The Bloomfield Cimes.

Tuesday, October 27, 1874. LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NO CUTS INSERTED. No Cuts or Stereotypes will be inserted in this paper niese light face and on metal bases.

Ratification Meeting.—A Republican Ratification Meeting will be held in the Court House, on this Tuesday evening the 27th inst., to ratify State and County nominations. General Robert B. Beath and Maj. Wilson Norris, will discuss the issues involved in the campaign.

XYoung to Travel.-A few days ago there passed over the P. R. R., on the Pacific Express going east, two children, aged respectively four and six years, who were ticketed through from Yokohama, Japan, to Liverpool, England. They were the children of an English officer who died at the first mentioned place, and were on their way to their friends in England .-They had with them a letter from the English Consul General, requesting the railroad, steamship and other officers to take charge of them.

Fatally Injured. - On Tuesday last about 8 o'clock, one of the hands employed on the local freight, was so badly injured while shifting cars near the furnace at Newport, that he died about 6 o'clock that afternoon. The young man's name was Glenn McCauley, a resident of Harrisburg, where he had recently moved and where he had a wife. The accident happened by Mr. Cauley getting his foot caught between the rail and a plank, causing him to fall, and the car was so near him, that before it could be stopped the wheels had crushed him. He was taken to Newport, when every care was rendered him, and after his death his body was taken to Huntingdon, where his mother resided.

Another Terrible Warning .- Sunday afternoon, Mr. Henry Fink, of Dover, was out chestnutting in the woods. As he went in his buggy, he put his gun in the box under the seat. Returning in the evening he endeavored to extract the gun from under his seat, taking hold of it by the muzzle. The cock was caught in the operation, which snapped and discharged the whole load into the palm of his right hand shattering all of the eight bones of the wrist and passing up into the arm where it tore the flesh fearfully and broke both the bones of the forearm. The injury was so great that amputation was necessary between the wrist and the elbow. Drs. Kerr, Ahl and McLaughlin performed the operation. The sufferer is doing as well as could be expected .- Telegram.

Run Off.-The Waynesboro' Record says: "On Sunday last whilst two young men of this place, Haughman and Bireman, were on their way from Mechanicstown, in a buggy, the horse took fright at a freight train of cars as it was passing over a bridge, and commenced running. It appears the lines broke, the young men were thrown out, and the vehicle, said to have been a new one, was thoroughly demolished. The horse which was captured between this place and Monterey, belonged to Dr. Bowls of this place. The buggy was from the livery of Mr. John S. Funk. The young men fortunately escaped with but slight bruises.

A Bold Robbery-A Safe Carried away and Broken Open. - Between 1 and 2 o'clock yesterday morning the night hands at Wister's furnace, below Mulberry street, on the opposite side of the canal, heard a noise which was later in the morning found to have emanated from the operations of a number of burglars in breaking through a safe which they had carried from the brick office of the Wister firm to a place where they could work without probable moles tation. The office is located at the edge of a basin in which a large number of logs, grouped together into small rafts, are kept. The burglars entered the office from the towpath and rolled the safe out of the front door, evidence of which is seen in the door, evidence of which is seen in the broken steps. They then rolled their plunder on one of the safts, which they had drawn to the shore, and boated to a point about 200 feet distant, on the opposite side of the basin. Having selected a place where the employees of the furnace could not observe their operations because of ore banks, etc., they unloaded the safe and commenced chiseling it open, using a sledge hammer and several other implements which they had stolen from the blacksmith shop about twenty feet in the rear of the furnace. The noise produced by the sledge hammer blows was heard about an hour by the furnace-men, who suspected nothing wrong.

Yesterday morning after daylight the safe was found with the bottom chiseled and hammered out and the books and other contents piled up near it. All the burglars carried away were a few insurance policies and two Pennsylvania railroad shares, no money having been kept in the safe. The burglars first attempted to gain access to the interior of the safe by breaking open the door, but this work not proving satisfactory they changed their base of operations and penetrated the sheet iron base, broken steps. They then rolled their which was about an eight of an inch in thickness. The hole they cut out is large enough to admit the head of a man. There are no evidences to show that powder had been used in opening the safe-one of Evans & Watson's weighing about half a

The office lamp was used in looking about the room for plunder. The disordered condition of things showed that the burglars had been inspecting the contents, but nothing was removed but the safe, the object of the thieves being evidently to steal nothing but money .- Harrisburg Patriot of 21st

A New Railroad Order .- The management of the Pa. R. R. company has recently issued an order bearing the official signature of Thos. A. Scott, President, to every person employed by the company in any capacity whatsoever which is not only novel in its character but worthy of general imitation by similar corporations. It sets forth that the company pays a fair compensation for the time and services of its employees and in return demands that they shall devote their entire attention to the duties of their respective positions. That they are not to act in any executive or other capacity in or for any other corporation or to give their labor to any other firm or business. That they are not to be interested in any way, directly or indirectly in the supplies or business of the road, and that all emoluments and profits accruing from any such employments or interest, belong naturally to the company and not to the employee, and are to be turned into the treasury of the railroad. In fact the company enters upon a new and enlarged sphere of usefulness, free from combinations that must, it would appear, attach to all great enterprises in their early stages. The announcement of these facts must have a vastly beneficial influence upon the stockholders interests. The policy of acting through companies which were managed in connection with the central controlling power of so great a corporation as that of the Pennsylvania railroad was no doubt rendered necessary at the time when the road was begun, and much of the unrivalled success and unprecedented growth of this company was due to the wise direction of that policy; but now it is able to stand above it and needs no such help, all the best efforts of brain and a muscle employed by it should and must have but a single allegiance to one central point of interest. That no one may be aggrieved by this change of policy strict conformity to it will not be made imperative until the first of January next.

Brief Items.

The Synod of the Presbyterian church is now in session in Carlisie. About three hundred delegates are present.

Court is in session as we go to press. A full report of the proceedings will be published next week.

There is a borough ordinance against playing ball in the streets, and it ought to be enforced, or else have it repealed and then organize a window-glass insurance company at once.

On Saturday, Miss Annie Mickey, of this borough, badly burnt her hand and arm by upsetting a crock of apple butter on it. We were rather surprised the other day by a man addressing us with, "I say Cap-tain, what has become of that 'Comic,' that folks talked about so much last sum-mer, I dou't hear no more of it."

Church Notices.

Service in the M. E. Church every evening during this week.

Dr. Sweeney, of New Bloomfield, Pa., can be consulted as usual on all Chronic diseases, requiring skillful medical treat-ment, or delicate and difficult Surgical operation for their cure.

The Aldine for November comes to us richly freighted with art and literary treasures, something after the manner of one of the argosles of old, that made periodical returns from distant lands, bringing the most valuable things that could be selzed in all. Artistleally, the place of honor is held by an exquisite picthe place of honor is held by an exquisite pic-ture called "Dinner-Times," after the German Knaus, showing a dark-haired Gretchen feed-ing her ducks, which is followed by other splendid pictures.

Take Notice.—Mr. A. V. Hombach wishes the citizens of this county to take notice that being desirous of reducing his stock before cold weather, he has determined to close out what he now has on hand, at greatly reduced prices. Head stones of all ports and styles, and monuments, ranging sorts and styles, and monuments ranging in price from $25 to $400, lettered and delivered at short notice. Letters or orders sent to A. V. Humbach, opposite the planing mill, Newport, will receive prompt attention.

Dr. D. H. Sweeney, at New Bloomfield, Pa., in his treatment of diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Heart, Nasal Cavities and Ears, uses the approved treatment of En-lightened Physicians of the present age.

Deafness, Discharges from the ear, and all throat affections, specially and success-fully treated by Dr. D. H. Sweeney, of New Bloomfield, Perry county, Pa.
