

THE POST.

MIDDLEBERG, ... JUNE 27, 1870.

SNYDER COUNTY REPUBLICAN TICKET.

- JOHN R. PARKER, OF PENNSYLVANIA. ANTHONY L. SIMPSON, OF PENNSYLVANIA. ... BENJAMIN T. PARKS, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

GOVERNOR GRANT'S recent address to the people on the subject of the Sinking Fund securities has met a warm response from good men of all parties throughout the State.

HON. JOHN B. PARRIN RE-SIGNATED.—At the Republican Primary Election of this county, Union and Northumberland, Hon. John B. Parker has been unanimously re-nominated for Congress.

Closing Up.—The N. Y. Herald is a leading article on the Republican party after referring to the mistaken idea of those who think the party is above all to pieces from disintegration.

Great Fire at Reading.—Reading, June 26.—The most disastrous conflagration that ever visited this city took place this morning, involving the entire destruction of the new and extensive car shops of the Reading Railroad Company.

Great Excitement in Bannerville.—The citizens of Bannerville, Pa., are greatly excited by the prospect of a new school house to be built in that place.

Robbery.—A robbery was committed in the city of Philadelphia on the 24th inst., by a man named James Smith.

Penitentiary.—The Clinton Democrat gives the following: Quite a remarkable instance of human longevity came to the attention of Mr. S. G. Wight, a few days since.

Legislative ticket is simply desirable.—As before stated, the Republican Legislative ticket, with two or three exceptions whom the people have marked, is one superior to what is generally offered by either party.

Letter From Sellersgrove.

Mr. KERRON.—Selling a wonderful article of representations and distortions, written by "Spectator" in the Times, and being also an observer of the exercises to which he alludes, we would desire, through the columns of your highly prized paper, to make a few remarks.

First he says "many one would be enabled to prevailingly meet his opponent by a series of songs and rhymes, recited in all periods." This is intended as a slur on the Philo paper and the evening of contest, but it is down widely of its desired mark.

Next he says "many one would be enabled to prevailingly meet his opponent by a series of songs and rhymes, recited in all periods." This is intended as a slur on the Philo paper and the evening of contest, but it is down widely of its desired mark.
