The Bloomfield Cimes.

Tuesday, September 29, 1874. LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NO CUTS INSERTED. No Cuts or Stereotypes will be inserted in this paper, misss light face and on metal bases.

Sales,-We call attention to the following sales, bills for which have been printed at this office :

On Tuesday, September 29, 1874, at one o'clock p. m., Samuel Shope will sell a farm situate in Tyrone twp., the property of the late Jonathan Shope, deceased.

On Thursday October 22nd, Geo. W. Bliting in Liberty Vailey, on the old Dalton farm, 3 miles from Bealtown, will sell a great variety of personal property, among which are tools of all sorts, for blacksmiths, carpenters, sheemakers, painters, &c.

On Saturday October 24th, John McDonald will offer at public sale, his farm in Carroll

XInto the Canal.—On Friday a stallion rode by Mr. Stiles Boden, of Ickesburg, was frightened by the cars of the N. C. R. W. while opposing Duncannon, and leaped into the canal ten or fifteen feet below the level of the road. The horse then made his way to the tow path on the opposite side of the canal, and the rider who had managed to jump off before the leap was made, secured his horse by crossing at the bridge half a mile above.

Boy Hurt .- Our Blain correspondent sends us the following: "On Monday, in Germantown, a serious accident occurred. From what we can learn, a son of Simon Kern, came into the carpenter shop of Mr. John Zeigler. Mr. Z. was chopping, when the axe flew off, and struck young Kern on the forehead and cut a piece of the skull out. The boy is getting better.

Centre Township Schools. - For the schools in Centre, the following teachers have been engaged: For Okefonoke, J. C. Bistline, $28 per month; Comp's, S. K. Sanderson, $30; Laurel Grove, S. A. Magee, $30; Markel's, B. F. Hollenbaugh, $30 : Mansville, Ezra Bupp, $25 ; Koser's Isaiah C. Foose, $30; Air view (Rice's), John Smith, $32; Darlington's (formerly Power's), James Neilson, $30.

Horse Stolen .- In Huntingdon, on Sunday a week, a young man named J. Decker hired a horse and buggy at a livery stable, and told the proprietor he would return next day. However, neither he nor the horse and buggy returned at the time appointed, nor has anything been seen of him since. It is supposed the horse and buggy have been stolen, and a reward of $50 is offered for the recovery.

We do not object to a man stealing our locals and not awarding us the proper credit: but we do object to the course pursued by the Bloomfield Times in persistently copying our locals, and crediting them to the Deinocrat and Register. This week they have used our Item in reference to Mr. John Dearing's adventure with an ugly ram, and credited it to the above named paper.—
Independent.

Well we feel bad about this thing too and will apologize to the Democrat & Register if such apology will wipe out the great wrong done. In fact, we are so terribly annoved. that we are almost tempted for the future to use other's locals, as some papers we might mention do with ours, which is to take them without any credit. By that means such annoying mistakes would be rendered impossible.

Teachers' Examination .- Prof. Wright held his examination on last Tuesday, in the Borough School House. Below are the questions. Definitions, not often taken up, were taken up here. It would be a benefit to have them always taken up and to require them in each examination held in the county, wherever it may be, due notice being given beforehand. It is hard to avoid words with double spelling, such as pickax and wagoner, which have also the other forms of pickaxe and waggoner, but if both spellings are accepted in such cases, there need be no difficulty. In like manner the Prof. stated that any method of grammatical analysis, whether Keri's or the more recent one by Fewsmith, or any other method by any recognized author was understood by him and allowed. This is as it should be and will be good news to many, as will also be the returning of the papers; Perry in this respect wheeling into line with sister counties.

A Mysterious Affair. The inhabitants of Towarda-particularly those in the First Ward-have been greatly agitated over an affair which occurred near the house of Gen. Patton on Main street, which was partially burned a short time since. About I o'clock on Tuesday night some of the people in that vicinity were awakened by an altercation between several men in the street, during which one of the parties was felled to the earth, and immediately his assaulters fled, but soon after returned and carried the man off toward the river. The matter would probably not have attracted further attention but for the finding, on the succeeding day, a little way from the spot where the above described affair occurred, a large pool of blood, evidently caused by the profuse bleeding of something-man or large animal. From here all the way down to the edge of the river drops of blood could be traced. As soon as these facts became known, there was of course, great excitement in the nighborhood, and the authorities asked to investigate. No explanation of the mysterious circumstances has yet been arrived at, and they have given rise to all kinds of stories, many believing a murder most foul has been committed and others attaching to it no more magnitude than a street brawl. It is the duty of the proper authorities that the matter be investigated immediately and as thoroughly as possible. - Towarda Journal.

Blain Fur Company again at Work. Mr. Editor :- On last Thursday, two of Mr. Editor:—On last Thursday, two of the members of our Fur Company, one of our shoemakers and the "Constable," went out after "animules" and "critters" in general. They succeeded in capturing and bringing home alive, a catamount. It is about half-grown, but still has pluck enough to show fight. When they brought it home, they chained it fast to the floor, in the shoemaker shop, where it was inspected by hundreds of people that evening and the following day. The shop was crowded on Monday evening, so that a Zacheus could not have much show for a sight of the cat.

Brief Items.

Chestnuts are now in market, and bid fair to to be very plenty.

Twenty-five companies were present at the inspection of the Militia, at Harrisburg, on Thursday last.

We have received a communication from Rev. W. B. Raber, in reply to an article criticizing a sermon delivered by him. It came to hand too late for insertion this issue, but it will be published next week.

The schools in this borough were given out last Thursday. Mr. Wesley Soule is to teach the high school, Mr. Irvin Sutch the second, and Miss Rebecca Roath, the primary. The winter term will begin, we primary. The winter term learn, on the 12th of October.

The Prebyterian reunion in Cumberland county, on Thursday last, was a very pleasant occasion. The attendance was very large, there probably being between five and six hundred persons present. It was decided to have a similar gathering next year.

A man named Zorger was arrested in Newport, last week, and committed to jail G. A. Sait...... 1.50 for having in his possession spurious mon-ey. The bills complained of were advertisements of some concern, gotten up in imitation of greenbacks, and the arrest, seems to be rather a foolish affair.

The Lebanon Standard tells the following. The story only lacks one thing to make it of great interest to Perry County people, and that is truth:

"Farms in Perry county, which three years ago were sold for $40 and $50 per acre, are now readily taken at $200 and $300 per acre, because of the discovery of coal fields."

Cumberland County .- From the Cumberland county papers of last week, we copy the following:

copy the following:

On Thursday of last week, two valuable mules were stolen from the farm of Mr. David Yeingst, near Boiling Springs, South Middleton township. Two men, named Jacob and Charles Windemaker, of Mount Holly Springs, who were seen loltering about the place, were at once suspicioned as the party that committed the theft. Mr. Yeingst, accompanied by an officer and several neighbors, started in pursuit of the thieves, and traced them to a farm house, near York Springs, in Adams county. The guilty couple, finding they were discovered, tried to baffle their pursuers by fleeing to the mountains. A lively chase was given them, which resulted in their capture. They were hand-cuffed, brought to town, and lodged in jail to await their trial at the next term of Court. Jacob attempted to ascape from his captors, but a shot through the hip made him suddenly halt.

On Tuesday night of last week, a man,

On Tuesday night of last week, a man, with burglarious intentions, entered the dwelling of Mr. Samuel G. Carothers, on North street. The thief entered the chamber of Mrs. Carothers, who wastying in bed asleep. She, fortunately, awakened at an opportune moment to detect the presence of the intruder. Her screams made the villain beat a hasty retreat without securing any booty. Mr. Carothers was absent from home at the time.

One day last week, as Mrs. Moudy was engaged in cleaning house for John D. Meck, grocer, on East Louther street, she accidently fell through an open trap on the floor of the store-room to the cellar, below.

When she was picked up, it was discovered that one of her arms was broken, and that she had sustained other severe internal injuries. She was taken to her home, on South Pitt street, where, we learn, she lies in a very critical condition.—Carlisle Volumeer.

On Sunday morning last, while Mrs. C. Faughender, of Newburg, was walking on a board walk in her garden, she slipped and fell, breaking several bones in her left hand and wrist. Dr. Leberknight attended to the injuries, which are not serious.

Mr. Jon. Tritt, met with a painful accident on Friday morning, of last week, casusing the breaking of his aboulder bone and one of his ribs. At the time of the accident Mr. Tritt was standing upon a ladder of the particular resolution. ladder gathering peaches. The ladder was resting against the fence, and the limb from which he was picking peaches broke, casusing him to lose his balance, and fall-ing across the fence underneath, with the above mentioned unfortunate results. Not-withstanding Mr. Tritt's advanced age his condition is altogether hopeful.—Shippensburg News.

On Monday afternoon, in Mechanics-burg, the third floor of a building, under-going repairs, fell and badly, though not fatally, injured some half dozen persons.

Juniata County .- From the Mifflintown papers we copy the following :

Judge Joseph Pomeroy died at his residence at Academia, about 7 o'clock on Monday morning, in the 70th year of his age, and will be buried to-day (Wednesday).

A Thompsontown correspondent of the Democrat & Register, says: The notorious Bob Aker, of penitentiary fame and thieving notoriety, has been seen in this vicinity several times lately.
