THE POST.

MIDDLEBURG.....MAY 11, 1871

SCRAPS.

Something about women—Flounces.

He has hard work who has nothing to do.

A grain of prudence is worth a pound of craft.

Virtue and happiness are mother and daughter.

Wise men make more opportunities than they find.

Fine gold fears not the fire, nor solid stone the water.

He who spends before he thrives, will beg before he thinks.

Let your promises be sincere, and such as you can, carry out.

A man had better be poisoned in his blood than in his principles.

We must labor unceasingly to render our piety reasonable, and our reason pious.

Whenever you doubt whether an intended action be good or bad, abstain from it.

Only what we have wrought into our character during life can we take away with us.

He who pokes his nose everywhere, will sometimes poke it between a thumb and forefinger.

An apothecary sent in a bill to a widow which ran thus: "To curing your husband till he died!"

Wyoming must be a servant girl's paradise, for they get there $7 a week wages and the privilege of voting.

At the Salt Lake Theatre a pumpkin pays the admission of two people, and they get two carrots in change.

A Mr. Forbes has been shot for "personally insulting" the people of Cheyenne. He attempted to deliver a temperance lecture there.

Persons who are always cheerful and good humored are very useful in the world; they maintain peace and happiness, and spread a thankful temper amongst all who live around them.

A stone-cutter in Ohio has achieved immortality for himself by tracing on a fomb-stone the assertion that the little child buried beneath "was an angle on earth, and now she is an angle in heaven.

A Southern editor headed a leader the other day, "A cut and Dried Affair," and when he came to read it the next morning his piety was not in the least increased by reading, "A Cat and Dried Apple."

A mile or two from town a pedestrian met a boy on horseback, crying with cold. "Why don't you get down and lead him? That's the way to keep warm." "No," said the boy; "it's a b-b-b-borrowed horse, and I'll ride him if I freeze."

Our doctor's front door has not been properly painted, and ought, as his friends and patients tell him, to be be done over again; but he declines to let it be touched, assigning as his reason that it looks professional, being "blistered."

Good, kind, true, holy words dropped in conversation, may be little thought of, but they are like seeds of flowers or fruitful trees falling by the wayside, borne by some bird afar happily, thereafter to fringe with beauty some barren mountain side, or to make glad some lonely wilderness.

"Martha, my dear," said a loving husband to his spouse, who was several years his junior, "what do you say to moving to the Far West?" "Oh, I am delighted with the idea! You recollect when Mr. Morgan moved out there he was as poor as we are, and in three years he died, leaving his widow worth a hundred thousand dollars."

Not long ago a gentleman had occasion to reprove his little son, aged four years, for an offence which had on other occasions called forth words of correction. The parent closed with "Now Willie, I don't want to speak to you again about this!" which was promptly and very decidedly responded to as follows: "Well, pa, I dosen't want you to."

There is a man in Glen's Falls, New York, who won't believe any stories about the sagacity of dogs. He says dogs have not common sense. In proof of his assertion he relates how he poured kerosene on a dog and set it on fire just to have a little fun, and the dog actually ran under the barn belonging to him, and lay there and set the barn on fire, though the man whistled to him to come out.

A Western editor advertised that he would take "a good dog in payment for a year's subscription." The next day twenty-three dogs were taken to his office and two days afterwards, a score or more of farmers, living at distances of from eight to twenty miles appeared to subscribe for the paper, tendering dogs in payment. And to cap the climax, the mayor of the city has notified him that a tax of $1 must be paid on every dog owned in the place.

Harper's Periodicals For 1871.
THE PERIODICALS WHICH THE HARPERS PUBLISH ARE ALMOST IDEALLY WELL EDITED.
—The Nation, N. Y.

Harper's Magazine.
The great design of HARPER'S is to give correct information and rational amusement to the great masses of the people. There is no monthly Magazine an intelligent reading family can less afford to be without. Many Magazines are accumulated. HARPER'S is edited. There is not a Magazine that is printed which shows more intelligent pains expended on its articles and mechanical execution. There is not a cheaper Magazine published. There is not, confessedly, a more popular Magazine in the world.—New England Homestead.
At once the most popular and, in its scheme, the most original of our Magazines. * * * * All the periodicals which the Harpers publish are almost ideally well edited.—Nation.

"A complete Pictorial History of the Times."
Harper's Weekly.
The best publication of its class in America, and so far ahead of all other weekly journals as not to permit of any comparison between it and any of their number. Its columns contain the finest collections of reading matter that are printed. * * * Its illustrations are numerous and beautiful, being furnished by the chief artists of the country.—Boston Traveler.
HARPER'S WEEKLY is the best and most interesting illustrated newspaper. Nor does its value depend on its illustrations alone. Its reading matter is of a high order of literary merit—varied, instructive, entertaining, and unexceptionable.—N. Y. Sun.

Harper's Bazar.
Free from all political and sectarian discussion, devoted to fashion, pleasure, and instruction, it is just the agreeable, companionable, and interesting home paper which every mother and wife and sweetheart will require every son, husband, and lover to bring home with him every Saturday evening.—Philadelphia Ledger.
By all means buy HARPER'S BAZAR. Not for yourself, but for your wife, or daughter, or sister or sweetheart. There never was any paper published that so delighted the heart of woman. Never mind if it does cost you a new bonnet; it will save you ten times the price in the household economy it teaches.—Providence Journal.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,
For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever so perfectly adapted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.
They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.
Minute directions are given in the wrapper, on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—
For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.
For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.
For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.
For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.
For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.
For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.
As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.
An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
