Col. A. K. McClure has obtained a controlling interest in the Philadelphia Press, and will edit that journal after the 1st of January.

The Col. says the politics of the paper will be like the people, "independent."

Severe Storms. From various parts of the country come reports regarding the damage done by the storm of last Monday. At Philadelphia, Trenton, Baltimore and New York, the storm was very severe causing more or less loss of property.

The Catholic church, Disbler female institute, recently finished, many of the finest residences, both of the flouring mills, and the most substantial brick dwellings in town were destroyed.

The mayor appeals to Huntsville, Louisville, Nashville, Memphis and adjoining towns, in the following terms: "Nearly half our town is in ruins."

The President has also received the following request: "Tuscumbia, Ala., November 23.—To His Excellency, U. S. Grant, President of the United States: Last night this town was visited by a tornado which destroyed a large portion of its houses, which are levelled to the ground; ten persons were killed, and, as a consequence, destitution prevails to an extent that no language can express."

The desired aid was refused by the President as he had no authority.

Who will be the Legal Owner? An island two acres in extent broke loose in a gale a few days ago in St. Louis Bay, and floated down into the bay at Duluth, landing at Allen's ship-yard.

A Remarkable Adventure. About five weeks ago a son of Dr. W. H. Eldridge of Boston suddenly disappeared, and was not heard from until last Saturday. The boy says that on the evening of Oct. 19, as he was leaving the apothecary store on Bunker Hill street, where he was employed, he was approached by a man who informed him that a fire was raging in the vicinity of Chelsea bridge, and asked him to go down and see it.

Flood in the Suburbs of Elizabethport. The meadows between Newark and Elizabeth on the branch of the Central New Jersey Railroad are inundated by the high tide and heavy storms. Over one thousand tons of hay stacked on the meadows has either floated away or been ruined by the water which stands from six to ten feet deep over an area of two miles long.

A Man's Arm Found. On Thursday the left arm from the elbow down of a man was found in the closet of a basement lager beer saloon at No. 199 Prince street, New York, by the bar tender, Charles Lieman.

Singular Accident. Newark, November 27.—An accident occurred this morning at Clark's thread works here by which the operatives will be partially suspended for six weeks and over. Three hundred operatives, mostly females, in the spinning department will be thrown out of work.

Charged with the Murder of her Child. Freemansburg, Pa., November 27.—There was great excitement yesterday over the reported stealing of the infant of Allen Goss from its cradle during the night.

A Bride in a Fix. A Brooklyn bride's back hair fell down and fell off during the ceremony in church the other evening. There was an instant pause, but nobody was brave enough to stoop down and pick up the mass of blonde stuff and hair pins.

The Law requiring drinking places in London to close at midnight is rigidly enforced. At some of the theatres the performances have usually lasted until later.

Four Persons Frozen to Death. Dunville, November 24.—The schooner Augustus Ford loaded with grain, went ashore at Port Maitland last night. Four of the crew were frozen to death.

Miscellaneous News Items.

A roof is supposed to be caving in around in the wilds of Minnesota. It blew off a school house a month ago, and nobody has seen it since.

An earthquake shock alarmed the citizens of Salem and Newburyport, Mass., Tuesday, rocking houses and rattling crockery.

The Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company on Saturday suspended operations in all its collieries but ten.

A five year old young America was sent to jail in Easton on Monday last, for stealing cigars, which he smoked. From the jail he will be sent to the House of Refuge.

Greensburg has just been afflicted with a genuine case of miscegenation, a colored "man and brother," black as the ace of spades, having led to the hymenial altar a young white girl.

A man at West Waterville, Maine, offered to lay the plastering of the Methodist vestry if a clergyman would carry the mortar. The clergyman consented, and the work goes on briskly.

"Everything goes wrong," says an Illinois farmer, wiping his eyes. "The grasshoppers come, the hired man breaks his leg, wife died, the barn burned, and I've rid for three days and can't find a woman who wants to marry."

Brooklyn, November 19.—The motion for a bill of particulars, asked by Beecher's counsel in the suit brought against him by Tilton, has been denied by Judge Reynolds. Judge McCune dissents from this decision, but as the Court is a tie, the original order by Judge Neilson is affirmed, and no bill will be given by Tilton.

On the 20th ult., the daughter of Mr. Young, 11 years old, living at Hall's Springs, six miles from Baltimore, was seized by an unknown white man while passing through the woods near her house, and outraged her so seriously, that there is but little hopes of her recovery.

A negro named Shell attempted to commit a nameless crime on a young lady at Rutherford College, N. C. Sunday night. Alarmed at her screams, he tried to make his escape through the window whence he had gotten in, when she caught him by the leg and held him until assistance came.

Ellen Larrabee, an Illinois farmer's daughter, just missed being a heroine, seeing her father's barn on fire, she got a pail of water, ran toward the blaze, and fainted on the way. The barn was destroyed, and her father, rating her intentions by the low standard of her failure, warmed her shoulders with a strap.

At Titusville, on the 23rd ult., four masked men broke in the door of James Breed, a farmer, and demanded his money. He replied that he had none, and they then tied him to a lounge and afterward put his feet in the fire to compel him to disgorge. They ransacked the house and then made their escape.

There is a good deal of doubt yet whether Joseph Buzzle is the man who murdered Susan Hanson of Brookfield, N. H., a few days ago. Miss Hanson was one of the principal witnesses against one West, who was convicted, a dozen or fifteen years ago, of burning the farm buildings of John Churchhill, and as he was recently pardoned out of State prison, the people are wondering if he didn't have something to do with the murder.

Foreign Items.

Chillian advices state that an unusually heavy earthquake was felt at midnight on the 26th Oct., in Valparaiso and Santiago, stopping clocks and cracking the walls of churches and other buildings. The duration was about thirty seconds.

An explosion of fire damp occurred on the 16th ult., in the coal mine at Rotherdam, county of York, causing fearful loss of life. Fifteen miners were taken out dead and many more are seriously injured. There is great excitement at the scene of disaster.

Florence, November 16.—A frightful accident has occurred on the railroad between Bologna and Acona, attended by heavy loss of life. Two passenger trains collided while going in different directions. Both trains were wrecked, and thirty-five persons were killed and injured. The cause of the accident is not stated. The line was blocked for several hours by the ruins.

The Law requiring drinking places in London to close at midnight is rigidly enforced. At some of the theatres the performances have usually lasted until later. So fixed is the habit there of quaffing after the play that confusion had been the result, a part of the audience leaving in the middle of the last act rather than miss their drink. The managers are abridging their pieces to meet the requirements of popular taste.

Four Persons Frozen to Death. Dunville, November 24.—The schooner Augustus Ford loaded with grain, went ashore at Port Maitland last night. Four of the crew were frozen to death.

Strange but True.

In September last, Governor Hartraft published a notice stating that a certain person in South Carolina had in his possession a ring, with the initials T. H. M. Height, of the one hundred and ninety-first regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers, and that the original owner was supposed to have enlisted from Huntington county. This ring was taken by a confederate soldier from the finger of a Union soldier, and recently the former brought it to a jeweler at Anderson Court House, South Carolina, to have it made smaller. The jeweler bought it, and thoughtfully sent word to Governor Hartraft, who advertised the fact as stated. Lately Mrs. Susan Height, of Cassville, Huntington county, received this ring, as also the particulars of the death and burial of her husband, to whom it belonged.

A Drop of Joy in every Word.

Flemington, Hunterdon Co., N. J., June 20, 1874. Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.: Dear Sir—It is with a happy heart that I pen these lines to acknowledge that you and your Golden Medical Discovery and Purgative Pellets are blessings to the world. These medicines cannot be too highly praised, for they have almost brought me out of the grave. Three months ago I was broken out with large ulcers and sores on my body, limbs and face. I procured your Golden Medical Discovery and Purgative Pellets, and have taken six bottles, and today I am in good health, all those ugly ulcers having healed and left my skin in a natural, healthy condition. I thought at one time I could not be cured. Although I can but poorly express my gratitude to you, yet there is a drop of joy in every word I write. God's blessing rest on you and your wonderful medicines is the humble prayer of Yours truly, JAMES O. BELLIS.

When a medicine will promptly cure such terrible eating ulcers and free the Blood of the virulent poison causing them, who can longer doubt its wonderful virtues? Dr. Pierce, however, does not wish to place his Golden Medical Discovery in the catalogue of quack patent nostrums by recommending it to cure every disease, nor does he so recommend it; but what he does claim is this, that there is but one form of blood disease that it will not cure, and that disease is cancer. He does not recommend his Discovery for that disease, yet he knows it to be the most searching blood-cleanser yet discovered, and that it will free the blood and system of all other known blood poisons, be they animal, vegetable or mineral. The Golden Discovery is warranted by him to cure the worst forms of Skin Disease, as all forms of Blotches, Pimples and Eruptions, also all Glandular Swellings, and the worst form of Scrofulous and Ulcerated Sores of Neck, Legs or other parts, and all Scrofulous Diseases of the Bones, as White Swellings, Fever Sores, Hip Joint and Spinal Diseases, all of which belong to Scrofulous diseases.

Stone and Earthen Ware.—The subscribers, proprietors of the Juniata Pottery, near Newport, desires to give notice that they are keeping up a full variety of stone and earthen ware, and are prepared to promptly fill orders for all goods in their line at low prices. Post office address, Newport, Perry Co., Pa. M. & T. MILLER.

Dr. D. H. Sweeney, at New Bloomfield, Pa., in his treatment of diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Heart, Nasal Cavities and Ears, uses the approved treatment of Enlightened Physicians of the present age.

A SUBSTITUTE FOR QUININE.

For years, Quinine was regarded as the only specific for malarious diseases, and immense quantities of this drug were annually consumed throughout our western country, more particularly along the river bottoms and adjoining low lands. With the fall months malaria, in all its varied forms, stalks like an epidemic through the land, and whole districts are prostrated with chills and fever, the entire population shaking with ague.—Heretofore, quinine was regularly resorted to; but while it frequently failed to effect a cure, it invariably deranged the stomach, producing nausea, vertigo and fugitive pains in the head to such an extent that months elapsed ere the system recovered from its effects. These objections to its use were so marked, that the introduction of Miehler's Herb Bitters was hailed as a triumph in medicine. Infinitely more certain in its beneficial effects than quinine, it possessed none of the demerits of that drug. Instead of nauseating, it tones and invigorates the stomach, and while speedily expelling the noxious humors, increases the appetite and facilitates digestion, thus rendering the system stronger, and better fitted to resist the attacks of disease. In fact, a judicious use of Miehler's Herb Bitters at this season of the year, will prevent the recurrence of this disease, even in those who have never passed an autumn without it. An experience of twenty years proves it to be the greatest ANTI-MALARIAL known to medical science.

There are, perhaps, no diseases so subject to climatic changes as affections of the Kidneys—hundreds of our farmers, mechanics, and laboring men, strong and hardy in all other respects, suffer continual inconvenience, and occasionally excruciating pains in the back and across the loins, experience a frequent desire to pass water, pain in its passage, and frequent stoppages in its flow. These are manifestations resulting from one strain or heavy lift (perhaps years ago), and aggravated by every change in the weather. Every slight cold leads direct to this one weak spot, and unless promptly attended to the disease becomes chronic, and the once strong man a miserable wreck. Miehler's Herb Bitters is the only certain remedy for this class of diseases. It has a peculiar tendency to the kidneys, stimulates them to healthy action, and removing the cause, prevents the formation of brick-dust deposits, which, if permitted to continue, will by cohesion form gravel atoms, necessitating a painful operation for its removal. Many of the ingredients entering into its composition, are universally recognized as specifics for all complaints of the urinary organs. In Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, all disorders of the bowels, and affections of the Throat and Lungs, it is equally certain and efficacious; while, as a remedy for the complaints peculiar to the female sex, it has no equal. LADIES, old and young, marred by the action of life, will find this GREAT FEMALE REMEDY prompt, safe, certain and reliable. The pale, sallow complexion is replaced by a blooming, healthful countenance, and its occasional use enables Nature to perform her functions REGULARLY AND WITHOUT INTERFERENCE. Sold only in bottles by all Druggists and General Dealers. August 11, 4th fl.
