

A Puzzled Dutchman.

One who does not believe in immersion for baptism was holding a protracted meeting, and one night preached on the subject of baptism. In the course of his remarks he said, some believe it necessary to go down into the water, and come up out of it to be baptized. But this he claimed to be a fallacy, for the proposition "into," of the Scriptures, should be rendered differently, as it does not mean into at all times. "Moses," said he, "we are told, went up into the mountain, and the Saviour was taken into a high mountain, etc. Now we do not suppose that either went into the mountain, but upon it. So with going down into the water, it means simply going down close by or near to the water and being baptized in the ordinary way, by sprinkling or pouring."
