

THE POST.

HARRISBURG, OCTOBER 4, 1871.

For Governor, Hon. JOHN B. PACKER, OF SUNBURT.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET. For Auditor General, Col. David Stanton, OF BEAVER COUNTY.

For Surveyor General, Col. Rob't B. Beath, OF SCHUYLKILL COUNTY.

COUNTY TICKET. For President Judge, SAMUEL S. WOODS. For Assembly, WILLIAM G. HERROLD. For Treasurer, JACOB GROSS. For Commissioner, ADAM J. FISHER. For Auditor, SAMUEL A. WETZEL.

REMEMBER! That ONE VOTE may throw the control of the Legislature into the hands of the Democracy.

President Judge.

The Judicial question is an important one, and involves our personal rights, liberties and privileges, hence, we should weigh well the matter before we exercise our highest prerogative—that is the right to vote—let us vote away our rights and interests. It is a protracted office, running through ten years, and the duties to be discharged are of vital importance involving the highest interests of our people, hence, we should select a man who possesses all the requirements for a faithful discharge of the duties of the office. Should the person selected for the position be unsuited to the performance of its duties, through incapacity, or from any other cause, it may be easily judged what a decided disadvantage it would be to the entire community; how their interests would suffer in many respects—not merely for a year, but for the protracted period of ten years. This consideration should have great weight with each voter when he goes to cast his ballot for so important an office;—it should outweigh all his political feelings and prejudices;—it should eradicate from his mind every other feeling than the desire to secure the best legal ability, and the least likelihood of the incumbent being influenced by partisan or sectarian feeling.

In the present contest the voters need not act on this question ignorantly;—they have abundant opportunity to judge and compare—they have all the light necessary for the decision of so important a question.

Legal learning alone is not sufficient to constitute a good judge, but a well balanced mind free from prejudice and political bias is indispensably necessary to make an efficient judge—that law and equity may not be over ridden by prejudice.

That the Hon. S. S. Woods, the present incumbent, has for ten years past, performed the duties of his office with promptness and vigor, is wholly unquestionable; and that he will receive the undivided support of the Republican party in the present contest for re-election is beyond a doubt.

Assembly. Hon. Wm G. Herrold, our candidate for Assembly, is a gentleman of experience and ability, and will faithfully represent his constituents. It is our duty to give him the whole party vote so that the district may not be misrepresented by an incompetent imbecile old worn out politician. We have but four majority in the House of Representatives, and it is high time that we look to our interests and elect Republicans, in Republican districts, to represent us. Give Col. Herrold every vote.

Commissioner. Adam J. Fisher, of Penna, our candidate for Commissioner is in every respect well qualified for the discharge of the duties of the office to which he asks to be elevated. His unexceptionable character, integrity, popularity and intelligence eminently fit him for the public Trust, and commend him to the hearty support of all good Republicans. Give him a solid vote.

Treasurer. The office of County Treasurer is an important one, and should be filled by an honest, upright, fair-dealing man. Our candidate Jacob Gross is just the man, and an irresistible proof of this is the fact that on a former occasion he filled the office to the satisfaction of the entire people regardless of political prejudices. He will be elected by a rousing majority.

Auditor. S. A. Wetzel, Esq., our candidate for Auditor is a young man of excellent business qualifications, good character, and esteemed by all who know him. He will receive more than his party vote.

Vote the whole

Stanton and Beath. Col. David Stanton, Republican nominee for Auditor General, and Col. Robert B. Beath, nominee for Surveyor General, were both soldiers in the war for the suppression of the rebellion. Both are gentlemen of fine attainments, and excellent character. Even their political enemies have failed to give one good reason why they should not be elected. Both are good enough for any position in the gift of Pennsylvania. Republicans of Snyder give them a full vote on Tuesday next.

Constitutional Convention. In addition to the nominees to be voted for at the ensuing election, is also the proposed measure of a constitutional Convention. This is an important measure which should not be suffered to go by default. There are matters vital to the public interests involved in the question. Judicial reform, preventives to special Job Legislation, minority Representation, and many similar objects, call loudly for revision and modification by properly chosen and able body of men. These men can only be brought together by the urgent demands of the people. Let every Republican, therefore, who desires such a modification of our fundamental laws as will protect the rights of the public and of himself, as well as the treasury of the State from an annual swarm of hungry political gamblers and speculators, see to it that he votes "For a Constitutional Convention."

Here is the straight Republican ticket; before voting compare your ticket with it and then vote without scratching a name:

- JUDICIARY. President Judge, SAMUEL S. WOODS. STATE. Auditor General, DAVID STANTON. Surveyor General, ROBERT B. BEATH. CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION, FOR CONVENTION. COUNTY. Assembly, WILLIAM G. HERROLD. Commissioner, ADAM J. FISHER. Treasurer, JACOB GROSS. Auditor, SAMUEL A. WETZEL.

Two years ago Senator Dill carried Union county by 225 majority and the District by 1119; Snyder giving him 153 and Lycoming 741 majority. The bolting Republicans thereby gave the State Senate to the Democracy who have not reciprocated this favor. Union and Snyder now comprise the new Legislative district and any defection this fall will usually be received upon us and create trouble as long as we remain a district. Let all forego any prejudices that may have been entertained and as we start with a clear sheet let us keep a clear record. Having the Senate the Democracy are now trying to carry the House and opposition to Herrold can only result in favor of the Democratic pet scheme. Don't do it.—Mifflinburg Telegraph.

The Pittsburgh Gazette says, vigorous blows at the Democracy are being driven by some of the ablest Republican orators. The records of the two parties are being scrutinized as they never were before. The battle this fall will be one on finance, taxation and indebtedness. Rigid economy is everywhere the rule of Republicanism, whilst the grossest extravagance and corruption mark the steps of Democracy wherever they hold the power. Judge us by our records, and we will be satisfied. Under Republican rule debts decrease, taxation is lessened and economy in every department is insisted on; under Democracy, the reverse.

Who Resigned?—When it became absolutely necessary for the safety of the army of the Potomac, that Gen. McClellan be relieved of its command, and the loyal mass of both citizens and soldiers demanded that the President make such a change, did Gen. Grant propose to resign? Did Thomas, Meade, Sherman, Sheridan, Geary, Hooker or any of the great warriors then struggling to save the national life, indignantly sneathe their sword and send their resignation to headquarters? No! Who did? Gen. McClellan, the Democratic candidate for Auditor General.—Ee

The Democracy are greatly distressed that while the thieving Democracy of New York are so gloriously exposed, the Republican administration of Gen. Grant is paying off millions a year and reducing taxes in the same proportion. The Democracy make debts by extravagance and stealing, and that Republicanism pays off debts by honesty and economy is a fact that is fast hastening the Democratic party to its final dissolution.

A REPUBLICAN victory in Pennsylvania next Tuesday will be the individual achievement of the voters of the party, upon whom the work of the canvass has devolved. The meetings held throughout the State are local ones; the organization is local, and the credit for the victory will Tammany Democracy. It is an undeniable fact that the Tammany Democracy have furnished the material used by the Democratic leaders all over the country for the last ten years to conduct their political campaigns. The Democratic State Central Committee of Pennsylvania for years received its largest supplies from this source, with the understanding, no doubt, that as soon as the Democracy got State and National power, they would reimburse Tammany all its loans. For this corruption on the part of the Democratic leaders what have the people of New York to show?

Let the facts answer: One hundred and one millions of dollars in debt. And what have the people to show for it? A steam yacht! An American club house! A race track! A supreme court owned by the Erie railway, with Hon. George Barnard toll-keeper.

A palace for lying Slippery Dick Connolly, the Comptroller, who went into office so poor that he could not qualify in a thousand dollars—who is now a millionaire. A fortune of ten millions for Peter Bismarck Swerney, who was a poor man first appointed city Chamberlain. A palace for Hon. William M. Tweed, the likeliest man in the lot, who has only made twenty-five millions of dollars out of the city, by honesty and economy, in ten years! A fortune of seven millions for A. Oskey Hall, the popinjay Mayor who squawks when the masters pull the string, and pockets his percentage of the plunder while angling for the nomination for Governor. Six thousand harlots and nineteen hundred deers of infamy supported directly by city stealings. These are a few of the exhibits for this enormous debt which must be paid or repudiated. In view of the facts grouped thus fearfully, can any sane man vote a Democratic ticket? The victory of the Democratic party in Pennsylvania will be the endorsement of Tammany in New York.

The Difference. The Democratic papers are raising a great hue and cry over the Evans embroilment at Harrisburg. This is done to withdraw attention from the immense frauds of the Tammany ring in New York, where the Democratic swindlers have amounted to almost as many millions as there are thousands in the Evans affair.

The difference of the two Parties is strikingly exhibited in the course of the party papers respecting those frauds. The Democratic papers have not a word to say against the wholesale swindlers in New York, carried on for a long series of years. They protect and bolster up their thieves on party grounds. They are willing that the people should be fleeced provided that the money goes into the pockets of Democratic plunderers. The Republican papers denounced fraud and swindling, no matter by whom perpetrated. They make it to be understood that a republican office holder who does wrong can expect no mercy at his hands. The people can judge from this, which is the safer party to have control of public affairs.

The Secretary of War, says the Day, has detailed Gen. Meade and other eminent officers as a court martial to try Paymaster Hodge on the charge of defalcation. The promptness which has characterized the dealings of the war department with Major Hodge is commendable. It is not possible to avoid the appointment of men who succumb to great temptations, because no man can forecast circumstances and detect such lapses from integrity. But when the authorities promptly arraign the offender they wash their hands of the Malfeasance in so much. Now let Major Hodge be held to the strict letter of the law. After that let the rules applying to disbursing officers be rigidly enforced. Neglect to do it has in this case involved a serious loss to the treasury. It is seldom that army officers make such trips—a fact that tells to their credit. The people hold the authorities responsible for the prompt adjudication of this case and the punishment of the offender. It is necessary to make an example of these fast men in public places.

Vote for Wm G. Herrold, for Assembly. He is the Republican nominee. An amicable arrangement has been made with the representatives of Union and Snyder counties which entitles this county to the candidate next fall, no good Republican should so far forget himself as to enter upon a new quarrel which may result in disaster as long as the new appointment continues to make Union and Snyder a district. Let us all remember the great necessity of carrying the House this fall and save the State Legislature from Democratic rule. Remember we shall expect Snyder county to support our nominees next fall. How can we expect this if we fail to support Herrold. From all sides we hear of a full determination to stand by the ticket and thus terminate the unhappy dissensions which heretofore did Republicans no good and sent Democrats to Harrisburg to misrepresent the District.—Mifflinburg Telegraph.

THE BEAUTIFUL INCONSISTENCY.—The Democracy first made a great hue and cry that Evans was exposed because he would not divide his plunder; now they assert that Evans was only made a cat's paw and then set about to get rid of him. But they forgot to tell that the Democratic Governor of New York shielded Evans until he had time to escape. Why not tell the whole story? Does the Democrat's Governor, Hoffman, divide the swag with Evans? Was it one of the Democratic politicians?
