The Bloomfield Cimes.

Tuesday, November 17, 1874. LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NO CUTS INSERTED. No Cuts or Stereotypes will be inserted in this paper mices light face and on metal bases.

A Sudden Death .- On Friday afternoon, the wife of Mr. Samuel Saucerman in Juniata township, died very suddenly .-Mrs. Saucerman eat her dinner, apparently as well as usual, and at 3 o'clock was a corpse. It is said the cause of her death was heart disease. Mrs. S. was a daughter of David Grahm, residing near Duncannon, and was a very estimable lady. Her sudden death cast a gloom over a large circle of friends and relations Heard From .- The disappearance of Elias R. Yoder, of Pinegrove township, Lebanon county, which was mentioned recently, is partly cleared up. A letter has been received from him, posted at South Bend, Indiana, in which he state that he walked to Myerstown station, bare footed, there took the cars and arrived at South Bend at the time of his writing. He states that he intended leaving for Colorado but gives no cause for his sudden departure. As he has paid all his debts and is otherwise free from all entanglements, the opinion is gaining ground, since the letter has been received, that he is not in a perfectly sane condition. He leaves a wife and one child at his former home.

Strange Visitors .- The Chambersburg Opinion says: "Last week whilst Frank Rosenberry was upon the North Mountain, in the vicinity of the late fires, his attention was attracted by the movements of some animals in the burnt district, and upon going up found seven swans-two of which were more or less scorched, but alive-the balance dead. He caught one and brought it down to the settlement, and upon weighing it found it drew exactly twenty pounds, and measured eight feet from tip to tip of the wings. On Wednesday morning last, a son of Mr. Jonas C. Palmer shot a swan on Shaffer's dam, in the same vicinity, which measured seven feet from tip to tip, and weighing sixteen pounds. It is supposed in their flight over the burning mountain the swans were attracted by the great light, and like wild geese, came down to see about it, and thus met their untimely fate.

A Desperate Fight with Robbers .- The Lancaster county papers give an account of a desperate fight that was had with thieves near Marietta on Friday night aweek. About 8 o'clock, three men called at the farm-house of Miss Hoover, near Donegal Springs, and asked permission to sleep in the barn. It was granted, and just while the family, which consisted of Miss Hoover, an old man named Bishop, a boy about 18 years old, and a girl of the same age, were preparing to retire for the night, the men returned to the house and demauded something to eat. Suspicion was at once aroused in the minds of the occupants of the house that all was not right. Mr. Bishop passed the food out through a window, when one of the men-all of whom were now masked-knocked the dish from his bands, and leaped through the win dow into the house, followed by the others.

Here a struggle began. In the fight Miss Hoover was knocked down by a blow from one of the ruffians, which sent her reeling under the table. She soon recovered, however, and tore the mask from the face of one of them. Mr. Blahop was knocked down twice, but being a very stout man, fought bravely, dealing heavy blows on their heads with a smoothing iron. While the fight was going on the girl ran up stairs, locked herself in a room and blew a horn from the window. This brought the neighbors, but before assistance came the scoundrels had made their escape. The boy is severely cut about the eyes and head. Miss Hoover is an old lady, and is supposed to have a large amount of money. Bishop, being a brave man, prevented her being robbed and perhaps murdered. The kitchen and dining reom were literally covered with blood from the affray. CONT. N. 12 E.A. 12

Brief Items.

Udderzook was hung on Thursday last. He maintaned his innocence to the last.

A large doe was shot at the upper end of Horse Valley on election day, by Messrs. Giv-ins and Fulton. This was the first deer that has been heard from in this part of country this season.

Recently, Mr. George Shahen, of Gran-ville township, Mifflin county, was stricken with paralysis, and his entire left side is poweriess. He was alone, at McKee's saw mill, engaged in hauling slabs, and lay there two hours before he was found.

Since the large fire in Selinggrove, there have been two attempts made to again fire buildings in that town. Several companies met with very large losses by that fire, but the Perry Matual get off with a loss of about $2,000.

Br. Sweeney, of New Bloomfield, Pa., can be consulted as usual on all Chronic diseases, requiring skillful medical treat-ment, or delicate and difficult Surgical op-eration for their cure.

Gintr's Norce, Nov. 18th, 1874.

Mr. Editor:—As a specimen of our agricultural productions, let me give you a list of the preductions of, a garden owned by John P. Motter, in Buffalo township, and say who can beat it. The dimensions of the garden is fifty-five feet square, on which he raised this last season the following to with.

which he raised this last season the following to wit:

Twenty bushels of tomatoes; twelve bushels of onion, large; one bushel, small; six bushels of red beets, one of which weighs 8½ lbs; two and a half bushels turnips; 106 head of cabbage; and one radish measuring 26½ inches, beside the vegetables used in a family of three persons.

I challenge the county of Perry to beat this.

AMICUS.

Cumberland County.-From the Cumberland county papers of last week, we copy the following :

Two colored women were stricken with palsy at Mt. Holly Springs last week. One case has proved fatal, and in the other recovery is doubtful.

A little son of John Fishburn, of Carlisle, was terribly burned while playing with gunpowder a few days ago.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Poor, at the Poor House, on Monday last, J. G. Hutchison, of Penn township, was appointed Steward, to take the place of Henry Suyder, resigned. If Mr. H. makes as good an officer as Mr. Snyder did, it will be well for himself and the county. We wish him success in his new position.

A gentleman living a few miles West of Carlisle, was taking home with him in his wagon a can of coal oil. By some mishap, while on the way, the oil leaked out of the can into the bed of the wagon. Our friend thought that the most speedy way to remove the oil from the wagon was to apply a lighted match. The result was that, not only the oil was removed but it was with only the oil was removed but it was with difficulty the wagon was saved from destruction.-Sentinel.

On Tuesday morning last, Mr. Peter D. Johns sent a young lad to a pasture field near town for his horse. The boy attempted to ride the horse with a halter when it became unmanageable and ran towards the stable at a break-neck speed. When near the stable the horse ran against a board fence, breaking down a panel and running one end of a board into its breast about 18 inches, causing it to bleed to death in about five minutes. The horse was a valabout five minutes. The horse was a val-uable animal, and the loss to Mr. Johns is a heavy one. The boy was not injured.— Echo.

Juniata County .- From the Millintown papers we copy the following :

On Friday evening last two tramps pre-sented themselves at the residence of Sher-iff Knouse and asked that they might ensented themselves at the residence of Sheriff Knouse and asked that they might enjoy the hospitalities of the borough to a supper, night's lodging and breakfast.—
They were taken in by our kind hearted Sheriff, and treated to the best of board and bed. In the morning they started off with full stomachs and a pair of the Sheriff's pantaloons. As soon as the loss was discovered, Mr. Knouse started in hot pursuit and soon had the thief in custody. A hearing was had before Squire Huzzard, and a commitment issued. On the way to the jail the prisoner broke from the officer, but after a long and complicated flight [we wonder what kind of a flight that is] he was re-captured and safely jailed. During the progress of the trial, the young man produced a certificate of membership of the Young Men's Christain Association, of Chicago.

A. G. Bonsall, Esq., of the Democrat 5

A. G. Bonsall, Esq., of the Democrat & Register, has been elected to fill the vacan-cy in the Board of Directors of the Junista valley Bank, caused by the death of Judge Pomeroy.

The services of Prof. Robt. Curry, Deputy State Superintendent, and Prof. J. W. Shoemaker, of Philad'a., have been secured for the coming Teachers' Institute, which will convene in Millintown on Monday. day, Dec. 14th, 1874.

Bloomfield Academy.-The new term of this school opened last week with even a larger attendance than the fall torm. Besides the ordinary normal studies and a larger attendance than the fall torm. Besides the ordinary normal studies and the business course in Book-Keeping, Phonography, &c., the higher studies of Rhetoric, Natural Philosophy, Physical Geography and General History alternate this term and next with the elements of Physiology, Geology, Chemistry and Natural Philosophy.

127 Who will draw the great cash prize of $250,000 in the fifth and last grand gift concert of the Public Library of Kentucky, is now the agitating conundrum. Some one will do so with a ticket coating only $50; and the name of the lucky man will be known to all the world on the first day of December next, for the drawing will certainly take place on the 30th of November. Two and a half million dollars will then be distributed in prizes among twenty thousand ticket holders. This magnificent scheme is under the management of Gov. Thos. E. Bramletts, of Louisville; and the same high-toned dealing will characterise this final drawing as was shown in the preceeding case. The Public library founded by these gift concerts is an honor to the State of Kantacky, whose best men are concerted in accimit precisely what is promiced is performed. Orders for tickets, accompanied with the much, can be seen to Gov. Thos. E. Bramletts, Louisville, Kentucky, or Thomas H. Hays & Co., Eastern agents, 609 Broadway, New York.

Take Notice.—Mr. A. V. Hombach wishes the citizens of this county to take notice that being desirous of reducing his stock before cold weather, he has determined to close out what he now has on hand, at greatly reduced prices. Head stones of all sorts and styles, and monuments ranging in price from $25 to $400, lettered and delivered at short notice. Letters or orders sent to A. V. Humbach, opposite the planing mill, Newport, will receive prompt attention.

Deafness, Discharges from the ear, and all throat affections, specially and success-fully treated by Dr. D. H. Sweeney, of New Bloomfield, Perry county, Pa.

Dr. D. H. Sweeney, at New Bloomfield, Pa., in his treatment of diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Heart, Nasal Cavities and Ears, uses the approved treatment of En-lightened Physicians of the present age.
