The Report of the proceedings had at the Teachers' Institute, will be found complete on the 2nd page.

A Heavy Snow .- On Sunday morning the ground in this vicinity, was found to be well covered with snow, which was then rapidly falling. All day long it came down fast, and by five o'clock when the storm seemed to be over, fully 12 inches of snow was on the ground.

The Weekly Witness, published at New York, is the cheapest religious weekly we have yet seen. Although the subscription price is only $1,20 per year, the paper compares favorably both in size and editorial ability, with any of the religious journals in the country. We don't see how the publishers affords such a paper for the price asked, but it is done somehow.

Serious Loss by Fire .- On Thursday evening about 6 o'clock, the barn belonging to Mr. Samuel McKee, located a short distance above Andersonburg, was found to be on fire. When the fire was discovered it was too late to save any property in the building. A large straw stack close to the barn helped to spread the flames more rapidly, and prevent any approach to the buildings. The amount of property destroyed was quite large, consisting of 4 work horses, 2 colts, 11 head of cattle and several sheep, all the harness, tools, wagons and farming implements, besides the entire crop of the past season, comprising 400 bushels of wheat and a large quantity of corn, oats and hay.

It is not known how the fire originated, but in no other way can the fire be accounted for except that it was the work of an incendiary. Loss about $4,000, reduced by an insurance of $1,000 in the Home Mutual.

Horse and Buggy Stelen .- On Thursday evening a horse and Buggy belonging to Mr. D. M. Bernheisel, of Sandy Hill, was stolen from the school house near Centre church. When the property was missed, it was traced as far as Elliottsburg, when the trace was lost. On Friday morning Mr. B., came to this office and had bills printed and circulated, describing the animal and the vehicle, and offering a reward for the recovery of the property.

We subsequently learned that on Friday morning, about daylight, a horse answering the description of the stolen animal was found standing in an alley in Ickesburg. The horse showed the marks of the harness and had evidently been hard driven, but not even the bridle was on him when found. The buggy was found on the mountain a short distance from Ickesburg, on the road leading to Juniata county, but up to the time our informant left Ickesburg the not been found. Why the thief should take such a circuitous route and then abandon the horse in such a manner is rather strange. Some persons think the one who drove the horse away was the one who caused the fire at McKee's barn, about an hour and a half previous, and took this means to get out of that part of the county.

Pincky.-Gen. John Winn, of Licking creek notoriety, who was scotched but not killed, is still a locum tenens of that region. He now resides in a new mansion right on the line of Mifflin and Juniata counties, (one-half in each county,) so that hereafter it will take two constables or two sheriffs, as the case may be, to secure him on ordinary writs. His love for that wilderness seems unbounded, and the same perseverance in any other cause, which he has exhibited in his up and down career for many years, ought to have made him a man of mark as well as wealth .- Lowistown

Highwaymen.-About eleven o'clock on the night of the 3rd inst., whilst Mr. Wm. Galbraith was on his way home from Birmingham to Sinking Valley, he was confronted by three unknown villains in the bridge between Birmingham and the Pa., R. R. depot. They demanded that he surrender to them the horse on which he was riding. He made a desperate resistance, and during the struggle he was stabbed in the right side, fortunately, however, not seriously. Depredations of this kind are said to be of quite frequent occurrence in that vicinity .- Huntingdon Monitor .

The Way to do It,-This is how they treat the "tramps" at the Lancaster co., poorhouse : "No tramp can get a single meal without first doing one hour's work. Tramps quarried all the stone for the new almshouse, and in addition they quarried $300 worth for Lancaster city, with that amount still remaining on hand for sale. The excavation of the new almshouse was dug mainly by tramps, and they are now engaged at leveling the ground in front of the new building, about twenty of them being employed at that work. If they are sick, however, they are kindly cared for and are not required to work." If some arrangement could be made so that the chaps who seek lodging in the jail in this borough could be compelled to work, it would be a great saving to the tax payers. Even if the work was of no ndvantage to the public, it would soon reduce the number of applicants, for many of them have a holy horror of honest labor. Over one hundred were furnished accommodation at this jail during the past month.

Brief Items.

On Saturday evening a week, a bench broke down during service at Young's Church, in Carroll twp., and suddenly de-posited a number of young men on the

On last Friday morning, while the hands were casting at Marshall Furnace, the roof of the casting house took fire from the sparks, and before the flames could be checked, the roof was burnt off. No more casting could be done until a new roof was put on; but a heavy force was put to work in repairing the damage, and in a very short time the work was completed and the furnace is going on again as well as ever.—

Persons who ride behind a horse belonging to Mr. Grier, in this borough, have a custom of getting out of the buggy in a very sudden manner. On Tuesday last the barber, who considers himself somewhat of a horseman, thought he would show how easily that horse could be managed. One minute by the watch, was all the time it took him to go across the square and get out of the vehicle. The hostler who was with him, got out very shortly afterwards, and fortunately neither was hurt.

Cumberland County .- From the Cumberland county papers of last week, we

One day last week while Mr. S. P. Peffer. of Dickinson twp., was returning home from his brother's, he met with a severe acci-dent. The horse he was riding atumbled and fell upon his leg breaking it near the

On Monday of last week, Mr. A. J. Morrison killed for Mr. Asbury Derland, of Boiling Springs, a hog 28 months old, which weighed 620 pounds clean meat.— Live weight, 750 pounds. This is the heaviest hog that has been killed in the county this season.

One night last week, the premises of Mr. Henry Wolf, wagon-maker, on North Han-over street, were entered by nocturnal prowlers, who carried off twenty-five chickens from the poultry house. Not being satisfied with their booty, the invaders paid a second visit to the place, and made a clean sweep, taking feathers and all, making in all thirty-eight chickens stolen in the two nights. Mr. Wolf had gone to some trouble to recent some trouble to prepare a trap near the coop, hoping thereby that the thleves might be frightened off, but it was of no avail. This is some of the boldest thieving we have ever heard of.

We learn that a most distressing and fatal occident occurred, on Monday last, at Krider's Mill, situated on the Conodoguinet, near Plainfield, and in West Pennsboro' township, this county. The particulars, as near as we can ascortain them, are that Mr. Simon Maybers, the miller that Mr. Simon Mayberry, the miller, was engaged in oiling the machinery on the upper floor of the mill when it is supposed that his clothing caught in two small cog wheels and the unfortunate man became entangled in the machinery. An appren-tice on the lower floor, noticing the slipping of the cogs, at once ran up stairs to see what caused the incorrect working of the machinery when a most horrible eight met his gaze—the mangled and lifeless re-mains of Mr. Mayberry. The boy at once mains of Mr. Mayberry. The boy at once stopped the machinery and alarmed the neighbors who, with great difficulty, extricated the unfortunate man. His body was almost severed below the ribs and a terrible gash back of the left ear was discovered but, strange to say, no bones were broken. Mr. Mayberry had been miller at this mill about fifteen or twenty years a sober and industrious man, and respected by all who knew him. He was about 40 years of age, and leaves a wife and two children to mourn his untimely end.

Juniata County .- From the Midlintown papers we copy the following :

Abraham Robrer, Esq., of Bealtown, Tuscarora township, slaughtered a hog one day last week which weighed when cleaned five hundred and fifty pounds. This puts old Tuscarora abead in the hog

Two geutlemen, one residing in Port Royal and the other living in Turbett township, went a deer hunting last Mon-day to the thicket in Black Log and re-turned to their homes on Friday. Not succeeding in killing any deer, they were determined to have some kind of game to bring home; so on their way back they stopped at Mr. Wm. McFadden's, in Turbett township, and secured his consent to let them shoot one of his turkeys. After firing four different times, the gentleman from Port Royal succeeded in killing two at once on the last shot. This was more than he bargained for and more than he wanted. But he had to take them both.

Yesterday evening a week since, the Lutheran Church at Licking Creek was broken into by thieves and the contribution boxes rifled, and the cover of the communion table taken. May the thief in whose possession it is, every time he sees it, think of the crucified thieves near two thousand years ago. Red Bank school house was entered the same night, and the tap-bell and clock of the institution stolen.

Magazine," is just received, ahead, as usual, of all others. "As Good as a Mother," the principal steel-plate, is one of rare beauty. "Even Unto Death," is an unusually powerful story, by Frank Lee Benedict, illustrated by another first-class steel engraving. The double-size, colored steel fashion plate, and the Berlin pattern, the latter printed in ten colors, are alone worth the price of the number; but beside these, there are about forty wood engrapesade these, there are about forty wood engravings, with music, stories, novelets, poetry, &c. This Magazine claims to be both the cheapest and best. The torms are but two dollars a year to single subscribers, postage free, with great reductions to clubs, and superb premiums, including an extra copy of the Magazine, to persons getting up clubs. Specimens are sent gratis, if written for, to persons wishing to get up clubs. Address Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

The New York Observer, published by S. I. Prime & Co., 37 Park Row, N. Y., comes to us in an entire new dress, and is one of the ablest, religious journals in the country. It is metropolitan and comprehensive, and apart from its pecular religious views, abounds in literary matter of the very highest order. Dr. Prime, the principal editor, will be remembered as the writer of those remarkably interesting European letters ever the signature of "Ireneus," and the value which attached to them has not in the least diminished in his cubsequent writings. It is not necessary to more than allude to this excellent publication, however, as its reputation is established wherever American literature has a name. Big Invention.

Lioyd, the famous map man, who made all the maps for General Grant and the Union army, certificates of which he published, has just invented a way of getting a relief plate from steel so as to print Lloyd's Map of American Continent—showing from ocean to ocean —on one entire sheet of bank note paper, 40 x 50 inches large, on a lightning press, and colored sized and varnished for the wall so as to stand washing, and mailing anywhere in the White Wheat,(new) 1 35 & 145 stand washing, and mailing anywhere in the world for 25 cents, or unvariahed for 10 cents. This map shows the whole United States and Tarritories in a group, from surveys to 1875, with a million places on it, such as towns, villages, mountains, lakes, rivers, streams, gold milnes, railway stations, &c. This map should be in every house. Send 25 cents to the Lloyd Map Company, Philadelphia, and you will get a copy by return mail.
