THE POST.

MIDDLEBURG..... SEPTEMBER 28, 1871.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

DON'T forget the Fair next week.

FALL Overcoats—All Colors at Wanamaker & Brown's.

A BEAUTIFUL dressing and invigorator of the hair is Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer.

W. H. BEAVER has just received a large and well selected stock of Fall and Winter goods, which he is selling rapidly. Call and see them.

COURT convened in this place last Monday, and adjourned yesterday. The fact that the civil cases were all continued accounts for the short term.

DAVID RENNER, alias Charlie Camp, was tried at the recent session of the Lycoming county court, for horse stealing, and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary.

FALL Overcoats—All Styles at Wanamaker & Brown's.

WE would not recommend the frequent or constant use of any medicine. It is important to take even a good article judiciously. Parsons' Purgative Pills are safe, prompt and reliable as a laxative or cathartic.

THE Republican Standing Committee is requested to meet at Selinsgrove next Tuesday, Oct 3d, at 1 o'clock P. M. A full turn out is requested as business of importance is to be transacted.

G. C. GUTELIUS informs us that he has just received the largest and best stock of clothing, Notions, &c., ever brought to this place. Suits for men and boys at remarkably low prices. Hats and caps of the latest styles. Call and see for yourselves.

BASE ball is undoubtedly good exercise and capital amusement, but it often occasions bunged eyes, broken skins and blistered hands. We can tell you that in all such cases, if Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is resorted to, it will reduce the swelling and stop the pain.

SINCE the meeting of the Democratic conferees in this place on Tuesday of last week, (the result of which we announced in our last issue) two more meetings were held and the contest for the nomination is still undecided. Major Cummings, however, is a candidate and doing his best to carry the district.

FALL Overcoats—Very Stylish at Wanamaker & Brown's.

A REPUBLICAN Campaign Club, of citizens of Middleburg and Franklin township, has been organized. Similar organizations are springing up in all parts of the county, and it is expected that through their influence a full Republican vote will be polled at the ensuing election. Keep the ball rolling and a complete triumph will be the result.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY for October presents itself with more than the usual attractions in Fall Fashions and other interesting and useful household literature. The inducement for clubs of subscribers offered by the publisher are wonderful, and can only be done by a first class Magazine. Yearly, $3.00, with a premium Published at 838 Broadway, N. Y.

MRS. MILLER, wife of Captain Lewis Miller, of Penns township, and Miss Mary Miller, daughter of George D. Miller, when on their way home from Kantz last Saturday, were thrown from the buggy and severely injured. Mrs. Miller was badly bruised and cut, and Miss Miller sustained a compound fracture of a leg.

QUICK WORK.—On Monday night George A. Weimer, a citizen of Rush township Northumberland county, broke into the store room of Ira Sayrs at Port Treverton and stole a number of articles valued at about $40 or $50. The next day he was arrested, bro't to jail in this place, and yesterday was tried, found guilty and sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the Eastern Penitentiary.

FALL Overcoats—Cheapest and best at Wanamaker & Brown's.

Captain Schleumbuck

who delivered a German address in the Court House last Tuesday evening, is doing valliant service in the cause of Republicanism. His speech was eloquent, able, to the point, well-delivered and was attentively listened to. The Republican majority at the ensuing election would be greatly increased by having a few more men like Captain Schleumbuck to address the people in the German settlements throughout the State.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK for October is on our table. It contains a very handsome steel-plate engraving, entitled "Nutting," which is followed by a colored Fashion plate of great artistic beauty. Then we have a great variety of engravings for patterns in lady's work; and the reading matter is of the most interesting kind. Terms $3 a year. Address L. A. GOT A COLD BATH.—The balloon ascension, which took place at the circus grounds on Saturday afternoon, at about one o'clock, was a fine affair—that is, the ascending part. But the descent of the seranaut was not so fortunate. The balloon rose to a great height, and sailed off rapidly. It was inflated with hot air. After sailing about half a mile in the air the balloon commenced descending at a rapid rate. It stopped in the middle of the river, a short distance below town, and the balloonist suddenly found himself in about five feet of water, with great danger of being drowned. He was rescued from his perilous position by boats sent to his assistance.—Lewisburg Journal.

WM. MOYER,
Sept. 20th, 1871. Co. Supt.

To Nebraska, California, and Kansas, and the B. & M. R. R. Lands.

The "Burlington Route," so called, lies right in the path of the Star of Empire. It runs almost immediately in the centre of the great westward movement of emegration. Crossing Illinois and Iowa, it strikes the Missouri River at three points.

These three points are the gateways into three great sections of the trans-Missouri region.

The Northern gate is Omaha where the great Pacific road will take you to the land of gold and grapes, sunny mountains, and perpetual summer.

The Middle gate is Plattsmouth, which opens upon the South half of Nebraska, south of the Platte river, a region unsurpassed on the continent for agriculture and grazing. Just here are the B. & M. Railroad lands, concerning which Geo. S. Harris' the land officer at Burlington, Iowa, can give you all information and in the heart of them is Lincoln, the State Capital and Present Terminus of the road.

The Southern gate leads to Kansas by connections with the St. Joe Road at Hamburg, running direct to St. Joe and Kansas City.

The trains of the Burlington run smoothly and safely and make full connections. It runs the best of coaches, Pullman Palace and Pullman dining cars and should you take the journey for the journey's sake alone, you will be repaid; or take it to find a home or a farm, and you cannot find either better than among the B. & M. lands, where you can buy on ten years' credit, and at a low price.

THE Novelty Clothes Wring'r

Nothing, except the Sewing Machine, has ever been invented which so much relieves the labor of the household as the Wringer. But its usefulness does not end here. The saving of clothing is of much greater importance. It is often remarked that articles of fine texture, last twice as long when wrung in a Wringer as when wrung by hand. The Novelty has Cog-wheels on both ends. * * The rolls are allowed to separate freely at either end. These, besides other advantages which it contains, seem to be indispensable to a practical wringer.—New York Independent
The Novelty Wringer.—Has become an indespensable institution in thousands of families. And we believe its great and increasing popularity is fully merited—for the Novelty evidently possesses all the requisites of a first-class, practical machine. Indeed, after using one for many months in our own family, we are prepared to indorse the Novelty as unsurpassed (the laundress says unequaled), by any of the several wringers previously tried.—Moore's Rural New-Yorker.

That it shall be the duty of each of the assessors within this commonwealth on the first Monday in June of each year, to take up the transcript he has received from the county commissioners under the 8th section of the act of 15th April, 1834, and proceed to an immediate revision of the same, by striking therefrom the name of every person who is known by him to have died or removed since the last previous assessment from the district of which he is the assessor, or whose death or removal from the same shall be made known to him, and to add to the same the name of any qualified voter who shall be known by him to have moved into the district since the last previous assessment, or whose removal into the same shall be or shall have been made known to him, and also the names of all who shall make claim to him to be qualified voters therein. Upon the completion of this work, it shall be the duty of each assessor as aforesaid to prepare, to make out a list, in alphabetical order, of the white free men, above twenty one years of age claiming to be qualified voters in the ward, borough, township or district of which he is the assessor, and opposite each of said names state whether said freeman is or is not a housekeeper, and if he is the number of his residence, in town where the same are numbered, with the street, alley or court in which situated; and if in a town where there are no numbers, the name of the street alley or court on which said house fronts; also the occupation of the person and where he is not a housekeeper, the occupation or place of boarding, and with whom, and if working by another, the name of the employer, and write opposite each of said names the word "voter," where any person claims to vote by reason of naturalization he shall exhibit his certificate thereof to the assessor; unless he has been for five years next preceding a voter in said district, and in all cases where the person has been naturalized, the name shall be marked with the letter "N," where the person has merely declared his intentions to become a citizen and designs to be naturalized before the next election, the name shall be marked "D. I.," where the claim is to vote by reason of being between the ages of twenty one and twenty two as provided by law, the word "age" shall be entered; and in the person has moved into the election district to reside since the last general election, the letter "R" shall be placed opposite the same. It shall be further duty of each assessor as aforesaid, upon the completion of the duties herein imposed, to make a separate list of all new residents made by him, and the amount assessed upon each, and certify the same immediately to the county commissioners, and the county commissioners shall add the names of said persons to the list of voters kept by them, and the same shall be certified by them to the several election boards of the districts in which they have been assessed.
