

THE POST.

MIDDLETOWN, MAY 21, 1871.

MEETING OF THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY COMMITTEE.—The members of the Republican County Standing Committee of Snyder County will meet in the District Attorney's office, in the Court House, Middleburg, on Tuesday, May 23, 1871, at 10 o'clock P. M. Punctual attendance is requested, as business of importance is to be transacted.

D. B. MOYER, Chairman. J. Y. SHINDEL, Secretary.

THE SENATORIAL AND REPRESENTATIVE DELEGATES chosen by the Republican Standing Committee of the different counties of the State, will assemble in the Hall of the House of Representatives at Harrisburg, on Wednesday next, to nominate candidates for Auditor General and Surveyor General.

THE END OF THE PARIS REVOLT is drawing near. One position after another has been wrested from the insurgents. Fort d'Issy is now in the hands of the Government, and a number of other forts now in possession of the Commune will soon follow, and then hand to hand conflicts and street massacres will constitute the bloody finale.

THE CONTRAST in the Illinois and Pennsylvania Legislatures. The entire number of bills passed by the former body during its recent session was only fifty eight, while, notwithstanding several hundred bills have already been passed by our Harrisburg Solons, yet yet remain over seventeen hundred on the calendars of each house.

IT IS VERY SIGNIFICANTLY remarked by the Cincinnati Gazette that the people who worship "the time honored principles of the Democratic party," claim that the way to stop the Kuklux outrages is to put the Democratic party in power.

AMONG THE bills recently passed by the Legislature is the following, which having received the official sanction of Governor Geary, has become a law: SECTION I. Be it enacted, etc. That from and after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful for any person in this commonwealth to sell liquors or give away to be used any spirituous or malt liquors, wine or cider, or any other substance containing alcohol, on any day set apart, or to be set apart, for any general or special election by the citizens or within any of the precincts, wards, townships, counties, or other election divisions or districts in the commonwealth.

THE PENNSYLVANIA CAMPAIGN FOR 1871. We have two very important officers to elect in this State, this year, namely Auditor General and Surveyor General. Both these positions are now ably filled by Republicans, men twice elected to their offices; wherein they have given the very largest satisfaction. Can we fill their places? This is the important question of the period, and we must not disguise it in any manner.

CONNECTION DEMOCRACY has degenerated sadly by its proximity to New York, and in corruption and bare-faced fraud now fully equals Tammany. The telegraphic despatches have kept our readers informed as to the means by which it is sought to elect English after the people have decided in favor of Jewell. It will be remembered that in one of the New Haven wards a mistake or error, to be charitable, was discovered when the complete returns came to be footed up, by which there were actually one hundred more votes in the box than there were voters.

THE NEW HAVEN WARD mentioned above, was actually one hundred more votes in the box than there were voters. English being credited with the number. The correction of this error would have elected Jewell beyond all shadow of doubt, and without going through the formality of a contest.

WHAT WE MUST REMEMBER is, that we are dealing with important measures, and with thinking men who have votes. If these facts are taken into consideration, and the nominating convention is guided by their force, there will be no trouble to win a Republican victory next October.—State Journal.

PROCLAMATION OF THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—The President has issued the following proclamation for the enforcement of the fourteenth amendment:

By the President of the United States of America: A PROCLAMATION. The act of Congress, entitled "An act to enforce the provisions of the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and for other purposes," approved April 20, 1871, being a law of extraordinary public importance, I consider it my duty to issue this my proclamation calling the attention of the people of the United States thereto, enjoining upon all good citizens, and especially upon all public officers, to be zealous in the enforcement thereof, and warning all persons to abstain from committing any of the acts thereby prohibited.

PHILADELPHIA, according to the returns of the assessors for 1871, has 450 church edifices, more than 100 in excess of any other city on the continent.

IN PHOENIXVILLE, a little child fell into a well. A man went down the rope took the child's hair between his teeth and clambered out. It was a "hair breadth escape."

MR. JOHN GRAHAM, of Deaver county, a few days since, shot a large gray eagle in the act of carrying off a young lamb. The bird measured seven feet six inches from tip to tip of the wings and had a steel trap attached to one of its talons.

THE CONNECTICUT ELECTION returns are more confused to-day than they were the night after the election. Contradictory statements appear daily, and new developments are hourly made.

THE BORDER RAID CLAIMS passed the Senate by a vote of 17 to 15, after being amended so as to strike out all in regard to the payment of interest, to reduce the annual amount to be paid from $170,000 to $15,000, and to limit the time of the annual payments to five years.

THE RECENT DEMOCRATIC "victory" in New Hampshire, over which the opposition have since been shouting themselves hoarse with joy, doesn't turn out to be a decided victory after all.

BALLOU'S MAGAZINE for June has appeared with a list of contents which will tempt the most indifferent of literary epicures. There are some twenty six different articles in the June number, some of them handsomely illustrated.

DENE HOLLOW.—This is the name of a new story, by Mrs. Henry Wood the celebrated author of "East Lynne," just begun in the Philadelphia SATURDAY EVENING POST. It is a story marked by the characteristics of Mrs. Wood—combining great interest and power with the teaching of a moral lesson.

HIDDEN TREASURE FOUND IN MAINE.

Some time last week a stranger visited Small Point, having in his possession a chart of the coast and stated to one of the residents that he desired his aid in obtaining a large amount of money which was buried there.

THE SUPREME GRAND LODGE of the Knights of Pythias, in session at Philadelphia, has abolished the apron as a part of the regalia of the order.

THE METROPOLIS EXPLAINED AND ILLUSTRATED, is the title of a neat Guidebook for the City of New York, containing a full description and history of the Central Park, with fine engravings, a directory to all the churches of the city, the public buildings, banks, hotels, railroad depots, libraries, &c.; and a colored map of New York and Brooklyn.

MA. EDITION.—Allow me, through the columns of your paper, to announce myself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Representative, at the coming Republican Primary Election of Snyder County.

AT THE solicitation of many friends, I have been induced to announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the decision of the coming Republican Primary Election.
