

THE POST.

MIDDLEBURG, JANUARY 12, 1877.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

We learn that Mr. John Dry shot a large black bear, near Adamsburg, yesterday.

Now is the time to buy—Just received from New York, a new stock of the best make of German Suspenders, which can be bought cheap at Salem Brothers' Music Store, in Selinsgrove.

ACTING—R. D. Clark, merchant at Troyville, intends to dispose of his entire stock of store goods at auction. The sale will commence on Saturday the 14th inst., and continue every subsequent Saturday until all the goods are disposed of. See posters.

WANTED—One hundred model men to call at Salem Brothers' Music Store, in Selinsgrove, to examine their splendidly-toned Parlor Organs and Melodions. A liberal manual treat will be given free gratis.

Gray hair may be made to take on its useful color and beauty by the use of Hall's Vegetable Sulfur Hair Renewer, the best preparation for the hair known to the science of medicine and chemistry.

Rev. D. DANIEL, D. D., President of Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa. In speaking of "Our Fathers House" says: It is full of practical religious instruction. The spirit of true devotion tones its beautiful lessons. My children say—"It is beautiful and good."

People have been so hampered with dirty, poisonous hair preparations, that they hail with delight the new article styled NATHER'S HAIR RESTORATIVE. Clear and crystal, and it does the work most effectually. See advertisement.

ENTERTAINMENT—A Musical Entertainment by the Freeburg Vocalists, under the instruction of Wm. Meyer, assisted by the Freeburg Glee and String Bands, will be given in Bover's Hall on Saturday evening the 21st inst. Tickets 25 cents. Proceeds to be applied to the purchase of a Church Organ.

Tax Sayer County House Insurance Association met at Salem on the 21st inst. and elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing year—President, Charles Miller; Vice Presidents, John W. Gensharing and H. D. Fisher; Secretary, Henry Meyer; Treasurer, John K. Hughes.

The trial of Thomas J. Boyer, for the murder of his father, mother, brother and sister, in the Perry county Court, closed on Monday. After being out three hours and a half the jury returned a verdict of "Not Guilty." On the charge of forgery, the prisoner was held to $1000 bail.

The Freeburg Courier, Bloomfield Times, Lewisburg Times Democrat and Bellefonte Republican reached us last week enlarged and otherwise improved in appearance. The latter is now an eight page paper as very neatly gotten up. We are pleased to witness this evidence of prosperity on the part of our contemporaries.

We see by our exchanges that PETERS & TUX WARE STORE, which we have several times commended to our readers, is having an immense sale, at which we are to be prized, for the book is worthy. We are informed that a full regiment of agents, thousands strong—is already engaged to sell, and that the work this fair to the great literary success of the day. A. H. HERRMAN, Philadelphia, Pa. is the lucky publisher.

The following named gentlemen have been elected officers of the Snyder county Agricultural Society for the present year: President, Thomas Boyer; Secretary, Daniel S. Boyer; Corresponding Secretary, T. J. Smith; Treasurer, Allen Schuch; Librarian, C. L. Fisher; Geologist, J. P. Conzeller; Chemist, T. R. Kutz; Vice Presidents, Wm. Mackley, Moser, Krebs, M. L. Hassinger, J. B. Hall, J. S. Haxinger, Abner Eyer, John Strub, H. J. Ritter, George Moxiz, Jacob Schuch, J. G. Graybill, Stephen Gumberger, J. K. Davis, S. J. Schell, Geo. Hilliard.

SCHINER'S MAGAZINE.—We have received the January number of this paper. It is decidedly a first class literary magazine and is filled with a vast amount of useful and entertaining matter. Contents: Fairmount Park, Kings of the Air, The Goblins of the Ice, Tartarus, Dream Music, The Christmas Carol, Lily Feet, Mrs. Christmas, Natasson. Terms of Postage Prepaid by the Great Powers. How we Escaped War with Spain, Ships, The Flight of the Birds, The Northern Lights, Strasburg After the Surrender, Wilfrid Cumbermede, To my Wild Sic, A Christmas Eve in Germany, Topics of the Times, The Old Cabinet, Home and Society, Books and Authors at Home, Eschings, Christmas Carol.

Subscription price $3.00 a year. Ad dress SCHINER & Co., 654 Broadway, New York.

REFERENCES.—Why is it, asks the New Jersey Mechanic, that there is such a reputation on the part of parents to put their sons to trade? A skilled mechanic is an independent man. Go where he will, his craft will bring him support. He need ask favors of none. He has literally his fortune in his own hand. Yet foolish parents—ambitious that their sons should rise in the world, as they say—are more willing that they should study for a profession, with the chances of even moderate success, against them, or run the risk of spending their money in the ignominious trade of retailing dry goods, or toiling laboriously at the accountant's desk, than to learn a trade which would bring them manly strength, health and independence. In point of fact, the method they choose is the one least likely to achieve the advancement aimed at; for the supply of candidates for positions as errand boys, dry goods clerks, every description, is as notoriously beyond the supply. The crying need of this country today is for skilled labor; and that father who neglects to provide his son with a useful trade and to see that he thoroughly masters it, does him a grievous wrong, and runs the risk of helping to increase the stock of idle and dependent, if not vicious, members of society. It is stated in the report of the Frisco Association, lately issued, that of fourteen thousand and five hundred and ninety-six prisoners confined in the penitentiaries of thirty States, in 1877, seventy-seven per cent, or over ten thousand of the number, had never learned a trade. The fact conveys a lesson of profound interest to those who have in charge training of boys and girls, too, for the active duties of life.
