MIDDLEBURG.....JUNE 22, 1871

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

For Auditor General,

Col. David Stanton,

OF BEAVER COUNTY.

For Surveyor General.

Col. Rob't B. Beath,

OF SCHUYLKILL COUNTY.

COUNTY TICKET.

For President Judge,

SAMUEL S. WOODS.

[Subject to the decision of Union and Mifflin Counties.]

For Assembly,

WILLIAM G. HERROLD.

[Subject to the decision of the Conferees.]

For Treasurer,

JACOB GROSS.

For Commissioner,

ADAM J. FISHER.

For Auditor,

SAMUEL A. WETZEL.

OUR TICKET.

At the Republican Primary Election held last Saturday a large vote was polled. The convention of Return Judges met in the Court House on Monday. The ticket as there declared nominated, is an excellent one, and is as follows:

For President Judge, SAMUEL S WOODS, of Lewistown, the present incumbent was nominated. As Mr. Woods is only partly over the course, having yet to secure the sanction of Union and Mifflin counties to his nomination, we will refrain from saying much about him until that sanction is secured, as it will be beyond a doubt.

For Assembly we have WILLIAM G. HERROLD, of Union township. Mr. Herrold represented this county in the Legislature a few years ago, is well known throughout the county, and should Union county sanction his nomination he will receive the undivided support of the Republican party of this county.

For Treasurer JACOB GROSS of Beaver township was declared the nominee. This gentleman has already served the people of this county in the capacity of Treasurer, and his renomination is a high compliment to his popularity.

For Commissioner the almost unanimous choice of the people was for ADAM J. FISHER, of Penn township. Mr. Fisher is a very courteous, pleasant gentleman, of good business qualification, strictly honest, and in presenting him as a candidate for commissioner we feel confident of a wise and economical administration of the financial affairs of the county. His election by a handsome majority is a foregone conclusion.

For Auditor, the selection of SAMUEL A. WETZEL, Esq., of Beavertown, was wise and fortunate. He is a young man of fine abilities and excellent business qualifications, and is well suited for the office of County Auditor.

It now behooves every Republican to lay aside his individual preferences, and work and vote for the success of the whole ticket With such a ticket we cannot fail of success.

THE Democracy, says the Gettysburg Star & Sentinel, are to be pitied. They have been seen boxing the compass and tacking sails every campaign since 1863 to gain power, and with every change of tactics there was a change of creed. In 1864 they tried the "Peace-at-any-price" platform, built for them at Chicago by Vallandigham. In 1868 they substituted Frank Blair's revolutionary programme, asserting of the illegality of the Constitutional amendment and the duty of the people to disregard them. Last year in Pennsylvania, under Brick Pomeroy's lead, they went it strong on the hot shot "anti-nigger" line. But all failed to win. Growing desperate under repeated disasters and continued ostracism from office, they now turn their backs upon the various platforms of the past—pitch Pomeroy and his "hot shot policy" to the dogs—again invoke the council of Vallandigham, who bids them drop the "white-man's party" humbug, swallow "nigger" suffrage, and go it strong on the policy of "office at any price."

DEATH OF VALLANDIGHAM.—The Hon. Clement L. Vallandigham, who accidentally shot himself in the abdomen last Friday, died on Saturday morning. The manner of his death was remarkable. He was professionally engaged in the defence of a man accused of murder, and with a pistol in his hand was endeavoring to show a friend how the man said to have been murdered might have killed himself. He did not know that the pistol was loaded, and his illustration was more conclusive than he expected, for it cost him his own life. Mr. Vallandigham, as is well known, was a celebrated Democratic politician of Ohio, and his sudden death will be a loss to the Democracy of that State.

THE Philadelphia Press asserts that Pennsylvania is now as strongly Republican as ever, and that with a good ticket in Philadelphia and an active canvass, that party will carry the State in October by a large majority, and make it certain for Grant next year by a larger vote than it gave him in 1868.

General Legislation Of the Pennsylvania Legislature for the Session of 1871.

The following is a complete list of the general legislation of the Pennsylvania Legislature, for the session of 1871.

Senate 53, a further supplement to an act establishing a health office and to secure the city of Philadelphia from the introduction of pestilential and contagious diseases and for other purposes, approved the 29th of January 1818.
