

THE POST.
MIDDLEBURG, JUNE 19, 1871

A LAWYER'S FEE.—A story is told at the expense of a legal gentleman who was formerly well known at Norwich, Connecticut, who now lives in Os. Kosh. One Smith had failed in business and sold out, and having two or three tough little bills, had given them to this lawyer for collection. Smith went to the office to receive the proceeds. The amount collected was about $50. "I'm sorry you've been so unfortunate, Smith, for I take a great interest in you. I shan't charge you as much as I should if I didn't feel so much interest in you. Here he handed Smith $15, and kept the balance. "You see, Smith, I knew you when you were a boy, and I know your father before you, and I take a good deal of interest in you. Good morning. Come and see me again." Smith moving slowly out of the door, and ruefully contemplating the avails, heard to mutter, "Thank God, you didn't know my grandfather!"

WOULDN'T SEE IT STOPPED.—An old, weather-beaten trapper was wandering along the main street of one of our western villages, on a recent Sunday. Passing in front of a meeting house, for a moment he went in and took his seat among the congregation. The preacher was discoursing on the text of "The sheep and the wolves," and had evidently been drawing a contrast between the two subjects. Said he: "We who assemble here from week to week, and do our duty and perform our part, are the sheep; now, who, then, are the wolves?" A pause, and then the trapper rose to his feet. "Wah, stranger, rather than see the play stopped, I will be the wolves." The preacher pronounced the benediction at once.

NOR DESTROYED.—The Masonic fraternity throughout the country will be gratified to learn that the relics of General Washington, in the Lodge of Alexandria, were not destroyed by the great conflagration which devastated that place on the 19th of May, as previously reported. The valuable portrait of General George Washington (who was master of the lodge in 1791), painted in 1787, by Williams, of Philadelphia, the chair used by him as Master, the portrait of Lafayette, the magnificent service of glassware, the original charter of Lodge No. 22, dated in 1788, and the valuable relics so much prized by the fraternity, were saved. Andrew Jackson Lodge No. 120 has kindly tendered to Lodge 22 the use of their lodge-room, which offer has been accepted.

TRUTH IN BRIEF.—Anybody can soil the reputation of an individual however pure and chaste, by uttering a suspicion that his enemies will believe and his friends never hear of. A puff of the idle wind can take a million of the seeds of a thistle, and do a work of mischief which the husband man must labor long to undo, the floating particles being too fine to be seen and too light to be stopped. Such are the seeds of slander, so easily sown, so difficult to be gathered up, and yet so pernicious in their fruits. The slanderer knows that many a mind will catch up the plague and become poisoned by his insinuations, without ever seeking the antidote. No reputation can refute a sneer, nor any human skill prevent mischief.

TEN thousand dollars a minute is a good salary for a man, and that man not a prime minister, nor an emperor, but simply a horse-jockey. Yet this is what John Wells received on Wednesday last. He rode Baron Rothchild's colt for the Derby at Epsom, and won it; whereupon the Baron, overjoyed at his success, (for it has been his darling ambition, never hitherto gratified, to win the Blue Ribbon of the Turf) presented the rider with the stakes, amounting to £6,000 sterling, or over $32,000. As the race occupied a little over two and three-quarter minutes, it will be seen that the fortunate rider's time was worth $200 a second.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS.—A long nosed, thin shanked old maid appeared at the door of a farmer's wife in Iowa the other day, and wanted the farmer's wife to subscribe to some woman's newspaper, and sign a petition for woman's suffrage. The wife called out, "Charles, Tom, Richard, Lucy, Jane," and was soon surrounded by a crowd of rosy-cheeked children. She then turned to her visitor and said, "Have you any of these?" "No!" was the sharp reply. "Then," replied the buxom wife, "go get a few, and afterwards come to me about woman's rights, if you feel like it."

An Iowa school teacher has been dismissed for kissing the girls. The girls at the school board had no right to interfere with their studies in that Harper's Periodicals For 1871.

THE PERIODICALS WHICH THE HARPER PUBLISHERS PUBLISH ARE ALMOST IDEALLY WELL KNOWN.

Harper's Magazine.

The great design of Harper's is to give correct information and rational amusement to the great masses of the people. There is no monthly Magazine in the world which contains so much valuable and interesting matter as Harper's. It is not a Magazine that is printed which shows more interest in the welfare of its readers than Harper's. There is not a cheaper Magazine published in the world than Harper's. Harper's Magazine is the most popular and, in its scope, the most original of our Magazines. All the periodicals which the Harper Publishers publish are admirably well edited.

Harper's Weekly.

The best publication of its class in America, and far ahead of all other weekly journals as respects interest, variety, and entertainment. It is not only a weekly journal, but a complete library in itself. Its columns contain the best selections of reading matter that a paper can offer. Its illustrations are numerous and beautiful, being furnished by the chief artists of the day. Harper's Weekly is the best and most interesting of our Magazines. No one who reads Harper's Weekly can fail to be interested in it. It is a weekly journal of high order of literary merit—varied, instructive, entertaining, and unexcelled. N. Y. Jan.

Harper's Bazar.

Free from all political and sectarian discussion, devoted to fashion, pleasure, and instruction. It is just the agreeable, comfortable, and interesting domestic paper which every mother and every young lady requires. Every young woman who reads Harper's Bazar will find it a most valuable and interesting companion. It is a weekly journal of high order of literary merit—varied, instructive, entertaining, and unexcelled. N. Y. Jan.
