JUNIATA COUNTY ITEMS .- From the Mif flintown papers we learn the following : On Tuesday afternoon the fine barn of John Patterson, Esq., containing his en-tire bay, wheat and oats crop for the pres-tire bay, wheat and oats crop for the present year, was entirely consumed by fire. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. Mr. Patterson's loss is very beary, and has the sympathy of the entire community. We trust the guilty one may be brought to punishment.

During the the thunder storm on Friday evening last, the barn belonging to John Woodward, in Besle township, was struck by lightning, and entirely destroyed, together with all this year's crop of hay, wheat and onts. A load of oats had just been bauled in before the storm came up. The oats and wagen were burned.
