glance at what true Odd Fellowship is.

"Odd Fellowship is a miniature representation, among a chosen few, of that fraternity which God has instituted among men. On the broad platform of brotherhood, all nations, parties, and sects can meet and freely mingle in offices of needed kindness and mutnal well-doing. Fraternity, therefore, is the corner-stone on which our forefathers based our Order. As all men have God for their Futher, all are brethren: and we would illustrate this great fact in all our offices of mutnal aid, relief, sympathy, and benevolence."

"Recognizing the Fatherhood of God. Odd Fellows bring not into a Lodge the classifications of human society without, no high, no low, no poor, no matlom, party or sect do we know among us. All are oue, all fellow men, all brothers. As one family we meet together, to counsel and aid in all fellow men, all brothers. As one family we meet together, to counsel and aid in measures for the relief of distress, for mutual instruction, watch-care and fellowship, and for the discipline and improvement of character. An altar dedicated to such offices must be served with clean kands and surrounded with pure hearts. All discord and surrounded with pure hearts. All discord and strife, all altenation of heart must be kept away from our meetings. And yet while we exclude all party and sectarian distinctions from our Lodges, we require no sacrifice of opinions, no loosening of obligations, the same direction will lead you to Wannaker. ame direction will lead you to Wansunaker & Brown's great Clothing Establishment.
