THE POST.

MIDDLEBURG,.....JULY 20, 1871.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

HALL'S Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer never fails to restore the color of the hair. Try it.

THE Hebrews of Williamsport have determined to build a Synagogue in that place.

THE United Brethren Camp meeting will commence on the 9th of August, in Bower's grove, the same place it was held last year.

JOSEPH C. BUCHER, Esq., of Lewisburg, will be the Democratic candidate for President Judge in this Judicial District.

The School Directors of some of the townships are violating the law which renders it necessary to publish receipts and expenditures.

Two horses, one mule, and a favorite dog belonging to Mr. Thomas McGovern, of Beavertown, were burned by the fire in Lewistown on the night of the 1st inst.

THE act restoring the spring elections has been signed by the Governor, consequently no borough or township officers will be elected this fall in this county.

On the 8th inst., John Miller, of Gregg township, Union county, was robbed of seven hundred dollars in money and notes to the amount of $4,469.

THE Philadelphia and Reading railroad company employ about 3,500 men in their shops, mills, foundries, etc., in Reading, whose monthly pay amounts to $140,000.

JOSEPH PUHLIN, of Limestone township, Lycoming county, was so badly cut with a reaper, week before last, that he died on Tuesday of last week.

OAK HALL Clothing House is just now busiest place in America. We used to say "busy as BEES; now for a stronger comparison, we say, busy as W. & B'S.

Rev. William A. Haas, of Sunbury, accepted a call to the Selinsgrove Reformed Charge, consisting of five congregations viz: Selinsgrove, Zeibr's, Row's, Keiser's and Freeburg.

GODY'S LADY'S BOOK for August is already on our table, filled as usual, with interesting and instructive matter. The price of this valuable magazine is $3.00 a year. Address L. A. Godey, N. E. Cor. 6th and Chestnut Sts. Philadelphia.

BOARDING HOUSE.—Mr. J. F. Lilly, of New Berlin, will keep a boarding-house on the campmeeting grounds between New Berlin and Centerville during the continuance of the meeting. Lodging and meals furnished, and horses taken care of and fed, at reasonable rates.

"Ballou's Magazine" for August is already on our table, and has a brilliant list of contents that we do not wonder it is such a favorite with all classes of the community. It meets the popular idea of what a magazine should be. Published at $1,50 a year, by Thomes & Talcot, 63 Congress Street, Boston.

Jos. H. McCall and Wm. Searls, Jr., of Lewisburg, have leased the Vaukirk Hotel of Northumberland, and will take possession in a short time. These "boys" know how to keep a hotel, and if they don't make the Vaukirk House one of the most popular hotels in central Pensylvania the fault will not be theirs.

MEETING OF THE REPUBICAN STANDING COMMITTEE.—The Republican Standing Committee of Snyder county will meet in the Court House, in Middleburg, on SATURDAY, JULY 22th, 1871. A full turnout of the Committe is requested as business of importance is to be transacted.

J. CROUSE, Chairman.

DEMEREST'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE for August is replete with literary gems, valuable full sized paterns and designs for ladies' underwear, and other matters too long to catalogue here. The information contained in one issue of this valuable publication is worth many hundred times its cost of $3.00 per year. Published at 838 Broadway, New York.

ON A VISIT.—Dr. D. F. Swengle, formerly a citizen of this county, now of Freeport Illinois, is at present paying a flying visit to his friends in this vicinity. The Dr. looks well and his highly pleased with his western home. That he will be successful in building up a lucrative practice in Freeport there is not a shadow of doubt, for he understands his business thoroughly, is a perfect gentleman, and must succeed.

AGRICULTURAL NOTICE.—The officers and members of the Snyder County Agricultural Society are requested to meet in Middleberg, on Saturday, July 29th, at 10 o clock a. m., to receive proposals for the annual fair, fix upon the time, and transact other important business. The Officers and Vice Presidents of the different tps. are particularly requested to attend.

T. BOWER, President.
D. S. ORTH, Secretary.

We have received a copy of "Leffel's Illustrated Mechanical News," published at fifty cents per annum. Each number contains from eight to twelve illustrations, with a large amount of reading matter pertaining to all branches of Mechanical science. Published by Messrs. James Leffel & Co., Springfield, Ohio. This firm, already widely known as manufacturers of the celebrated Leffel Turbine Water Wheel, have now achieved an equal success as publishers in an important branch of periodical literature.

NEW WAY TO MAKE BUTTER.—An exchange states the following: Some of our farmers' wives should test the truth of the statement, which if true will prove a great gain to those who are engaged in butter making:

A few days since, Mary Hughes put about a quart of cream in a cloth bag, and buried it about two feet deep in earth, where it remained three days, when she disinterred it and found it transformed into pure, sweet, yellow butter, with not a drop of buttermilk to be seen. Mrs. Hughes thinks that cream will yield about one-third more butter by this process than by the old fashioned way of churning.

THE Troxelvill circuit of the Evangelical Association will hold a campmeeting in Mr. John Lower's grove, in Decater Township, Mifflin Co., about three miles west of Bannerville, to commence on the 10th of August. All who will conduct themselve becoming such a place are invited to attend. S. AURAND, Pastor.

A CHALLENGE.—To Gideon Amig, William Hughes, Lewis Snyder, and B. F. Kauffman, agent for the champion Machine:

GENTLEMEN, I hereby challenge you, or any one or more of you, to a contest between the DODGE REAPER and the CHAMPION. I shall select one person as Judge, you shall select another, and the two thus chosen shall select the third person, and these three shall be the Judges whose decision shall be final. The contest shall take place in a field of oats on the farm jot Reuben Gemberling, in Penns township, on Wednesday, the. 26th day of July, 1871. Each party shall put One Hundred Dollars in the hands of such person as the Judges, or a majority of them shall select, and the amount thus put together shall be the property of the party representing the reaper in whose favor the report of the Judges or a majority of them shall be. I also extend an invitation to all other Self-Raking Machines in the county to take part in the contest.

Yours Respectfully,
JOS. WESRICH.

Selinsgrove, July 15, 1871.

To Nebraska, California, and Kansas, and the B. & M. R. R. Lands.

The "Burlington Route," so called, lies right in the path of the Star of Empire. It runs almost immediately in the centre of the great westward movement of emegration. Crossing illinois and Iowa, it strikes the Missouri River at three points.

These three points are the gateways into three great sections of the trans-Missouri region.

The Northern gate is Omaha where the great Pacific road will take you to the land of gold and grapes, sunny mountains, and perpetual summer.

The Middle gate is Plattsemouth, which opens upon the South half of Nebraska, south of the Platte river, a region unsurpassed on the continent for agriculture and grazing. Just here are the B. & M. Railroad lands, concerning which Geo. S. Harris' the land officer at Burlington, Iowa, can give you all information and in the heart of them is Lincoln, the State Capital and Present Terminus of the road.

The Southern gate leads to Kansas by connections with the St. Joe Road at Hamburg, running direct to St. Joe and Kansas City.

The trains of the Burlington run smoothly and safely and make all connections. It runs the best of coaches, Pullman Palace and Pullman dining cars and should you ake the journey for the journey's sake alone, you will be repaid; or take it to find a home or a farm, and you cannot find either better than among the B. & M. lands, where you can buy on ten years' credit, and at a low price.

THE REASONS WHY.

Because it embodies essential principles not found in any other Machine; because of its simplicity of construction, ease of operation, uniformity, of precise action at any speed, and capacity for the greatest range and variety of work, fine or coarse.

Sew, sew, sew,
At morn, at noon, at night!
Work, work, work,
But never out of sight!
For great and small, for young and old,
In summer's heat, in winter's cold,
By midnight lamp, by midday's sun,
'Twas sew, sew, sew, but never done,
When Grandma sewed.

As it Is.

Buzz, buzz, buzz! why how the panties fly!
Oh, oh, oh! 'twould charm the dullest eye!
The legs are sewed, the waistband's on,
The buttons set—the pants are done!
And here's a pair for Sam and John,
And Charley, too, and little Dan.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Nervousness, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps.

Also Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents.
