the cabins of these negroes with a view of arresting and lodging them in jail, when they were fired upon from the cabin, and one of the party instantly killed.

On the next day, Friday, a large body of armed negroes, between three and four hundred in number, assembled near Brownsville, swearing vengeance against the whole white race, and declaring they would not leave a white man, woman or child in the parish.

Two young men, Joe. Dickson and Mr. Pickens, who were on one of the posts, halted a negro who was coming into town with a sack of buck shot. He paid no attention to their command to halt, and ran off into the darkness...

They had a few moment's conversation with them not of a violent nature, and had turned round to proceed to their post when they were fired upon by that party from the rear, without warning.

That night and the next morning F. S. Edgerton, Homer S. Twitchell, R. A. Demeco, W. F. Howell, C. Holland, and M. C. Willis all whites, besides a number of negroes, were arrested and placed under guard.

On Sunday morning at ten o'clock, Carr, with a guard of about sixteen men, started with the above named prisoners, except the negroes released afterward.

While nearing the Hutchinson plantation, on Red river, some thirty miles below Shreveport, with a view of crossing there and destroying the flat boat to prevent further pursuit, he was overtaken by the pursuing party.

A Terrible Affair. A few days ago a negro fiend working in Minnesqua, Pa., committed a rape on a little girl only five years of age. After committing the horrible deed, he murdered the child by cutting her head nearly off.
