

The Bloomfield Times.

NEW BLOOMFIELD, PENN'A. Tuesday, September 22, 1874.

THE recent election in Maine resulted in the success of the Republican ticket by nearly the majority given at the election two years ago.

THE Harrisburg Patriot seems to take great satisfaction in referring to Colonel Wistar, the Republican candidate for Congress, from this district, as a resident of Philadelphia.

P. T. BARNUM is certainly worthy of the title of "The Prince of Showmen." He has recently closed a short season of his famous Roman Hippodrome, at Philadelphia, where an average of ten thousand persons were present each day.

Another Swindle Exposed.

The N. Y. Sun of last Tuesday says: "For some time letters have been sent to the Sun from persons in all directions, saying that they had been swindled out of sums of $15 and upwards by 'Robert J. Mulligan & Co.'" and others professing to be sewing machine manufacturers.

The chief office of the concern was at Greenwich and Cortlandt streets, Mulligan having another at 71 Nassau street, where he has been selling sewing machines to the country folks under the name of Jerome P. Hudson, and one at 95 Liberty street under the name of George W. Paine.

The "Household Sewing Machine" is a worthless toy that is operated by a crank, and is like the old-fashioned domestic coffee mill.

The above is a concern that wished to advertise with us, but we thought they were a fraud, and so declined to have anything to do with them.

Mysterious Shooting of a Lady.

The recent killing of Mrs. Wagner on the outskirts of Chicago, is one of the most remarkable that ever defied police investigation. While standing at the front door of her daughter's house, in broad daylight, she was struck by a bullet, which passed entirely through her body and then through a fence-paling.

In front of the house was an open prairie, with no person in sight save a small boy tending some cows. When this boy heard of the killing of Mrs. Wagner, he reported that he had seen two policemen practicing pistol-firing, the mark being the wooden stringer of the railroad track over a ditch.

An extraordinary fact connected with the case is that the policemen were 600 feet from the door in which the woman was standing when shot, which seems to render it wholly improbable that they are responsible for her death. It is doubtful whether a pocket pistol can carry a ball that distance at any elevation, and before it can be even presumed that these officers are guilty it will have to be proved by actual experiment that that particular revolver can throw a ball the distance mentioned with force enough to go through a human body and a board fence.

The Trouble in Louisiana.

The political difficulties in Louisiana, have come to a crisis. Two years ago they had an election for Governor, when both parties claimed the victory. Kellogg who was in office at the time, held on to his seat and was supported by the President. McEnery it was claimed, was legally elected, but could not get possession of his office.

New Orleans, September 14, 1874.—U. S. Grant, President of the United States.—Hopeless of all other relief the people of the state have taken arms to maintain the legal authority of persons elected by them to the government of the state against usurpers, who have heaped upon them innumerable insults, burdens and wrongs.

(Signed) D. P. PENN. Lieut. Governor and Acting Governor.

On Monday a collision took place regarding which the following report is given. "A body of metropolitans, variously estimated at from 500 to 800, with four pieces of artillery, marched out of the state house about four p. m., proceeding toward Canal street. After marching through Canal street, about 200 of them moved toward the levee. The main body of the citizens' forces were in line on Poydras street, about two blocks back of Canal street.

LATER—Since the above was in type the United States military authority have acted, and taken possession, and the following despatch has been received from General Emory:

New Orleans, September 18.—I placed Colonel Brooks in command of the city as well as in command of the troops; otherwise there would have been anarchy. Governor Kellogg did not and has not yet called on me for support to re-establish the state government.

Lieutenant Governor Penn claims to have discovered telegrams from Carpenter, General Butler and others demanding money, which Kellogg complied with. Carpenter, it is alleged, introduced the election bill in the senate as a blackmailing operation of Kellogg, and Kellogg paid large sums to keep him quiet.

A Pastoral Call Disturbed.

The Brooklyn Argus tells that the Rev. Mr. Coddie, having been much impressed by the suggestion of the New York Herald that a Sunday school scholar would be the proper thing for a clergyman to have about his person while visiting his female parishioners, took with him his pupil and adopted son, Sam.

While engaged with Mrs. Lillywhite in the back parlor, Samuel took a fancy to interviewing the Sevres china upon the chimney piece. His legs growing nervous and shaky, they slipped, and so also did an elegant Sevres vase. Mrs. Lillywhite fainted, the Doctor bore Sam home by the ragged edges of his roundabout, polished him off thoroughly with an old copy of "Baxter's Saints' Rest," and then sat down and wrote an article warning clergymen against the malignant influence of the Herald.

Murder and Suicide.

On Monday of last week in Philadelphia James Tozier killed his wife, Sallie Tozier, and then killed himself. The wife occupied a room in tenement house No. 240 South Fifth street. She was not living with her husband. She was aged twenty-four, and he twenty-seven, and they had been married a year. He used a Sharpe pistol, firing two balls into her head and one into his own head. Both were dead when the officers and crowd, attracted by the shots, rushed into the room. Maggie Jenks, sister of Mrs. Tozier, was in the room at the time, and witnessed the tragedy.

Miscellaneous News Items.

Gov. Dix's decision in the Havemayer case is made public. The decision censures the course of the mayor, but declines to remove him or take any further action in the case.

L. H. Collum, a prominent citizen of Butler, Pa., last week, while attempting to cross the track between the depot and his stove factory, was caught between two cars. He lived about four hours after the accident.

The highest church steeple in the United States is over the new First Presbyterian church, corner of Madison and Park streets, Baltimore. It is 270 feet from the capstone of the spire to the ground.

A valuable Alderney cow, belonging to Dr. Hines, of Doylestown dropped suddenly dead in the field last week and a post mortem investigation instituted by the doctor showed that her death had resulted from a needle about two inches long which had punctured the muscles of the heart.

On Saturday morning last an unknown man deliberately laid his neck on the rail in front of an approaching train, at Allegheny city, and there was nothing more to do but to hold an inquest and bury him. He was apparently about thirty-five years old.

About 4 o'clock on Thursday morning last, a wagon containing seven persons, rolled over a bank near Altoona, and two of the occupants, a young man and a girl were killed. They both belonged in Altoona. The party had been out to a dance and were on their way home, and the night being very dark caused the accident.

Last week Elizabeth Munger, stole the child of Mr. Hagar, at Greentown, and hid it in a lumber pile in New York city, where it remained for two days, and died after its recovery, from the result of its exposure. She has been indicted for manslaughter and lodged in the toms. The deed was done out of revenge for being discharged.

In Boston last week John H. Hurley was sentenced to fourteen years in the state's prison for burglary, added to which he must serve thirteen years of an unexpired term of twenty years for garroting, having been pardoned by the governor after serving seven years, on condition of future good behavior. Hurley is thirty-three years of age.

A Hyde Park, Mass., dog, which has amused people frequently on the Fourth of July by pluckily seizing a lighted bunch of fire-crackers in his mouth and shaking them lustily while the explosions were going on, tried the same trick on a fuse running into a log containing a charge of gunpowder, the other day, but in a twinkling found himself 20 feet above the earth. He will get well, however.

Mrs. Isaac A. Appleton of Salzburg, Mich., met with a sad fate. Noticing a squirrel on the gate post, she took her husband's double-barreled shot gun, cocked both barrels, stood in the doorway, and fired one barrel and killed the squirrel. While putting the gun down the other barrel accidentally discharged. The contents passed through her heart. The husband witnessed the shooting of the squirrel, and started for the house to congratulate her on her marksmanship. He was met at the door by his wife, who exclaimed, with uplifted hands, "I'm shot, I'm shot." She fell dead at his feet.

Arm Amputated.

John T. Huffnagle, one of our County Commissioners, had one of his arms amputated a few days ago. Most of our readers will recollect that Mr. Huffnagle fell about a year ago and broke it, since which time it has given him a great deal of pain. The operation was successfully performed by Dr. B. F. Wagenseller, assisted by Dr. Priestly, both of Selingsgrove. Mr. Huffnagle is, his numerous friends will be glad to hear, getting along finely.—Middleburg Post.

A NEW AND COMPLETE Bible Commentary In One Volume.

By DOCTORS JAMIESON, FAUSSET and BROWN. Containing nearly 1600 Pages, and 200 Handsome Illustrations and Maps.

It is far in Advance of the Older Works. It is Critical, Practical and Explanatory—It is Comprehensive and Comprehensive in its Character—It has a Critical Introduction to each Book of Scripture, and is by far the most Practical, Succinct, Scientific and Popular Work of the kind in the English Language.

It has advantages over any other similar work, in the following important particulars:

- 1st. ITS THOROUGHNESS; 2nd. ITS MODERNNESS; 3rd. ITS COMPACTNESS. The work is published in one volume which is a convenience. There are no blank spaces, nor is the book filled up with unnecessary portions of the text.—It is what its purports to be,—a Commentary, not a Bible. "It is literally packed," says Dr. Wiley, "full of good things." 4th. ITS BREVITY. Dr. Smith, Editor Chicago Standard, says, "I have in several instances seen a sermon in a sentence." 5th. ITS LIBERAL SPIRIT. It is more unsectarian than any other Commentary. Rev. W. L. Gage, of Hartford, says, "The names of the authors are a sufficient guaranty against any denominational traits in it." 6th. ITS SCRIPTURAL REFERENCES. 7th. ITS ILLUSTRATIONS AND MAPS. These are larger, better, and more numerous than can be found in any other book of this kind; 8th. ITS CHEAPNESS. No Commentary of its size and merit was ever sold for anything like the price.

The unqualified commendations of this Commentary, from the highest sources, together with its already extensive and rapidly increasing sale, have given it a position in the religious world superior to that of any similar work.

We give a few of the many testimonials given in praise of this most valuable work:

Rev. James McCosh, D. D., President of Princeton College, says: "It is clear, brief, judicious and eminently fitted to be useful, alike to pastor and people."

Rev. Joseph Cummings, D. D. L. D. Pres. Wesleyan University, says: "My first favorable impressions of the great merits of your Commentary have been confirmed upon further examinations. It presents in a clear and direct manner the most authoritative view of the meaning of the Scriptures."

Rev. C. D. HARTNETT, Pastor of 2d Reformed Church, New Brunswick, N. J., says: "I deem it particularly useful for the ordinary reader of the Bible, still more for the Sabbath School Teacher, and it would be a most agreeable companion in Family Devotional Exercises, that are so often aimless because of the effort to awaken feeling without stimulating knowledge. A course of Scripture reading through this Commentary will promote interest in the truth, by promoting the apprehensions of its meaning."

Prof. CALVIN E. STOWE, D. D., Hartford, Conn., says: "I like it better than any work of the kind I have yet seen."

Rev. J. C. BODWELL, Prof. in Hartford Theological Seminary, says: "I have examined carefully, and with constantly increasing satisfaction, this new and Comprehensive Commentary. It has been a most pleasant surprise to me to find in so moderate a compass so large an amount of scholarship, and of full, sound interpretation, combined with so much of practical wisdom. Sabbath school teachers will welcome it as a most valuable addition to whatever other Commentaries they may possess."

Rev. A. W. DECKER, Pastor M. E. C., New Bloomfield, Pa., says: "I feel fully persuaded in my own mind of its intrinsic value, it being so concise and cheap, that it meets the wants of a greater number, than any Commentary published. It is just the thing for Superintendents and Teachers of Sunday Schools and all who wish a correct knowledge of the Bible."

Rev. John Edgar, A. M., Pastor Pres. C. H., N. Bloomfield, says: "I am often asked to name a Commentary on the Word of God, more modern and more brief than Scott, Henry, &c., and I always recommend the above. If a Commentary is wanted on the whole Bible, Families, teachers, and S. S. Superintendents, often find it too much to buy separate works on the different books of Scripture. To such I would say here is a good work on all combined."

Rev. P. SWEENEY, Pastor Ev. Luth. Church, New Bloomfield, says: "So far as my limited knowledge of the Commentary goes, it forces the conviction on my mind that it is of more than ordinary value. It will be of great benefit to the minister in his responsible work, and of special interest and benefit to the family and individuals."

The following shows how the work is received elsewhere. Rev. Sam'l Moore, Pastor of Pres. Church, Tyrone, Pa., says: "I sold 25 copies of the Commentary in about two hours' actual work. I sold six copies before rising from chair. People come and ask for it."

240 Copies were sold in the small towns in New Jersey; 100 Copies were sold in Milton, Pa.; 90 Copies in Lewisburg, Pa.; 110 Copies in Williamsport; 100 Copies in Watsonstown; 250 Copies in Scranton.

This Commentary is sold by subscription and will be offered to the people of Perry County, by Rev. W. B. WAGNER, Gen. Agt., for Central Penn'a., and his agents. Mr. Wagner can be addressed at New Bloomfield, Pa. Two GOOD AGENTS Wanted.

There are more than ten thousand people in the United States who expect to be the happy possessors of the first grand prize in the Kentucky Gift Concert of $250,000. All of them but one will be disappointed. One will get it, for Gov. Bramlette, the manager, at Louisville, has announced that the Concert will positively take place on Nov. 30th, 1874; that there will be no further postponement, and that the capital prize will positively be the sum stated. And if our readers want to know more of it, write to him.

If the Druggist Offers any kind of herb-flavored alcohol for dyspepsia, biliousness, or any other ailment, tell him that you want medicine, not a bar-room drink. Ask him for Dr. Walker's California Bitters, the best regulating preparation known, and which you know is free from "Satan's Elixir." Reject all the "Tonics" and "Appetizers," and cling to that remedy. There is no medicine that compares with it. [30 4w.]

Many valuable horses die from the effects of colic. The best thing to do in a case of this kind is to pour a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment into a long-necked junk bottle, add half pint of molasses and water, then pour the whole down to the horse's throat. In ten minutes the horse will begin to eat.

Parsons' Purgative Pills will greatly relieve, if not entirely cure, dyspepsia when everything else fails. They have been tried in some desperate cases, and have given more relief than any other medicine.

The Favorite Home Remedy, PAIN-KILLER.

Has been before the public over Thirty Years, and probably has a wider and better reputation than any other proprietary medicine of the present day. At this period there are but few unacquainted with the merits of the PAIN-KILLER; but, while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally; while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all, that it is equally successful, whether used internally or externally. It is sufficient evidence of its virtues as a standard medicine to know that it is now used in all parts of the world, and that its sale is constantly increasing. No curative agent has had such a wide-spread sale or given such universal satisfaction.

DAVIS' PAIN-KILLER is a purely vegetable compound, prepared from the best and purest materials, and with a care that insures the most perfect uniformity in the medicine; and while it is a most effective remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in the most unskilful hands. It is eminently a Family Medicine; and by being kept ready for immediate resort, will save many an hour of suffering, and many a dollar in time and doctor's bills.

After over thirty years trial, it is still receiving the most unqualified testimonials to its virtues, from persons of the highest character and responsibility. Eminent Physicians commend it as a most effectual preparation for the extinction of pain. It is not only the best remedy ever known for Bruises, Cuts, Burns, &c., but for Dysentery, or Cholera, or any sort of bowel complaint, it is a remedy unsurpassed for efficiency, and rapidity of action. In the great cities of India, and other hot climates, it has become the standard medicine for all such complaints, as well as for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, and all other kindred disorders. For Coughs and Colds, Canker, Asthma, and Rheumatic Difficulties, it has been proved by the most abundant and convincing testimony to be an invaluable medicine.

We would caution the public against all imitations of our preparation, either in name, or style of putting up. [Sept. 14t]

A Medicine Chest in Miniature.

Mishler's Herb Bitters is not a beverage, but a strictly medicinal preparation, more thoroughly adapted to the wants of the general public than any other in the market. Unlike all other so-called Remedies, it is prepared under the direct personal supervision of an eminent Physician, S. B. Hartman, M. D., a regular graduate of the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, and a practicing physician of large experience and extensive practice. In such hands the public may rest assured that Mishler's Herb Bitters is compounded in strict accordance with correct Pharmaceutical principles and that none but the choicest ingredients enter into its composition.

Its immense sale alone is conclusive proof that it possesses merit of the highest order. Merchants, bankers, clergymen, lawyers, clerks and others engaged in sedentary occupations, experience its wonderful effects in relieving the depression caused by severe mental labor; while the mechanic, farmer and laborer, find their bodily vigor restored like magic by its use.

At this season of the year, when DIARRHOEA, CHOLERA, COLIC and kindred disorders, caused by eating unripe fruit, immoderate indulgence in cold drinks, &c., are prevalent, a certain, speedy and effectual remedy will be found in Mishler's Herb Bitters.

The depressing feeling of Languor or Debility, incident to the "heated term," is at once removed, the energies restored, and new life and vigor imparted to the prostrated system, by its use. IN DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT and AFFECTIONS OF THE KIDNEYS it invariably works like a charm. It is not a drastic purgative, nor a ready stimulant, but a regular action on the bowels, enables every organ of the body to perform its allotted work regularly and without interruption.

It is the unerring certainty of desired results attendant on its use, coupled with the fact that it is prepared by a physician of eminence in his profession, that has rendered Mishler's Herb Bitters so popular, and as familiar as a household word. THOUSANDS OF MOTHERS all over the land have found it to be the safest and best remedy for use in their families, by a physician of eminence in his profession, that has rendered Mishler's Herb Bitters so popular, and as familiar as a household word.

Dr. D. H. Sweeney, at New Bloomfield, Pa., in his treatment of diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Heart, Nasal Cavities and Ears, uses the approved treatment of Enlightened Physicians of the present age.
