THE POST.

MIDDLEBURG, FEBRUARY 24, 1870.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

COURT commences in this place next Monday.

EVERYBODY wanted at the Selinsgrove Hardware Store, to learn where they can buy cheapest for cash.

QUITE a number of persons in this place and vicinity who have ice-houses, are taking advantage of the present cold snap, to secure a supply of ice.

OUR citizens were reminded that last Tuesday was Washington's birthday by the ringing of bells and the parade of Co. A., Snyder county militia.

THE name of the Lycoming County Mutual Insurance Company is to be changed to the "Lycoming Fire Insurance Company."

SALEM & STEININGER have just received a new stock of Violins, Accordeons, Violin Strings, &c., at their Music Store in Selinsgrove, which they offer at very low prices. Give them a call.

IT is rumored that the Reading Railroad company propose to commence the rebuilding of the bridge at Fort Trevorton the coming spring. This looks as if this enterprising company intends to push its road further west than Port Trevorton.

THE LITTLE CORPORAL FOR MARCH is a rich number. We do not see how it can possibly be improved, but the publishers promise great improvements during the year. It is a most beautiful juvenile magazine. One dollar a year Issued at Chicago, Ill., by Alfred L Sewell & Co.

THE house of P. M. Teats, Esq., in West Perry township, was robbed a few weeks ago. The occurrence took place on Sunday while Mr. and Mrs Teats were visiting his brother in the same township. The thief effected an entrance by opening a window with an axe, and took $25 in money besides some valuable papers.

WALK UP.—Henry Benfer Esq. the Assistant Assessor for this county, has commenced his Annual Assessment through the county. All persons in business, who have, or have not incomes, that are taxable, will now have the pleasure of making his acquaintance. So walk up gentlemen and make your returns.

"THE CRAMP."—This disease is becoming quite prevalent in this neighborhood, and can now be ranked as contageous. Most everyone is cramped up just now to find the necessary scrip to liquidate their obligations. By each one endeavoring to pay what he can, the disease can be abated to a great extent.

THE new fifty cent notes, which we were told could not be imitated have been counterfeited so accurately that the government officials cannot tell the difference between the spurious and genuine stamps. We allude to those with the Lincoln head; the flat has gone forth that they must all be called in, and no more of that kind will be made.

LEGAL.—The decision of the court below in the campmeeting case from Chapman township against Marks, was sustained by the Supreme Court. In the pauper case between Lower Augusta township, Northumberland Co., and the borough of Selinsgrove, the decision of the court below was sustained, and Moses Wesley Wallace, the colored boy, will hereafter be a charge upon said township.—Times.

MORE GOODS.—Mr. Samuel Foust is just opening a new stock of Cloths, Cassimeres, &c., at his Merchant Tailor shop in Selinsgrove. The latest styles of all kinds of goods are included. Those who desire to be up to the times should go to Foust's and examine his stock. Mr. Foust is also agent for the celebrated Groover & Baker Sewing Machine—one of the best machines in the country

AUCTION! AUCTION!—Great Sale of Ready-made clothing, Hats and Caps, new Government clothing, Gents Furnishing goods, notions, &c., &c., in the room formerly occupied by Dr. Schwan, next door to the Court House, in this place, commencing on Monday Feb. 28, and continue every day and evening during the week. Sale to commence at one and at seven o'clock P. M. All to be sold without reserve to the highest bidder. J. D. MARSH.

SELL & SCHNOUR, whole sale dealers in Brandies, Wines, Gins, Whiskeys, &c., &c., Womelsdorf, Berks county, Pa., have on hand a large stock of the best brandies in the country which they sell at reasonable prices. Prompt attention is given all orders.—The above named gentlemen have had a large experience in the business and ware to give satisfaction. Retail dealers throughout the country will find it greatly to their advantage in making their purchases from this firm Mr. S. is known as a gentleman of sound integrity and prompt in all his business transactions. Try them.

GONE WEST.—Messrs. Philip G Royer, formerly of this county, who was visiting his Pennsylvania friends, and Ammon H. Bowersox, of Franklin township, latelely a clerk with Wagenseller and son, "took up their beds" and went westward, on Monday last. Mr. Royer left this county several years ago and located near Bellevue, Ohio, where he owns a fine farm and every convience to make him comfortable.—Mr. Bowersox has gone out on a prospective tour, and wherever he locates will meet with success. We had not a more exemplary young man in Snyder county. He is courteous, affable, energetic, and possesses in an eminent degree, intuitively and by a long

TOO MUCH LUCK.—Our neighbor, John Youngman of the Gazette, has, since entering upon the matrimonial state, been re-appointed Superintendent of State Printing, by Gov. Geary. This is rather to much good luck, neighbor, in so short a time. Editors are not used to such prosperity.—Sunbury American.

IT APPEARS that the claims on file in the Auditor General's office, for damages from the rebel raid, amount to about two million dollars. These claims, which it is proposed to make the State pay, have been collected by commissioners, at the expense of many thousand dollars to the commonwealth. None of the claimants have appeared in person, but numbers of lawyers from the border counties, have visited Harrisburg. If it be true that scores of these claims have been bought up for small figures, or that large commissions are to be paid for collecting them, the facts have not yet been openly proven. The friends of the bill to make the State pay these large amounts are using efforts to convert members to their views.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—About half past ten o'clock on Monday night, the Pennsylvania Rolling Mill was the scene of a terrible accident. William Longford, the oiler, was caught in the machinery and had his left leg torn from his body. John Marks, Thomas T. Jones and perhaps several others witnessed the sad scene without the power to aid the unfortunate man. He was conveyed to the residence of his parents on Welsh Hill. Drs Snyder and Ogilby were promptly called before removal from the mill but he was beyond the reach of medical aid, except to soothe his fleeting moments. He was perfectly conscious on Tuesday morning, and died at a quarter before six o'clock on Wednesday morning, nearly thirty two hours after the accident. He was unmarried, a native of Wales, and about 22 years Old.—Danville American.

A WONDERFUL story is going the rounds of the papers, in regard to the discovery of a mammoth cave near Bellefonte. The Watchman of that place publishes a particularly graphic description of it, and it seems a pity to spoil a story so well told. But the Bellefonte Republican enlightens us upon the subject, in this wise:

We advise Editors outside of Bellefonte, not to place too much reliance on the stories published about the discovery of a wonder mammoth cave near this place. The aforesaid cave not being large enough for a cheap boy of five years of age, to crawl into it ten feet from its mouth. In fact, it is nothing but a vacancy in the rocks, which is often found where limestone abounds. Those who first made the "wonderful" discovery, and afterwards published it, are in the habit of seeing many things not visible by other mortals, unless completely saturated with Benzine tangle foot.

ACCIDENT.—Major Henry A. Smith, of this Borough, received several slight injuries, yesterday afternoon, by reason of his horse running away. The facts are as follows: He had gone to his farm near town for the purpose of hauling a load of wood, whilst in the woods his horse became frightened, ran away and threw him against a tree cutting him about the head and otherwise bruising him badly. We hope he has not sustained internal injuries which may result fatally.

DIED.

On the 14th inst., at McKees Falls, Jennie May, daughter of H. E and Eliza Wetzel, aged 2 years 6 month 3 days.

Jennie May was truly a dear little girl but how true it is, "death loves a shining mark" Her stay on earth was short, yet long enough to make many friends and to leave behind many sad hearts when it was said that she is dead. But Jennie is at home now—and although we have some reason to feel sad, yet I think we have more reason's to rejoice, she is "not dead but sleeps"—fond parents, sisters and brotherly dry of thy tears of sorrow and say with the psalmist—"wherefore should I fast; can I bring him back again; I shall go to him" (2 Sam. 12:23).

May God sanctify this sad bereavement unto the good of all. D

On the 22d inst., Sarah E. daugter of Benery and Elen Benefer, of Franklin township, aged 2 years 7 months and 14 days. But a few weeks ago we chronicled the death of their little son who was killed by the falling of the roofing timber.

It is made of the choicest leaf grown; it is not worn out in its effects, as the Nicotine has been extracted; it leaves no disagreeable taste after smoking; it is very middlish in color and weight, hence one pound will last as long as 2 of ordinary tobacco. In this brand we also pack cakes every day of first quality Merschaum Pipes. Try it and convince yourselves of it all it claims to be, "THE FINEST OF ALL."
