

FOR GOVERNOR BY THE HON. JOHN B. PACKER, OF SUNDURY.

Our Iron Interests. We observe by special Telegram to the Press, that the Hon. John B. Packer, who so ably represents our district in Congress, is looking to the interests of his constituents and preparing to give the Free Traders a hard fight.

National Convention. The Republican National Convention meets in Philadelphia on the 14th of June next, and preparations are already being made for it.

Our Argument For Two Terms. A President, Governor, or any other officer desiring a re-election, will so conduct himself, naturally as to secure that goal will win upon whom the election in a country like our own where the people rule.

Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson and Lincoln pleased the people and won a re-election. The two Adamses, Van Buren, Tyler, Fillmore and Johnson did not satisfy the people, and were defeated.

Elizabeth Cady Stanton alludes to the fact that some women suffragists picked up an orphan boy, brought him nice clothes, educated him for the ministry, and when they went to hear his first sermon were struck with consternation to hear the text, "Let the woman keep silent in the church."

Medford, of Vermont, is a good speaker and one of the ablest men in the House, in person very thin, tall and dark haired.

White, of Allegheny, is spare, thin, and cross-eyed, formerly an editor and a man of mark.

Sam Joseph, of Philadelphia, is a small, round faced, pleasant fellow. Keck, of Chester, is slim and tall, and good looking.

Especially would we warn our Republican friends against attempting to give shelter to timidities or expediencies. There is a famous saying of an old philosopher that "a man who is afraid to stand with his feet on the ground will find them slipping from under him."

The Union Pacific Railroad at last accounts was blocked between Laramie and Rawlins, and also west of Rawlins. The Snows were still drifting, and the prospects of getting the road clear were not bright.

Speaking of the recently reported atrocities in Cuba, one of the Madrid Radicals in addressing a meeting on Friday, declared there was good reason to believe in their truthfulness, as he had incontestable evidence that children had been shot.

PERSONAL. The Harrisburg correspondent of the Lancaster Examiner thus describes some of the members of the legislature:

The personal appearance, the deportment and abilities of the men of the Senate and House are as various as the rainbow. Mr. Wadsworth, of Lehigh, is short and plump as a pumpkin, and looks like one who lives well.

A Rich Imposter Arrested. For several days, past a man named John Porter Sturmer, has been calling at the residences of our citizens soliciting alms.
