

THE POST. MIDDLEBURG, NOVEMBER 17, 1870. TOWN AND COUNTRY.

A wild turkey weighing 17 1/2 pounds was shot by Ned Middleburgh, in Massena Valley, last week.

Nearly all the merchants of Selingsgrove have agreed to close their places of business next Thursday, (Thanksgiving day).

A fine lot of fall and winter goods has just been received by Messrs. Wagenseller & Son, at their store in Selingsgrove.

We learn that Calvin Parks, a laborer on the R. R. Bridge at Selingsgrove, fell from the top of that structure a few days ago. He was pretty badly cut about the head but not fatally injured.

New Goods, cheaper than ever, at the store of H. Rich & Brover in Bannerville. The highest cash price paid for country produce, and goods sold cheaper than the cheapest. Call and see.

Our neighbor Thomas Bower has a pen of porters consisting of five Chester Whites which if kept until the holidays will net at least 2000 lbs. Our farmers would be well compensated by following the example of Mr. Bower in procuring superior farm stock.

Rev. H. A. Cleveland Pastor of Christ M. E. Church, Philadelphia, in speaking of "Our Father's House," says: "I take great pleasure in recommending this instructive and fascinating book to my friends, and, as far as I may, to the general public. See an advertisement in another column."

We invite attention to the advertisement in another column of the "Great American Tea Co. of New York City." The hint to parties to get up clubs is worthy of notice. This company has been established for ten years, and their numerous patrons give them credit for reliability, promptness, and fair dealing, and all testify to the excellent quality and low prices of their goods. As they warrant all their goods to give satisfaction or refund the money and expenses, no risk is run in sending them an order.

As it is going the rounds of the papers in this section charging the death of an excellent young man, broken heartedness by the misdeeds of a young lady in this place, the parties may have been engaged, or ought to be, but it was not the withdrawal of this young lady's affections which caused his death, nor do we believe that it was hastened by reason of it. The young gentleman died of a disease of the lungs, and, if we are rightly informed, his dying hours were alleviated by her presence.

WE have no hesitation in recommending to our readers Hall's Vegetable Hair Renewer as a sure cure for dandruff, and to restore the natural color of the hair.

THE CHEAPEST of Ladies' Magazines. BECAUSE IT IS THE BEST! It has always been the care of the publisher to combine in its pages whatever is interesting, useful, and entertaining to the ladies of this country. It is published in the month of January, and contains the most valuable variety of dresses and articles for ladies in demand at the present time; children's dresses; amusements, etc. etc. There is also a great variety of useful designs given in the work department.

THE BOYS AND GIRLS.—The Schools of this Borough will open next Monday, and it is to be hoped that all the pupils who intend to go to school this winter will be ready to start in on the morning of the first day. We copy the following sound advice from the Lewistown Gazette, for their special benefit: Have you got your books ready or are they scattered about the house like loose feathers? Better take Saturday next for gathering them up, cleaning your sashes, fling ink-bottle getting torn backs stitched—because if you put these things off until the morning school begins you will be compelled to have it all done in one or two hours, and then you may grow impatient or angry at delay, and you will go to school late and grumbling the first day. Some boys hint they would rather do anything than study, and begin school and end it with improving much, because they are on the road which block-ads travel. Other boys, and girls too, look up a life as one great play-time, and such when school begins; but you must be more manly than that, and act a braver and more cheerful part. Some old folks will keep telling you that you must employ every hour in study, and teach you that every moment not employed in learning from books is wasted; but they do not mean all they say by that. You know work is play when it is done cheerfully, and what they mean is that when you have school to go to you must study willingly, and play between times. These older folks, whom we respect as our fathers and mothers, uncles and aunts, and grand-parents also have not forgotten how they once loved to romp, fly kites, roll hoop and toss, and for those were their happiest days. And as they have passed over life's playground, just as you are passing over it now, so you must take advice from them as to what is best for you. As all work and no play will make you dull, so all play and no work will make you dumb. Learn to love both work and play. While in school study hard, and you will enjoy the sports the more when you get out. Be obedient to your teachers, and kind to your schoolmates, doing unto all as you would have them do unto you. Will you try?
