LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NO CUTS INSERTED.

No Cuts or Stereotypes will be inserted in this paper unless light face and on metal bases.

Sales.—We call attention to the following sales, bills for which have been printed at this office:

On Thursday October 22nd, Geo. W. Biting in Liberty Valley, on the old Dalton farm, 3 miles from Beattown, will sell a great variety of personal property, among which are tools of all sorts, for blacksmiths, carpenters, shoemakers, painters, &c.

On Saturday October 24th, John McDonald will offer at public sale, his farm in Carroll twp.

In reply to several inquiries, we would state that according to the ruling of the post office department, our subscribers who reside in this county, can receive their papers free of postage from their post office most convenient to them, even if that office is in another county.

Finger Off.—On last Monday a week, Wilson Morrison, of New Germantown, made cider at Abram Snyder's, near that place. A son of his who was around the mill that crushes the apples, by some means got his finger in when it was taken entirely off. The other part of the hand was somewhat bruised. The finger was dressed by Dr. G. Milton Bradfield, and the boy is doing well.

Robbed.—The Harrisburg Patriot of the 29th ult., says: "While crossing the old portion of the Harrisburg bridge between two and three o'clock yesterday morning, on his way to York county for a load of produce, Mr. Isaac Slayer, a trucker and produce dealer doing business in this city, was attacked by two ruffians when about midway in the bridge. One of the ruffians seized his horse by the bit, while the other leveled a revolver at his head and demanded 'Your life or your money.'" Mr. S. shelled out $40 in greenbacks (all he had about him), but this did not satisfy the scoundrels. They relieved him of a valuable silver watch before they left him. Mr. S. had no weapon of any kind with which to defend himself.

Who is It?—The Mt. Holly Echo says:—"On Saturday a farmer whose name we did not learn residing at Sterrett's Gap, came to Carlisle with a two-horse load of wood. After disposing of his wood he partook too freely of benzine and became a little bewildered. In the evening he started for home but, unfortunately went in the direction of Adams county, passing through this place about 7 o'clock. He mistook the railroad for the wagon road at Upper Holly and soon became entangled in the tressel work across the mill race. Several of our citizens hearing the noise went to his rescue, arriving on the spot just in time to stop the train returning to Carlisle, which was running at a lively rate of speed, thus preventing a terrible accident. The men by strenuous efforts succeeded in getting the team off the track. The drunken man was taken to the Holly boarding house to sober up, and on Sunday morning he was given his team and sent on his way rejoicing. The horses were slightly injured about the legs.

Queer Conduct.—A Newburg correspondent of the Oakville Enterprise says: "A certain young man from the country, on last Saturday evening, made his way quietly to the back porch of a house in town, where he was detected by the lady of the house, and asked his business there. This caused the young man to beat a hasty retreat, and in attempting to jump the paling fence his foot caught and he fell back, with one foot fast in the fence, where he was hanging when 'Squire Peebles' came along, and assisted him in getting loose, whereupon he retreated back into the garden and sought shelter in an outhouse. After a short rest he began to break down the fence, but being intercepted by 'Squire Peebles,' he made his way over a six foot fence and left town. It seems the young man was hunting up the residence of a young lady and had with his tangled feet got into the wrong yard.

A Queer Mother.—We noticed a day or two ago the fact that a little child, about two years old, was found on the track of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, below Mansyunk tunnel, and rescued by a gentleman, and returned to its mother. On the same day, in the afternoon, says the Pottstown Ledger, an engine and tender from the Perkiomen Railroad was going to Richmond for repairs, and at the same place discovered the same child, sitting between the tracks, leaning upon one of the rails. The engineer found he could not stop his engine in time to prevent the child from being run over, and fortunately just as he expected the wheels to crush the babe, a woman appeared upon the ground and suddenly removed the child to a place of safety. The locomotive had scarcely passed him before the woman placed it back in the same position on the rails as it was before the passage of the engine. What the woman could mean by this singular conduct is difficult to determine.

Republican Convention.—The Republican delegates convened in the Court House on Tuesday last, and organized by the election of M. B. Holman, Esq., as President, and Daniel Rife and W. H. Lightner, Secretaries.

The Standing Committee was appointed with A. B. Clouser as Chairman, and the Convention proceeded to nominate candidates for the various county offices.

FOR ASSEMBLY, John H. Sheibley of Bloomfield, was nominated by acclamation.

FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE, W. R. Swartz, of Duncannon, was nominated on the 11th ballot. The ballots being as follows:

Table with 11 columns for ballot counts and names: Swartz, Gihllen, Hench, Stroup, Wright.

FOR SHERIFF, J. Wesley Williams, of Liverpool, was nominated on the 7th ballot. The vote was as follows:

The balance of the ticket nominated is; for Commissioners, James Whitmer, of Greenwood twp., and Wm. Zimmerman, Madison township.

For Director of the Poor, Wm. Shull, of Saville.

For Auditor, John Bixler, of Sandy Hill.

For Coroner, John W. S. Kough, of Newport.

The day being stormy, the attendance of outsiders was small. Everything passed off harmoniously, and the Convention adjourned by four o'clock. A full list of delegates was presented, the names of which are as follows:

- Bloomfield—Thomas Sutcliff, Isiah Foose. Buffalo—J. H. Deckard, Frederick Buck. Carroll—John H. Jones, Jas. P. Donley. Centre—Wm. Bruner, Meredith Darlington. Duncannon—Daniel Rife, Thomas Milkem. Greenwood—Abraham Long, Jonathan Wirt. Howe—David E. Stephens, J. A. Zeliger. Jackson—George W. Trosdie, James Magee. Juniata—Joseph Jones, Levi H. C. Flickinger. Landisburg—Mal, Geo. A. Suman, William H. Lightner. Liverpool boro.—M. B. Holman, E. D. Owen. Liverpool twp.—Jas. A. Wright, Elias Milium. Madison—John C. Stambaugh, D. M. Hohenstitt. Marysville—E. Heisinger, Oliver H. Miller. Miller—Wm. Holmes, Geo. Peterman. Millerstown—Kirk Haines, Jerome B. Lahr. New Buffalo—Joseph Wait, M. B. Custer. Newport—B. Himes, Wm. H. Kough. Oliver—James Everhart, Josiah Fickes. Penn.—Socrates Green, Samuel S. Auchmuty. Rye—C. Barshinger, A. S. Green. Saville—Wm. Shull, Timothy Adams. Spring—John Dunn, W. D. Messimer. Tyrone—Wm. Brickley, Geo. W. Helm. Tyrone—Wm. Fosselman, Wm. A. Meminger. Watts—John Hemperly, Samuel K. Leidy. Wheatfield—John G. Rose, J. C. Meck.

Another Shooting Case.—The Osceola Revere says: "A young lady named Barto was accidentally shot with a revolver, and instantly killed, on Tuesday the 22nd ult., at the house of Daniel Kline, son of Dr. Kline who resides in our town. Mr. Daniel Kline had a 'log rolling' on that day, and as usual on such occasions, nearly all the neighbors, far and near, assembled to assist. Among others, Miss Barto had called to remain during the day, and in company with Mr. Kline's little daughter, went up stairs to get a piece of toilet soap that she was told she would find in the pocket of a coat belonging to a young man named Kline. In attempting to remove the articles she was in search of, her hand came in contact with a revolver, which she drew partly out of the pocket, but the hammer caught fast in some way, preventing her from removing the pistol, and while in the act of looking into the barrel, perhaps to ascertain if it was loaded, her hand slightly relaxed, and the hammer having been partly sprung, came down with sufficient force to explode the cap. The pistol was, of course discharged, and the ball took effect above one of her eyes, killing her instantly.

Burned to Death.—On Monday afternoon as Job Walter and wife, of Snyder county were taking out potatoes, leaving the house in possession of their children, one a little girl about 4 years of age, got too close to the stove, when her clothes took fire burning them entirely from her, with the exception of a small band around her body. Her arms, face and breast were fearfully burned, and she suffered the most excruciating pain, until about 12 o'clock on Monday night when death relieved the poor child from its intense suffering.

Hand Torn Off.—Near Phillipsburg, on Thursday evening last, a sad accident occurred to a young Englishman named Geo. Wait. In company with another young man, he was gunning, and in returning, about seven o'clock in the evening, when about half a mile from town, he attempted to discharge his gun, which burst just between his left hand and shoulder, tearing the hand almost entirely off at the wrist. The young man had only a few days previously purchased a ticket for England, intending to return to the land of his nativity.—Allona Tribune.

Church Notices.

Sheriff's Sales.—The following properties were sold by the Sheriff on Friday last:

A lot of ground situate in Oliver twp., having thereon an 8 cornered dwelling house, seized as the property of Wilson Hottestine, sold to the Newport Planing Mill Co., for $1.

A tract of land situate in Centre twp., having thereon erected a log house and saw mill, seized as the property of Wm. R. & Wm. K. Campbell, sold to Edward Baily, for $750.

A tract of land, situate in Juniata twp., seized as the property of Ezra P. Titzell, sold to A. M. Markel, Esq., for $400.

A tract of land situate in Centre twp., having on it, a house and barn, seized as the property of Andrew Cless, sold to F. B. Clouser, Esq., for $161.50.

A tract of land situate in Saville twp., having thereon a log house and barn, seized as the property of A. W. Kleckner, sold to Andrew Low, for $210.

Also two other tracts belonging to same, situate in Millerstown, sold to C. J. T. McIntire, Esq., one for $10 and one for $20, and a tract in Tuscarora twp., to same, for $25.

A tract of land situate in Millerstown, having thereon a house, stable and other outbuildings, seized as the property of North E. Bollinger, sold to W. A. Spangler, Esq., for $25.

A tract of land situate in Landisburg, having thereon erected a house and stable, seized as the property of Alfred Burnatt, sold to Henry Cooper, for $500.

A tract of land situate in Rye twp., containing 110 acres more or less, seized as the property of J. G. Kolter, and Lewis Glass, sold to John Herring, for $723.

Brief Items.

A bargain can be had, by any person wanting a small tract of land and a saw mill. See advertisement of C. H. Smiley, Esq., in another column.

The Perry County Fair which was held last week, at Newport, was, as a social gathering, a success; as a fair—well let those who were there tell you about that.

The Duncannon boys were the successful competitors, for the premium for the best game of base ball on the Fair Grounds, last Friday, beating the Newport club quite badly.

We suggest that among the questions asked at Teachers' Examinations, the following have a place: "What is the plural of Daddy Long Legs?"

One of the barns belonging to the Coleman estate at Cornwell, Lebanon county, was entirely destroyed by fire on Wednesday night last. Eight horses and one bull were burned.

Last Tuesday morning a brakeman fell from one of the fast freight trains while it was passing around a curve, just above Newport. He was badly though not fatally injured.

A new Wilson Sewing Machine finished in a superior manner, can be bought at a great reduction from the manufacturers price, by applying to F. Mortimer.

Snyder County is to have a new township. It is to be made by dividing Beaver township.

On Tuesday night last Mr. John Jones, of Newport, while getting out of bed, by some means fell and hurt his hip in such a manner that he has been confined to bed ever since. This occurred at the residence of Mr. John B. Meredith, in this borough, where Mr. J. now is under the care of Dr. Strickler.

Cumberland County.—From the Cumberland county papers of last week, we copy the following:

A strange accident happened to a horse belonging to H. Saxton & Co. The colored man who attended to the animal, on opening the stable door, yesterday morning, found the horse on his back with his left hind foot in his mouth so tight that it was impossible to get it out until two teeth were extracted. The poor brute had suffered dreadfully, for he must have been in this condition nearly all night. After his foot had been taken from his mouth the horse was quite sick for some time, but soon recovered and took his oats as usual.—Volunteer.

An epidemic is prevalent among the hogs in Silver Spring township, which has caused considerable loss to the farmers and others. Mr. Samuel Bricker lost all his hogs; Mr. Jones, living on Mr. Saxton's farm, has two left out of thirty-eight; Mr. Williams Parker, Curtis Gipple, John and Jacob Gross, Mr. Genesler, on Mr. Wolford Herman's farm, have each lost from 10 to 20 hogs. The disease now seems to be on the decline.

On Tuesday afternoon, whilst Hiram Smiley (son of Rev. J. M. Smiley), of this place, was playing with a number of other scholars, at the New School House, he was thrown violently to the ground, fracturing the right arm above and below the elbow joint.—Shippensburg News.

The early freight east on Wednesday morning ran into a lot of cattle belonging to M. Z. Taylor, near Oakville, breaking one of the legs of a very fine cow.

Juniata County.—From the Mifflintown papers we copy the following:

Benjamin Weidman, an old and respected citizen of Walker township, fell dead from his chair on Monday at noon, after eating a hearty dinner.

David Hoffman, residing a short distance above town, on Saturday last, whilst employed in quarrying stone at the railroad, had the ends of the two first fingers of the left hand taken off at the first joint, by a stone falling upon them.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Juniata Valley Bank, held on Friday last, George Jacobs, Esq., of this borough, was elected President, and Hon. Joseph Pomeroy, deceased.—Democrat & Register.

Mr. William Smith, foreman of Division No. 2, on the Pennsylvania Canal, was summoned to Lewistown on Monday last to raise a boat that had sunk in lock No. 17. When he arrived on the ground he found it loaded with 61 tons of coal, and all the efforts made to remove it previous to his arrival proved futile. They all agreed that it could not be done without unloading the coal and erecting scaffolding; but Mr. S. dissented, and in a skillful manner succeeded in accomplishing, at a very trifling cost, what no other man has ever done—raising a boat from the bottom of the canal, heavily laden, without removing its burden.—Independent.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE for October has been received with its usual amount of highly interesting and instructive reading matter. The illustrations are fine. There are several interesting continued stories from the pens of some of our most gifted authors. If you want a good magazine, subscribe for 'Lippincott's,' 715 and 717 Market street, Philadelphia.

There will be no further postponement of the Fifth Gift Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky. It will take place positively November 30. The drawing will be a full one. We state these facts in answer to numberless letters from subscribers.

Refitted and Improved.—The Dellville Mill, owned by the subscriber, is again in running order. Having been entirely refitted and improved, adding all the modern arrangements that have by experience proved of value, I am prepared to do work in the best manner. Having also largely increased the power, I can turn out work promptly, not only for my old customers but for all who will favor me with a call. Any grain brought to my mill, I will guarantee to grind promptly and in such a manner as will ensure satisfaction. The public generally, are invited to give me a share of their patronage.
