THE POST.

MIDDLEBURG,.....OCTOBER27 , 1870.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

IRVIN SMITH, of this place, has purchased a third interest in the Lewisburg Shoe Factory.

OCTOBER and November are the best months in the year in which to plant fruit and ornamental trees.

THE Milnorian and the Muncy Luminary, two of our best exchanges, are to be enlarged. We are glad to witness this evidence of their prosperity.

WE learn that some of the farmers living in this vicinity have lost a number of fat hogs lately, by some unknown disease.

PHYSICIANS recommend the use of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer to prevent grayness, and to heal eruptions of the scalp.

THURSDAY, November 24th, has been set apart by the President of the United States as a day of Thanksgiving.

LOOK out for a man representing himself to be an agent of the Pennsylvania Steam Dental Association—Neighboring papers tell bad stories about him.

PUBLIC SALE.—On Saturday, Nov. 12, Dr. J. M. Wallis will sell, at his residence near Richfield a lot of household and kitchen furniture, live stock, &c. See posters.

WE would direct the attention of the editor of the Selinsgrove Times to the three issues of our paper immediately preceding the election, to show what we said in relation to the Border Raid and Railroad swindles.

THE Williamsport Gazette & Bulletin says that a mortgage has been placed on record in the Recorder's office of that county, by the Catawissa Railroad Co., for $1,300,000, on which is placed $1,300 in revenue stamps.—This is the largest mortgage ever executed in that county.

THE report that Hon. Simon Cameron had been stricken with paralysis at Baltimore, on Friday last, we are happy to state, was not needed. He became ill-disposed while in the above named city, and immediately returned home. He has since we are glad to say fully recovered.

PROF. DAVENPORT, the eminent Executionist and greatest Facial Lecturer, will treat the public with one of his delightful entertainments in the Court House Saturday, evening 29th inst. Having witnessed Prof. Davenport's performance last Monday evening we know whereof we speak, when we say that his efforts to please and instruct are always successful. Don't fail to go and see him.

NEW PAPER.—We have one copy of "The State Journal," a new Republican daily recently started at the State Capitol by the Harrisburg Printing Association. It is a 28 column paper, neatly printed, and edited with more than ordinary ability. Persons wishing a live daily or weekly newspaper, replete with all the news of the day, systematically arranged should secure that paper. Price of daily by mail, $3 per annum, weekly, $2 per annum.

THE grading, &c., of the Lewisburg, Centre & Spruce Creek Railroad from Lewisburg to the western boundry of Mifflinburg, which had been abandoned by Harris & Black, the contractors, has been re-let to Lambert J. Vandyke and Henry H. Vandyke, of Lock Haven, Pa. They are experienced contractors, and have already entered upon the work which will be pushed ahead rapidly with a strong force.—If the weather permits the greater part of the work will be completed this fall.

THE following Borough officers were elected at the last election:

Chief Burgess.—William H. Beaver. Town Council.—A J Specht, G. A. Schoch, Philip Smith, Gabriel Beaver, John Motz. Assessor—Jacob S. Smith. Assistant Assessors—Aaron Renninger, Peter Frain. School Directors—John A Stahlnecker, Emanuel Schoch. Judge of Election—George Motz. Inspectors of Election—J. P Smith, Waldo Wittenmyer. Overseers of the Poor—Albright Swineford, J. Steininger. Constable—James P. Smith. Auditor—Henry J. Smith.

WEIDENSAUL'S BLOODED HORSES.—Mr Weidensaul's blooded horses on exhibition at our late fair added very materially to its interest and in bringing it up to the standard of County Fairs generally. We rarely see four horses together so well developed and showing such wonderful muscular power and endurance. The French-Canadian stallion is a 'perfect picture' of a horse, only three years old, and is as well developed as a horse of seven years; has a powerful neck, broad chest and legs of bone and muscle.—A span of beautiful Black horses of the same strain, was also exhibited by Mr. Weidensaul. This span of horses, though above medium size, is well adapted to all uses; their lofty carriage, high metal, preferred color and fine training makes them admirable, and would please even Bonner of New York or grace the Imperial Stud of France. The fourth and equally valuable animal on exhibition was a fiery, English blooded bay mare, which was taken on the course and would have outstripped all competitors, but a Danville Jew who knew the mare was high strung and could be excited, baffleed and caused to break by hallooing and a free use of the whip, took advantage of these means and succeeded in unjustly taking from her the first premium for speed. Mr. W. did not exhibit his stock for the purpose of drawing premiums, but to contribute his share to the interest and success of our fair. He deserves a great deal of credit for his efforts to improve the stock of this part of our State, because it needs improving very much.

PETER'S MUSICAL MONTHLY for October contains the following choice collection of Music, printed from full-size music plates.

Truly Yours—Song and Chorus by Hays. Papa, come help Me across the Dark River—Song and Chorus by Persley. The World is full of Beauty when the Heart is full of Love Song by Von Smit. Eyes of Loving, Laughing Blue—Song and Chorus by Philip Phillips. We won't leave the Farm—Song and Chorus by Persley. Cast thy Burden upon the Lord—Quartet. Speak the Truth—Quartet. Halte Militaire, or Camp Polka. Falling Leave Polka. Christine Nilson's favorite Schottische—and Floating Breezes Valse Sentimental.

This Magazine is invaluable to all lovers of Music, and single piece of the above being worth as much as is asked for the entire lot. It is published monthly by J. L. PETERS, 599, Broadway, New York, at $3 per year.

Sample copies mailed on receipt of thirty cents.

JOSEPH F. TUTTLE, D. D., President Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Ind., says "Our Father's House": Its illustrations are not only apt, but as facts they are very rich. There is scarcely a page where the eye does not detect some truth in history, or science, or some analogy between revealed truth and nature, which is well worthy of being retained for future meditation. The chapter on "Little Things" is full of facts which are calculated to delight and instruct. The illustrations of the locusts is one of rare beauty, and once read never to be forgotten. The book abounds in these striking passages, and after trial I have no hesitation in speaking of it as a most attractive and admirable book for private reading, but especially for being read aloud in the family. To put it in a hundred thousand families would be a great thing for the mind and hearts of multitudes. See advertisement.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure, (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Losses, Impotency, Mental and phisical Incapacity, Impediments to marriage, etc.: also, Consumption Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a Sealed Envelope, six cents.

The celebrated author in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
