THE POST.

MIDDLEBURG.....FEBRUARY 18, 1871.

A Lawyer Sold.

A day or two ago a talented young lawyer of a neighboring city, whose name is not Smith, and whose briefs have been like angel's visits, was delighted in finding in his office a richly dressed lady, who announced her desire to employ him professionally. With a beaming smile that could hardly be restrained from bursting into a full-blown laugh, the young Blackstone handed the lady a cushioned arm chair, and he assured her that he was "entirely and devotedly at her service." Seating herself in the proffered office chair, the lady ungloved a small white hand that literally glistened with diamonds, and applied a Suez-scented handkerchief to her lips, blushed, and, casting her eyes upon the floor said:

"My business is very particular—it is—pardon me, sir, but you will not betray me?"

"Betray you? Not for the world madam. You can confide in me with the same reliance as in a priest at the confessional."

"The fact is—I want—that is I have been unfortunate in my marriage relations."

The eye of the lawyer glistened with pleasure, and, drawing his chair close to the side of the lady, he remarked:

"I see—I see—you want a divorce. I am just the man to get it for you. I am perfectly au fait in matters of this kind, although I have never had a case of this kind in court. How long have you been married?"

"Nine years."

"Nine years! You must have been very young when you entered that blissful—I mean wretched state."

"I was a mere child—a foolish, inexperienced school girl. A doting mother placed me in the arms of a man old enough to be my father; but he was rich, and for two or three years I did not know the difference. I was as happy as though my husband had been twenty years younger.—But association with other married women opened my eyes, and I became wretched. I pined for—well, for a heart that was more congenial than my own. A man of your age, now, would have suited me better."

"Exactly so," exclaimed the lawyer, rubbing his hands and twisting his incipient mustache. "But your sufferings will soon terminate. I will get you a divorce, and then—"

"Oh dear me!—and then—but I must not be too sanguine. My husband is very rich, and he will never let me get a divorce if he can help it."

"Madame you don't know the law—its majesty—its glorious certainty—its magnanimity. Consider yourself divorced, and rest easy."

"Well, sir, how shall I proceed?"

"Let me see—in the first place, give me a statement of your grievances."

"That would take a whole week. You can imagine what a woman like me must suffer with such a husband."

"Yes, yes—cruel and barbarous treatment—condition intolerable—neglect, and all that sort of thing. I will just jot down a few of the items. Your name is—"

"Mrs. ———. You must know my husband."

"What, the merchant? He's rich as Crœsus."

"Yes, he's rich; but I don't care for his money—I want a divorce."

The lawyer wrote down a sketch of the lady's matrimonial infelicities, and assured her that he would have no difficulty in procuring a divorce, with at least $10,000 alimony.

"How much are you going to charge me for making me so happy?" inquired the lady.

"Well I ought to charge you a thousand dollars, but out of consideration for your sufferings I will only take a retainer of $100, and when it is accomplished you will increase it to $500."

"That is extremely reasonable. I have no change about me now, O, yes here is a check for $200 that my husband gave me to-day to go shopping. I will only want half of it to-day. Will you get it cashed for me?"

"It is after bank hours, but the check is all right. I will give you $100 for your shopping and keep the check."

The lawyer had that day received a remittance of $100 from his father, and handed it over to the lady, and placing the check in his pocket book, bowed his client to the door. He was excessively happy at his good fortune and that night dreamed of angelic clients, sensational divorce cases, and a huge pile of $100 bills.

The next morning he went to the bank to get his check cashed, and was thunderstruck when the teller informed him that the name of Mr ——— was forged. Indignant at the thought that his fair client had been guilty of so base a crime as forging her husband's name, he hurried to the store of Mr.——— with the intelligence that his client had been guilty of forgery, and was still more astonished when Mr.——— informed him that he was a widower, and had not been blessed with a wife for more than ten years.

Young Blackstone was seized with a fit of melancholy, which still affects him, for all his efforts to find the fair swindler have proved unavailing he has come to the conclusion to have nothing to do with divorce cases and has written to his father to send him another $100 bill to replace the one he gave his client for a bogus check.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

J. S. BURKHART,
Selinsgrove, Snyder Co., Penna
Keeps constantly on hand a large and well made assortment of Tin, Sheet-iron ware, Stoves, &c., &c.
He is Agent for the following named articles.

"THE MORNING GLORY."
Littlefield's Patent Improved Base
COAL STOVE.
In this pattern of THE MORNING GLORY, several new and important features have been embodied, which can only be seen to be admired. This new stove is made entirely of cast iron, so fitted as to be air tight, but can be made with sheet-iron upper section when preferred by the purchaser. Its ornamental finish is drapery, making it a handsome piece of furniture, far more so than any stove heretofore made. Its internal construction, though resembling some of the former patterns of The Morning Glory is quite different, making it more durable, and far less difficult to be repaired. The castings are of the highest order, fully equaling the finest castings made in this country.
Among the many ADVANTAGES in the use of the Morning Glory are the following:—1, Continuous Burning. 2, Quality of the Heat. 3, Ventilation through the stove 4, Anti-Dust Stove. 5, No Escape of Gas 6, Economy of Fuel.

"THE BARLEY SHEAF."
Anti-Dust Air-Tight Cooking Stove, with Extended Fire-Box for Wood or Coal.
Patented May 16th, 1865.
We take pleasure in offering our customers and the Stove Trade, a New first-Class Flat-top, and would call particular attention to its many attractive and valuable improvements.
This Stove has been carefully tested for several months, and the results have proved so highly satisfactory, that several of our oldest and most experienced stove dealers predict for it a sale far beyond our ability to supply this season.
Sliding front fire-doors, giving full use of the hearth.
An additional slide in the oven, so arranged as to give more room in the upper part of the oven; a great convenience much needed
The oven is nearly as wide at the top as at the hearth line, which not only increases the size, but will be recognized as a great advantage in baking.

DOTY'S CLOTHES WASHER.
The best, cheapest, and most popular Washing Machine ever invented.
It is easy to operate, sitting or standing takes but little room; injures no garments finishes its work from in two to four Minutes; is durable and convenient; and the only Washing Machine known that is liked the better the longer it is used.

THE UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER.
The "GREAT FAMILY ECONOMIZER."
The terms of our Patent call our Machine a "Wringer." Years of experience prove it also to be A MOST EXCELLENT WASHER.
When we reduce every invention for washing clothes to a principle they all assume to that of pressing and squeezing, and forcing the water through them, thus removing the dirt. Most Washing Machines do it by rubbing. The Universal Wringer does it by pressing.

The Great Medical Discovery!
Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR BITTERS,
Hundreds of Thousands
Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.
WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE
FANCY DRINK,
Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.
For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.
DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.
Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.
They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.
FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.
Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.
PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually

Ayer's
Hair Vigor,
For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is, at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of soiling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and frequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can do no harm but may benefit but not harm it. If wanted only for a
HAIR DRESSING,
nothing else can be found so desirable. It contains neither oil nor dye, yet does not soil the finest cambric, and yet lasts long in the hair, giving it a rich glossy appearance and a grateful perfume.
