

The Bloomfield Times.

NEW BLOOMFIELD, PENN'A.

Tuesday, September 20, 1874.

IN CONSEQUENCE of a change that is to take place in the Postal Laws...

AFFAIRS in New Orleans at the present, remain in about the same condition as they were at the date of our former report.

JUDGE E. R. HOAR positively refuses to be a candidate for the re-election in the 4th Congressional district of Massachusetts.

We learn that Mr. Cornman has sold the Huntingdon Monitor to Messrs. S. E. Flemming & Co.

A NEW SUNDAY paper has been started in Philadelphia. It is called the Sunday Tribune, and purports to be the organ of the people and not of any party.

Democratic Convention.—At an early hour, on Monday morning, the various candidates for office were on hand ready to button-hole the delegates...

The standing committee for the year was then appointed, with J. B. Hackett as Chairman.

The following is a list of the Delegates: Liverpool B.—Henry Huffman, G. Cary Sharp...

Centre.—Samuel S. Withrow, Wm. Pomeroy, Duncannon—Samuel Soss, Mar Rogers, Greenwood—Fred. Ripheart, Lewis Mitchell...

At 1 o'clock the convention again assembled, and commenced to ballot for candidate for Assembly, with results as follows:

Table with columns for candidates and votes for Assembly and Sheriff. Includes names like Mitchell, Barrett, and Krenner.

The ticket nominated is therefore as follows: For Assembly—Dr. Reuter of Watts twp. For Associate Judge—John Bair, of Spring township.

A Judge's Confession.

A Philadelphia Judge recently made a remarkable confession, as will be seen by the following, taken from the court proceedings as reported by the Ledger on Tuesday last:

"John J. Ridgway, esq., addressing the court yesterday, called attention to the case of Sanford M'Calla, who upon a complaint made by him to the court, a short time ago, against the register of wills and his deputy, was told to go before an alderman.

Judge Finletter said that he would take it for granted that Mr. M'Calla had done so. Mr. Ridgway—May I have the liberty of filing it?

Judge Finletter—I decline to act in this matter. First, because the regular business of this court requires my whole time and attention, and there are several of my brother Judges not engaged. Secondly, because, though I have acted in many instances of this character, no single case has ever reached a trial; and the moral force of a commitment by the court has therefore lost its effect, either to prevent crimes of this character or to punish them."

A Judge who makes a confession that he is unable to enforce a law, or have a conviction found in his court for a violation of it, acknowledges that the "ring officials," are more powerful than the law or the courts.

Railroad Disaster.

The passenger train on the Belvidere and Delaware railroad, which left Phillipsburg at 1:35 last Tuesday afternoon for Philadelphia five minutes late, collided with an up freight train at Warner's about three miles down the river. The freight train was in the turn out. The passenger train was running at the regular speed at the time of the collision. The baggage car telescoped the smoking car. All the injured were in those two cars. Samuel Y. Myers, of Harrisburg, neck broken, killed; John Sayford, of Harrisburg, injured; Mr. Sheldon, injured face and the upper lip cut off; Mrs. Sheldon was badly cut in the face; Mr. Goldsmith, the mail agent, was slightly injured, and he heroically refused to leave his mail car, notwithstanding his painful injuries.

A Tennessee Cloud Burst.

One of the greatest rain storms occurred in Tennessee, on the line of the Nashville and Chattanooga R. R., on the night of the 29th of August, ever known in that vicinity. Residents stated that the rainfall was terrific. Crow creek, at a point on the line about sixty miles distant from the city, at the head of the canal, swollen beyond all precedent, struck the solid railroad embankment, which at this point was about forty feet high, and perhaps fifty feet at the base, and composed of rock.

This was carried away by the water to the width of 100 feet or more, leaving the railroad iron and cross ties suspended in the air, sustained only by the fish bars. Below, a distance of 300 or 300 yards, the current again struck a like embankment, cutting away and creating an immense chasm, moving at this and other places between 2,000 and 3,000 feet of railway track. About one-half of Mr. Silas Shaver's house was washed away, with an old lady and four children. This occurred at about 11 o'clock in the forenoon.

The building lodged a few hundred yards below. The inmates were all saved by holding to the drift until next morning. Another house was torn to pieces, the inmates barely escaping, losing everything. The farmers suffered great damage in their stock, crops and fences.

Fight with a Mad Dog.

A few days since, says a St. Louis exchange, a dog, frothing at the mouth, made his way down Poplar street, and when in front of the residence of Mr. L. Lippman, between Second and Third, turned and went into the house. Seeing the symptoms of hydrophobia the whole family rushed in affright up stairs into the second story. Officer Burke was called to the spot, and from a second story window Mr. Lippman informed him that the dog was in the front room down stairs.

Officer Burke entered the room, shutting the door after him. The dog was under the table, but as soon as the officer entered, ran out into the room, foaming and frothing at the mouth. Officer Burke fired five shots at him, when the dog sprang at his throat, but missing caught the officer's blouse in his teeth. The officer then drew out his club, and with a few terrific blows laid the brute low.

Another Thieving Postmaster.

Atlanta, September 21.—Rev. Wesley Prettyman, of the Northern M. E. church and postmaster at Marietta, Georgia, was arrested and brought to Atlanta for embezzlement and other penal violations of the post office law. The bond was fixed at $2,000 by Judge Erskine.

Miscellaneous News Items.

While a Chicago family were absent on a summer tour, thieves entered the house, sold out all the effects at auction and pocketed the cash.

About 1,000 Icelanders will soon emigrate to Wisconsin and settle on a tract of land purchased by agents whom they sent in advance a few months ago.

Sunbury, September 23.—Hon. John B. Packer was unanimously re-nominated for congress by the republican convention of Northumberland county to-day.

Westchester, Pa., September 23.—The body of a man was found this morning on the Pennsylvania railroad at Malvern station. The body was greatly mangled, and nothing found on the body to show his name, but the name of J. H. Hensel was marked on his shirt and the same initials on his stockings.

Dr. Dixon, of Portage station, was arrested on Saturday a week, and committed to jail at Ebsenburg on the charge of attempting to outrage the person of one Mrs. Brady, who resides in the vicinity of the same village. The parties are alleged to be very respectable, and the affair has created considerable excitement up at Portage.

Wilmington, Del., September 22.—Big Frank, one of the noted bank robbers, made his escape from the New Castle jail at one a. m. An escape from the cell was effected while the night watchman was in the weaving room. On returning to the corridor he saw Frank making his exit by the door. The watchman fired at him twice without effect.

The meeting of the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. was held last week at Atlanta, Ga. The election of grand officers took place resulting in the election of Deputy Grand Sire M. J. Durham, of Kentucky, as grand sire; J. W. Stokes, of Pennsylvania, as deputy grand sire; James S. Ridgeley, of Baltimore, grand secretary; Joshua Vansant, mayor of Baltimore, grand treasurer.

A terrible fire occurred at Fall River, Mass., on Saturday morning a week. The Granite Mills, just after the operatives had gone to work, were discovered to be on fire and in a short time were consumed. About thirty were killed, and the injured and dying number as many more. The fire originated from the heating of the machinery in the sixth story, and cut off the access to the stairway before the inmates of the room could escape.

One of the hard things to bring home to the imagination is the extreme youth of the men who make this country an independent power. Looking at the years against the names on Lexington and other Revolutionary monuments and tablets, it is a difficult matter to think of the men who fell as veterans. Gen. Warren was not thirty at Bunker Hill. In Washington's Cabinet at the start Hamilton was but thirty three, the Postmaster General thirty-seven, the Secretary of War forty, and Jefferson himself at forty-six was the patriarch of the whole ministry.

A distressing accident occurred in Franklin township, near Mendenhall's mills, in Columbia county, on Wednesday of last week. As Mr. George Bucher, accompanied by his two little sons, was driving home with a load of cider, the traces broke as the team was ascending a slope, and the wagon ran backward over an embankment and upset. By some fatal mischance a barrel of cider fell on one of the little boys, killing him instantly; the other boy was badly cut and bruised about the face and head, and Mr. Bucher had a leg broken.

Saved by a Melon.

A young man residing with his father in Patchogue, L. I., a night or two ago heard a noise in the direction of a watermelon patch, and looking out of his bedroom window saw a man in the act of "hooking" one. He seized a gun loaded with small shot, which he kept handy for such purpose, and blazed away at the supposed thief. A yell followed, and the young man was horrified to discover by the voice that he had shot at his own father. The "old man" came running into the house with a big watermelon under his arm, which he had been selecting for breakfast the next morning, and it was found that fortunately the entire charge had lodged in the melon—not a shot having struck the person of the supposed thief.

Too Strong a Dose.

A man named Mike Long died Sunday evening at Graton, N. J., from taking an overdose of medicine. It appears that he had the fever and ague. Dr. Ayres of Fairview prepared and gave him a bottle of medicine, composed of quinine and other ingredients, with instructions to take a teaspoonful every three hours. Long, after the doctor left, remarked to one of the inmates of the house, "Be jabers, and it's too much trouble to be bothered about the time; I will take it all at once," and did so. He was quickly prostrated. The doctor was sent for, but nothing could be done to save him. He died in twenty-four hours after he had taken the overdose.

The Gift Concerts in aid of the Kentucky Library are not at all speculative. The institution is chartered by the State of Kentucky, and every dollar of the profits goes to the building up of the best Library in the United States. The first prize in the next drawing, which takes place Nov. 30th, is $250,000. It is a reliable institution, and some one will get that money. And that there may be no doubt as to the honesty of its management we cite the fact that the best banks in Louisville endorse it, and that Governor Thomas E. Bramlette, of Louisville, is the general manager. An institution so fathered is certainly deserving of confidence.

Take Notice.—Mr. A. V. Hombach wishes the citizens of this county to take notice that being desirous of reducing his stock before cold weather, he has determined to close out what he now has on hand, at greatly reduced prices. Head stones of all sorts and styles, and monuments ranging in price from $25 to $400, lettered and delivered at short notice. Letters or orders sent to A. V. Hombach, opposite the planing mill, Newport, will receive prompt attention.

Dr. Sweeney, of New Bloomfield, Pa., can be consulted as usual on all Chronic diseases, requiring skillful medical treatment, or delicate and difficult Surgical operation for their cure.

Refitted and Improved.—The Dellville Mill, owned by the subscriber, is again in running order. Having been entirely refitted and improved, adding all the modern arrangements that have by experience proved of value, I am prepared to do work in the best manner. Having also largely increased the power, I can turn out work promptly, not only for my old customers but for all who will favor me with a call. Any grain brought to my mill, I will guarantee to grind promptly and in such a manner as will ensure satisfaction. The public generally, are invited to give me a share of their patronage. ELI YOUNG. Sept. 1, 1874, 4t.

A Medicine Chest in Miniature. Mishler's Herb Bitters is not a beverage, but a strictly medicinal preparation, more thoroughly adapted to the wants of the general public than any other in the market. Unlike all other so-called Remedies, it is prepared under the direct supervision of an eminent Physician, S. B. Hartman, M. D., the senior proprietor, is a regular graduate of the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, and a practical physician of large experience and extensive practice. In such hands the public may rest assured that Mishler's Herb Bitters is compounded in strict accordance with correct Pharmaceutical principles and that none but the choicest ingredients enter into its composition. Its immense sale alone is conclusive proof that it possesses merit of a high order. Merchants, bankers, clerks, lawyers, clerks and others engaged in sedentary occupations, experience its wonderful effects in relieving the depression caused by severe manual labor; while the mechanic, farmer and laborer, find their bodily vigor restored like magic by its use. At this season of the year, when DIARRHOEA, CRAMPS, COLIC and kindred disorders, caused by eating unripe fruits, imprudent indulgence in cold drinks, etc., are prevalent, a certain, speedy and effectual remedy will be found in Mishler's Herb Bitters. The depressing feeling of Languor or Debility, incident to the "heated term," is at once removed, the system revived, and new life and vigor imparted to the prostrated system, by its use. In DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT and AFFECTIONS OF THE KIDNEYS it invariably works like a charm. It is not a drastic purge nor heady stimulant, violent in its operation, but it is simply a natural, remedy, thoroughly adapted to assist nature. It supplies tone to the stomach, reinvigorates the digestive organs, stimulates the secretions, and promoting a regular action of the bowels, enables every organ of the body to perform its allotted work regularly and without interruption. It is the unerring certainty of desired results attendant on its use, coupled with the fact that it is prepared by a physician of eminence in his profession, that has rendered Mishler's Herb Bitters so popular, and as familiar as a household word. THOUSANDS OF MOTHERS all over the land have found it to be the safest and best remedy for use in their families; they not only give it with perfect safety to even the youngest child, but when used with caution find it the safest means of ensuring their own health and freedom from the weary aches and pains incident to their sex. Perfectly harmless, it is just the remedy needed by them to enable Nature to perform her functions naturally, regularly and without inconvenience. No LADY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT if she would possess the clear, rosy complexion and cheerful spirits inseparable from sound health. It is sold by all Druggists and General Dealers; is neatly put up in square Glass Bottles, enclosed in a yellow wrapper. It is not sold on Draught, being every organ of the body to perform its allotted work regularly and without interruption. If the Druggist Offers any kind of herb-flavored alcohol for dyspepsia, biliousness, or any other ailment, tell him that you want medicine, not a bar-room drink. Ask him for Dr. Walker's California Bitters, the best regulating preparation known, and which you know is free from "Satan's Ellixir." Reject all the "Tonic" and "Appetizers," and cling to that remedy. There is no medicine that compares with it. [30 4w.]

Cramps and pains in the stomach are the result of imperfect indigestion, and are immediately relieved by a dose of Johnson's Anodyne Linctum. A teaspoonful in a little sweetened water is a dose.

Heavy oats are good for horses; none will deny that; but oats can't make a horse's coat look smooth and glossy when he is out of condition. Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders will do this when all else fails.
