

THE POST. MIDDLEBURG, MAY 12, 1878. CROISE & BENEF, Proprietors.

A TOWN STORY.—An old fellow who never yielded the palm to any one...

Don't mind the patch.—Don't be a-bamed, my lad, if you have a patch on your elbow...

Enthusiasm quenched.—At an enthusiastic religious meeting among the negroes in Blount county, Tennessee...

There is a man in the vicinity of Cedar Key, Florida, who has twenty-two children living...

A young lady met in company a young gentleman who evidently had an excellent opinion of himself...

A family in Florida lost their little boy, and they advertised for him in the daily paper...

Know ye the printer's hour of peace? Know ye an hour more fraught with joy than ever flourished by the Maid of Grace...

POOR PREACH.—An Indian who had been converted and commenced preaching, upon being asked how much he was paid, replied, "Fifty cents for each sermon."

That's mighty poor pay," said his friend. "Yes," said the Indian, shaking his head thoughtfully, "but mighty poor preach."
