

A Pie Factory.

The New York Pie Baking Company's factory at 82 Sullivan street, the largest establishment of the kind in the world, has an invested capital of $150,000. The company was organized two years ago through the exertions of Mr. William Thompson. He induced six of the largest pie bakers of the city to consolidate with him and form the company. The buildings cover six and a-half city lots, and the stables have accommodations for fifty horses. Thirty-seven large wagons are employed to deliver the pies turned out daily, and one hundred and twenty persons are employed all the year round.

On the third story is a carpenter shop where two men are constantly employed in making the boxes and trays used in the business. The remainder of this story is used for the preparation of the fruits for the pie. It has an enormous boiler, in which sometimes five hundred pumpkins per day are reduced to jelly, by steam of course. Near it are two steam mincing machines, capable of slicing up a fabulous quantity of fruits. A little further on is a row of immense brass kettles full of steaming berries, which two men are stirring with great ladders. In the further end of the room neat women are seated in groups on the floor by heaps of fruit, which they are sorting and cleaning. Eighty bushels of berries a day is the average consumption.

In another wing the floor is covered with apples, which a man is paring and coring by machinery—160 barrels a week are used. Further on are a large icehouse and a cider mill, with which, in the fall, when apples are cheap, enough cider is made to supply the factory for the year. Against the walls here, as in every available spot throughout the building, are piled cases of sugar and barrels of lard. In the second story, on one side along the entire length extends a table covered with pastry, which thirty men, attired in neat linen suits, are rolling out and laying on tin plates. On the other side of the room are two large troughs, in which the paste for crusts is mixed. One hundred and fifty barrels of flour and 8,000 pounds of lard are mixed in these troughs every week. At times 1,500 quarts of milk and 5,000 eggs a day are used. In this story are a dressing room, where the workmen change their street clothing for the neat suits in which they work, and a room where eight women are constantly washing plates. The loss on plates, through the retention or loss by customers, amount to over $12,000 a year.

The first story is used for storing and delivering the pies.

In the cellar are ten large ovens, baking pies by thousands. In addition to the ten ovens mentioned there is a patent oven, the only one of the kind in the world. It was erected at a cost of 1,700 dollars, and contains a series of revolving shelves, each which in turn presents itself at an aperture, where it is filled with pies by a workman, and then rolls on to give place to another which is filled in the same way, and so on until every shelf is full and he comes to the first shelf again. Then its freight is found nicely baked. The finished pies are removed; the shelf, being refilled, rolls on, and thenceforth the machine pours out a continuous supply of smoking pastry.

In the store room $30,000 worth of lard is frequently stored. This is one of the advantages which the pie bakers gained by consolidating—the ability to buy in large quantities at low rates everything required in their trade. Much of the success of the company is due also to the fact that every member of it thoroughly understands the business.

Don't Wear Chignons.

A Syracuse paper tells the following remarkable story: "Monday on the train on the Erie railway which runs from Rochester to Danville and reaches there at 10 a. m., a most singular circumstance occurred. When the train was about three miles from the village the passengers in one of the coaches were alarmed by the singular actions of a lady, who gave her name as Mary P. Rhoades of Adrian, Mich., and a relative of Rev. C. T. Selby, of Olean, N. Y. She was leaning over a seat, uttering the most piercing cries. A gentleman rushed to her and asked the trouble. She made no answer, but continued to scream the louder. When the train reached the village she was helped into the waiting room and a gentleman present procured a glass of brandy, which being given to the lady she appeared to recover some. A lady standing near at this juncture gave a scream, and pointing to the head of Miss Rhoades faintly. On examination a large striped snake was observed coiled around the chignon and only explained by the theory that it had got into the car and took refuge under the cushions of the car seat. Miss Rhoades stated she felt something crawling up her head, but could only give vent to her feelings in screams, and until it was taken off did not herself know what the matter was. The snake was killed, and the affair produced no little excitement for the time." This is probably the last snake story we shall publish this season.

Have You Tried JURUBEBA? ARE YOU Weak, Nervous, or Debilitated? Are you so Languid that any exertion requires more of an effort than you feel capable of making?

Try JURUBEBA, the wonderful Tonic and Invigorator, which acts so beneficially on the secretive organs as to impart vigor to all the vital forces. It is no alcoholic appetizer, which stimulates for a short time, only to let the sufferer fall to a lower depth of misery, but it is a vegetable tonic acting directly on the liver and spleen. It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, and gives such a healthy tone to the whole system as to soon make the invalid feel like a character. Its operation is not violent, but is characterized by great gentleness; the patient experiences no sudden change, no marked results, but gradually his troubles "Fold their tents, like the Arabs, And silently steal away." This is no new and untried discovery, but has been long used with wonderful results, and is pronounced by the highest medical authorities, "the most powerful tonic and alterative known." Ask your druggist for it. For sale by JOHNSTON, HOLLOWAY & CO., Philadelphia, Pa. 42 41w
