Tuesday, November 10, 1874. LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NO CUTS INSERTED. No Cuts or Stereotypes will be inserted in this paper unless light face and on metal bases.

Dropped Dead .- On Thursday last, Mr. John Wilson, an aged gentleman residing in Juniata twp., near Milford, dropped down in the corn field, and at once expired. Mr. W. a few moments before his death was chatting and laughing pleasantly, and had just finished his last shock, and was in the act of tying up the fodder when the fatal summons came to him.

A Shooting Affair,-A shooting affair took place at Fannettaburg, on Monday, which has produced considerable sensation in that vicinity, the parties engaged, holding respectable position in society. The altercation was between Dr. Alexander and Mr. Typer, in which the former received a number of pistol shots from the latter .--Rumor has it that Dr. Alexander had been too familiar with Typer's wife. Typer has been placed in Franklin county jail.-Shippensburg News.

Counting the Returns .- The Court of Common Pleas for this county, met at 12 o'clock, at noon, on Thursday to count up the returns, as provided for by the new law. Mr. Wm. Willis and Chas. H. Smiley, Esq., were appointed clerks, the law requiring one from each party. At 4 o'clock the returns were all counted up, the certificates of election made, and the copies were ready to mail to Harrisburg. In another place we give the full official returns, by which it will be seen that the only successful Republican candidate is the Sheriff, and he by only 5 majority .-The variations in the votes cast for the different candidates, shows that voters are claiming the right, to act as they see fit without regard to party nominations.

A Lesson for the Boys.—Very frequently those who would like to be thought young men, have made it a custom to behave in a disorderly manner around the doors of the Methodist Church. Last week Rev. A. W. Decker gave these boys a lesson, which perhaps, they will remember. He had David Sweger, of Centre twp., arrested and bound over, which cost the young man some money, some trouble and some unpleasant notoriety. A charge of assault was also made against him for resisting those whose duty it is to preserve order. The law provides penalties for those who disturb church services, either from the inside or outside of the building, and the sooner that fact is recognized the better it will be for those inclined to make a disturbance.

A Narrow Escape.—On Tuesday last, Mr. David Souder, of Centre twp., made a remarkable escape from injury to himself and horses at the Railroad crossing near the mill at Newport. Mr. Souder was coming out of that place with a four-horse team, and when on the race bridge, stopped and listened for coming trains. Not hearing any signals, or any noise of the cars, he drove along, and just as his wheel horses were going on to the track, he saw a freight train coming up on that track, and within 50 feet of him. As quick as thought he sprang from the saddle and seized the bridles of the front horses, and pulled them from the track. He succeeded in getting them off just in time, the engine grazing the hames of the off horse and tearing the hames of the off horse and tearing the hames. It was a remarkable narrow escape, and in this case the engineer was evidently to blame for not giving the usual drove along, and just as his wheel horses idently to blame for not giving the usual signal. Not only Mr. S., but others in that vicinity, say neither bell was rung nor whistle was blown, and the air was so foggy and smoky that it was impossible to see but a short distance.

Death from Poison. On Saturday last, a little daughter of Dr. Donnelly, of Latrobe, Westmoreland county, died, it is supposed, from the effects of poison. On Friday, the child was playing in the yard and found a small vial containing rat-bane, but was discovered almost immediately, and the vial taken from it. Its hands were washed off for fear the poison might be on them, and the mother was satisfied that it had taken none of it inwardly until the next morning, when the child became alarmingly ill and died in about an hour. - Altoona Tribune.

Joseph Longacre, residing along the turnpike, in Delaware township, about one mile west of Thompsontown, met with mile west of Thompsontown, met with quite a serious accident, yesterday morning a week. Early on the morning of that day he hitched two mules to a wagon with hay ladders on, that stood on a floor of his barn, and then went up on the mow for some purpose. On his return to the wagon he missed a step and fell forward against the upper cross piece that held the front end of the ladders together. The pins that held the cross piece broke, and he fell forward between the mules, and so frightened them that they ran out of the barn, dragged him along for some distance. The entanglement that held him was broken.—The wagon passed over him, and he got The wagon passed over him, and he got up and went to the house. Physicians were summoned. His left shoulder was fractured, and he was severely hurt otherwise. The mules ran into a clump of wilders where the passes are summoned. lows, where they became so entangled that they stopped.

The wood-work of the store is damaged beyond repairs, and the wonder to all is how the building was saved from entire destruction. After it got between the floor and ceiling, and between the weather-boarding, the heat was so great that it melted the solder of the tin boxes, and the tin scoop on the scales.—One large tin box containing matches was melted loose, and the matches were not ignited. By a special act of the Legislature of Kentucky, March 16, 1871, the trustees of the Public Library of that State, located at Louisville, were authorized to give five gift concerts in its aid. Four of these concerts have already been held, and the fifth and last is now positively and unequivocally announced to take place on the 30th of November, 1874. As no other concert can ever be held under this charter, the managament have planned it upon a scale of unprecedented liberality. No less than $2,500,000 are to be distributed among the ticket-holders, by lot, under the supervision of Ex-Gov. Thos. E. Bramlette, associated with several leading citizens of Kentucky. The highest prize is $250,000, and this fortune will become the possession of the lucky holder of a ticket costing only

There are twenty thousand gifts altogether, something for everybody; and these will as certainly be distributed on the 30th of November, 1874, as the sun rises that day, and that with the utmost fairness. Duff's Mercantile College.

The name "Duff" is synonymous with the very idea of book-keeping in this community. Over thirty-four years ago this highly successful institution opened its doors for the education of young men in the science of book-keeping, &c. Since that time hundreds, yes, even thousands, halling from all sections of the country have graduated from the College, until the name of "Duff" has become engrafted on the minds of almost every business firm throughout the Union.

Duff's System of Book-Keeping, published years ago by Harper Bros., and subsequently republished, until many editions have appeared, is still acknowledged as the best work of the kind ever offered to the public. It has been adopted as the standard throughout the country, and its completeness is confessed by all who have used it.

A New Magazine.

A new applicant for public favor is Peterson's Journal, we have received the first number, that for December, and can truly say that this new enterprise opens in the most promising manner. This number contains twelve first-class stories, all published complete, many of them written by authors of high shillty and reputation.

picte, many of them written by authors of high ability and reputation.

To all these desiring a first-class magazine, a large majority of whose pages are devoted to the publication of the best hetion of the day, we can recommend this. The publishers connected for many years with the Saturday Evening Post and The Lady's Friend, will, in the management of this new periodical, have the benefit of a long and varied experience. The mechanical getting up of the magazine is unexceptionable; the paper being excellent, and the cover decidedly handsome and novel in appearance. Terms: $3.00 a Year, in Advance. An extra copy will be supplid free for one year to any person sending a club of Five Subscribers, at $3.00 each. The postage will be prepaid by the Publishers, without extra charge, in accordance with the new law. Specimen copies, 25 cents. H. Peterson & C., 920 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.
