LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NO CUTS INSERTED. No Cuts or Stereotypes will be inserted in this paper unless light face and on metal bases.

Thanksgiving Day will be observed with appropriate exercises, on next Thursday, (26th) at 10 o'clock A. M., in the Reformed Church, of New Bloomfield. All are earnestly invited to participate in the exercises.

An Attempted Swindle.—Last Friday the Millin county National Bank received a telegram purporting to come from Wm. Willis, dated Middleburg, calling upon its cashier to send him $300 by express at once to Selingsgrove. Mr. Robeson, being aware that Colonel W. was in that county, sent the money as directed. On the arrival of the package at Selingsgrove a man appeared and claimed it as his. The agent refused to deliver it until he could identify the stranger as Mr. Willis. The man then had the temerity to name a prominent citizen of the place, hoping that this would satisfy the agent. It was "no go" fortunately, and the confidence operator concluded to decamp. The same night a fine horse was missing, and the inference is that the would be money-thief changed his tactics and turned horse-thief. Mr. Willis did not learn of the free use of his name until his return to Lewistown, when Mr. Robeson incidentally remarked, "Why, Willis, you must have been investing at Middleburg." This observation led to explanations and mutual surprises. The money was ordered back to Lewistown, to the satisfaction of all parties but the thief.—Lewistown Sentinel.

Singular Accident at Harrisburg.—On Thursday morning the new engine at the water works was put into operation, for the purpose of forcing the water into the new reservoir, when an unlooked for accident occurred. About 180 feet of water had been forced into the stand pipe, when the iron cap, which had been placed in the thirty inch supply pipe, to be connected with the low pressure engine, was thrown out with considerable force and with a loud report. The entire volume of water rushed out, tearing out the stones in the wall between the engine room and the front portion of the building, and scattering them right and left, making a breach of about four feet square. The sash of the window fronting the wharf was driven out and carried about fifty feet, and deposited in the river. Mr. Wm. Matthews, who was working at a bench on the left hand side of the engine room, was struck by some of the timber and glass and cut considerably about the head. Ed. Tunis also sustained slight injuries. Messrs. William Bostich and Peter Fortenbaugh, who were standing in the engine room, received a thorough drenching. Pieces of timber, stones, etc., were thrown around promiscuously, and the water flooded the building.

Brief Items.

The Bank and Stores of this place will be closed on Thanksgiving day, Thursday, November 26th. Millard F. Charles came near being drowned on Thursday, by falling into the canal at Newport. He was rescued by Capt. Crist just in time to save his life. The Carlisle lawyers had an animated time seeking the position of Attorney to the commissions made vacant by the election of M. C. Herman, Esq., as judge.—W. J. Shearer, Esq., was the successful applicant. Mr. Wm. K. Smith, of Juniata twp., was badly cut in the wrist a few days ago, while chopping in the woods. For a time it was feared that the main artery was severed, but fortunately, such was not the case, and the wound is now rapidly healing. Those who think tobacco a security against moth, would have had their faith greatly shaken, had they been present when we opened a fresh box of cigars last week. In the end of one cigar we found a lively moth as nicely fixed as though the nest had been all wool. A Harvest Home Festival will be held in the Reformed Church, at New Newport, on Thanksgiving evening, Nov. 26th. After the services there will be a social gathering of the members and friends of the church. Coffee, Oysters, Ice Cream and Cakes will be served. The Public are invited. Free to all.

They have got home. The party of hunters who went from here to Black Log, we mean. The deer that they brought home with them they say is very fine, but we can tell better about that after dinner time tomorrow. Our legal friend James Ferguson, Esq., was the man who shot it. The party had a very pleasant time, and express themselves highly pleased with their trip. On Sabbath evening, of Nov. 8th, while Mr. F. B. Crone, of Fairview township, Adams county, (living on Mr. Daniel Reiff's farm), was driving home from church, and just in sight of home, his horse showed symptoms of vertigo, when Mr. Crone jumped out of the buggy and spoke to the horse, but he immediately fell to the ground and almost instantly expired. A horse belonging to Sheriff Rinesmith, ran nearly a mile on Friday evening with a light buggy to which he was attached, without breaking anything. Charley Rinesmith was in the buggy at the time the animal started fixing the robe, but the reins had dropped beyond his reach, so that all that he could do was to jump out, which he safely did. The start was made from the Sheriff's farm.

Teachers' Institute.—The next session of the county institute will be held in the Court House, in Bloomfield, commencing at 1 P. M., on Monday, December 7th, 1874.

Friends of education, patrons, and school directors are invited, and all the teachers are expected present at this institute. Prof. J. W. Shoemaker, of Philadelphia, will give an Elocutionary entertainment on Monday evening. Admission 25 cents.

Wednesday will be directors' day. Eighty words will be spelled on Tuesday forenoon to determine who is the best speller in the county.

Silas Wright, County Supt. Schools. Nov. 24, 1874.

Cumberland County.—From the Cumberland county papers of last week, we copy the following:

On Wednesday last, Mr. Gilson Smith, of Shippensburg township, fractured his leg while packing hay on the farm of Fred Cressler.

Mr. J. D. Jackson, living near Oakville, goes west next spring to superintend Gen. Grant's large farm near St. Louis, Mo. Mr. Jackson is a good farmer and will doubtless do Gen. Grant's farm justice.

A stable belonging to T. V. Baker, of Shippensburg, was burned last Saturday evening in that borough. The fire was the work of an incendiary and a reward of $200 is offered for the arrest and conviction of the criminal.

Last week, the Thomas Iron Company at Pine Grove, discharged again a large force of their employes, owing to the dull sale of iron ore and pig iron. The company have about 300 tons of pig iron at Pine Grove which they refuse to sell at the present low prices.

Officer Killian, arrested John Arnold, last week, living at the foot of the mountain below Flat Rock, on suspicion of having fired the mountain, which fire did so much damage. Another charge is, he used threatening language against Mr. Jos. Salisbury, whose property had been jeopardized by the fire. Coals that had been scraped away were found afterwards scraped in the direction of his barn, for which suspicion, rests on Arnold. When the presence of officer Killian became known, Arnold fled to the mountain but was captured.

On Wednesday morning last, Mrs. Wink, Mr. Stone and Mrs. Stone, were on their way to market in a spring wagon. When within the borough limits, Mrs. Wink was noticed to suddenly give a lurch forward. Upon reaching Humer's grocery she was found to be insensible, and Dr. Dale was immediately summoned, when he pronounced that her entire right side was paralyzed. Mrs. Wink was taken to her home later in the day, but never regained her consciousness, and died on Friday. The funeral, which took place on Sunday was largely attended, the remains being interred in the graveyard at the Kutz church, and an appropriate discourse delivered by the Rev. Jacob Boas.

Juniata County.—From the Millintown papers we copy the following:

On Monday evening, of this week, John Soda, employed by the Wilson Bros. on the new railroad, while in the act of getting on a horse fell and broke his leg.

An attempt to fire a building in Thompsonstown was made the other evening, but appears to have failed, simply because of the bungling manner in which it was done. No reason can be given for it, nor are any parties suspected. The building was unoccupied and owned by T. S. Thompson, Esq.

On Friday morning last the dwelling house of E. R. Gilliford, in Spruce Hill township, took fire from the flue, and was entirely consumed. The out houses and the household goods were saved. The fire was discovered about 10 o'clock. The loss is estimated at about $3,000. Insured for $1,500.

A few days since the house of Joseph Kenagy, in Turbett township, was entered by some person or persons, who relieved him of about $140 in money, bread, butter, eggs, &c. It appears that Mr. K. has been keeping "bachelor's hall," and while engaged in his corn field an entrance was effected through one of the back windows.

Within the past two weeks Mr. Henry L. Smith, residing about one mile from McAllisterville, has lost twenty nine hogs from some disease that has got among them. When the symptoms of the disease first made its appearance the hogs became blind and are attacked with the diarrhoea, and after staggering around for a short time fell over dead. Mr. Smith, as well as many of his neighbors, are of the opinion that it is cholera.—Independent.

Mrs. Mary S. Pasick, wife of the late Wm. Pasick, of Millintown, died very suddenly on last Friday morning, at the residence of her son Alonzo, in Patterson. She retired to bed in apparently good health, and about one or two o'clock her son heard her calling for him. He went to her room and found her very sick. He immediately started for a physician, but before he returned she died. She was aged about 73 years. Mrs. Pasick was a good old lady, loved and respected by all who knew her.

The December number of Ballou's charming magazine is issued, and contains such a large variety of stories and poems that its patrons will be more in love with it than ever. There are Christmas tales and verses, rich engravings of interesting localities, a thrilling sea yarn, a wild adventure, and some of the best domestic tales that ever appeared in print. But send for a copy and judge for yourself. Single copies 15 cents. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 36 Bromfield St., Boston, at $1.50 per year, including postage and premium.

To Exchange.—A desirable farm in Fishing Creek Valley, Perry county, Pa., to exchange for a dwelling house in either Marysville, Danannon or Newport. No imbrance on farm. Price $3,500. For further information apply to

JAMES ORR. November 24, 1874, 31*

A friend remarked recently that he would not be without Pain Cure Oil for fifty dollars. Two bottles had cured him of a severe attack of Rheumatism, and he is now well and happy. It costs but 50 cents per bottle.

For sale by F. MORTIMER, New Bloomfield, and B. M. EBY, Drugist, Newport, Pa.

Without doubt hundreds of people who will read this item are suffering with Kidney Disease in some form, which might be cured with a bottle or two of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, used internally. Why not try it?

Parson's Purgative Pills, which are now being extensively sold in this State, are purely vegetable, and are mild and gentle in their operation. One is a dose. Good qualities, certainly.

The Confessions of an Invalid.

Published as a Warning and for the benefit of Young Men and others who suffer from NEURALGIA, DEBILITY, LOSS OF MANHOOD, etc., applying the means of Self-Cure. Written by one who cured himself after undergoing considerable quackery, and sent free on receiving a post-paid directed envelope.

Sufferers are invited to address the author. NATHANIEL MAYFAIR, P. O. Box 153, Brooklyn, N. Y.

A MAN IN RUINS.—One of the saddest spectacles in the world is a human being shattered and broken down by the use of ardent spirits. But the damage may be repaired, the ruin restored to perfect soundness, by a course of that most powerful of all invigorants, Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters. Beware of those "tonics" of which rum is an element. They aggravate disease and promote decay. 44 4w

"WILD OATS."

PROSPECTUS FOR 1875.

THE CHAMPION AMERICAN Comic Paper.

ILLUSTRATED by a corps of the best American artists, and contributed to by the most popular humorists of the day.

WILD OATS now enters successfully upon the sixth year of its existence, and has become the established humorist and satirical paper of the country. It was started and continued the first year as a monthly, then, to satisfy the demand of the public, it was changed to a fortnightly. Still retaining its good work of being funny as it flies, and showing up the political and social shams by its masterly cartoons and pungent editorials, it achieved ever greater success than before, and was recognized as the ablest and brightest of its class. Since then we have yielded still further to the public demand, and now publish WILD OATS weekly! It has literally grown into its present shape on its intrinsic merits, being the first successful weekly humorist paper ever published in this country.

Among the artists especially engaged to furnish illustrations for WILD OATS are Frank Bellew, Thomas Worth, Hopkins, Wales, Snelton, Wolf, Camp, Ecclesia, Stuckhardt, Day, Folland, and several others who are yet unknown to fame.

In its literary departments WILD OATS will, as it always has, stand alone and unapproachable. At least one first-class serial story will always be found in its pages, by the best humorist, satirical, and character writers in the United States; while its sketches and squibs will be sparkling, original, and pointed.

WILD OATS will be first-class in every particular, and on this account may be taken into the best families without fear or suspicion, as no word or illustration will appear that can offend the most fastidious.

Send for a Sample Copy and convince yourself.
