THE small-pox is abating in all parts of the State.

EASTER Sunday falls this year on the 31st of March.

SCHUTLER'S Cornet Band, will give a concert in the Courthouse, on Tuesday evening, Feb. 27, inst. Admittance, adults, 25 cents, children 15 cts. Let there be a good attendance.

THE prevalence of diarrhea in Harrisburg continues unabated. The TELEGRAPH of Wednesday says that one-third of the population—at least eight thousand persons—are afflicted with the epidemic.

A BILL giving defendants the right to give evidence in Criminal prosecution is before the Legislature. It is said to work well where it has been made the law, but it seems to us that it will give rise to some hard swearing.

PENNSYLVANIA has more post offices than any other State in the Union. The number of post offices in Pennsylvania is 2,893, and in New York, 2,600. The whole army of postmasters in the United States amount to 30,045.

A rumor prevailed in this place, a few days ago, that Hon. S. S. Woods was dead and buried. We're very glad to say that it was false. The Lewistown Gazette of last week stated that he was improving in health.

C. G. GUTELIUS, has just received a lot of beautiful photograph frames, and picture mouldings; also a large assortment of latest style, men's and boys suits complete. Call and examine. He charges nothing for showing his goods.

PLENTY OF COAL.—We have been informed that a report is in circulation that our stock of Lime-burner's Coal is exhausted. This is a mistake, as we have a good supply of Pea and other sizes of coal for sale at moderate prices. Come and see.

WAGENSELLER & SON.

Letter From the West.

LINDSEY, Sandusky Co. O.

Editor, Post.—It might be interesting to your readers to learn something about the rapid growth and extensive business of our Western village; and to illustrate I have chosen our own village Lindsey, located seven miles from Fremont the County seat, a town of about twelve thousand inhabitants, on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad. Six years ago there was scarcely the sign of a town, but to day among other places of business it comprises three dry goods stores, one grocery, one hotel, one shoe store, carriage manufactory, drug store, insurance office, cheese factory with 700 cows in use, furniture store, steam saw mill, grain elevator, pork packing house, railroad depot and telegraph office, and other minor business places, with a population of six hundred. Your own town of Middleburg is nearly a century old and does not now contain more than half the number of inhabitants and you transact less than one half the business we do.

John Boyer, brother of your friend Geo. Boyer of Fremont, Snyder Co., and formerly a citizen of Union county, died a short time ago, at the advanced age of 74 years. Truly Yours,

E. S. BOWERSON.

COMMUNICATED.

For "THE POST."—Having been called to the flourishing town of Selins Grove on business a few days since, I could not resist the temptation of calling on our friend Mr. Joseph Wenrich, or as he is familiarly known "Old Joe." Having long since served his time as "Apprentice" "Jer" and "Boss," he has now retired from the more active duties of his trade "Blacksmithing" and assigned the labors to his two sons; who have been taught the mysteries of the trade under his direct supervision; consequently he has no fears but that his old customers will be well cared for; and that they will still say on removing their "Johs" from the shops, "well done thou good and faithful servant."

Since "Joe" has been relieved from the labors of the shop, he has had an opportunity for which position there is none better calculated than himself. He has long since been known as the able and efficient agent of the "Little Dodge" Reaper, and in addition to this he has Two Superior cultivators, which he sells at prices to suit all purchasers. He is also the agent for a very superior Steel Plough, without one of which, no farmer's stock of implements is complete.

I would recommend that our farmers throughout the county, at least pay "Old Joe" a visit, and see what he is engaged in, and satisfy themselves before "purchasing any farming implements for he is fully prepared to attend to all their wants. His long and practical experience as a Blacksmith, gives him a standing which ranks second to none. I forgot to mention that he has built a large addition to his old shop which he devotes exclusively to a Sales Room, for his farming implements and to the door of which all will find the "Latch String" hanging out.

Hoping that all will accord to "Old Joe," the honor of "business, and that he may live many long and happy years,

I Remain Yours.

VISITOR.

We noticed in one of our exchanges this week the statement of Dea. John Hodgkins, of South Jefferson, Me., whose son was cured of incipient consumption by the use of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. We refer to this at this time as tending to corroborate the statement we made last week in relation to this Liniment as applied to consumption.

If Congress had employed as much scientific skill in the arrangement of its "Reconstruction Policy" at the close, as the Agricultural Department did in the beginning of the war, in arranging for the manufacture of what was called Shoddies, Cassimeres

BOOK-TABLE.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—The record of Godey hardly finds a parallel in the literary world—forty-two years old, and not a number lost, or a change of editors! It has been made better and more attractive as the years have come and gone, and it stands to day without a successful rival in the land. On our arrival in Jeddo, Japan, in 1862, the first American journal we saw was a copy of Godey! The arrangements for this embrace many new and attractive features, and it is pleasant to know that Godey always fulfils his promises.—[Register, South Jackson, Mich.

THE PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL for March has been received. Its contents more than confirm our opinion of that magazine's character. The very instructive articles on "Fish Culture in America," and "Ague and Fever" are all worth more than a years subscription. But besides these there is a long list of readable matter. Attorney-General Williams; Expressions; Harriet Hosmer; Our Horse-Cars; Will it Pay? Writing for the Press; the Artic Regions; James Fisk, Jr., Lord Brougham's Ghost; Rev. George H. Hepworth, etc., with fine portraits and numerous illustrations. Price 30 cts., or $3 a year. S. R. Wells, 389 Broadway N. Y.

BALLOU'S MAGAZINE FOR MARCH.—The March number of Ballou's Magazine is issued, and a careful examination of its contents shows us that it is the most useful of all the monthlies for amusing the public. There is such a variety in its contents, that every one can find some article that will please them. Boys will delight in the sea yarns and adventures, ladies in the love stories, gentlemen in the historical tales, and the sentimental in the poetry.

Ballou's Magazine contains 100 pages of reading matter, yet it is sold for only fifteen cents per copy, or $1,50 per year; the cheapest publication in the country. Yet in the face of all this, the publishers give some of the best premiums that were ever offered for clubs of subscribers. Send for a list and see. Thomas & Talbot, publishers, 63 Congress Street, Boston.

THE LOST HEIR OF LINLITHGOW is the name of Mrs. Emma D. E. O. Southworth's new novel, now in press, and to be published in a few days by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. It will commence a very large sale, as it is one of Mrs South worth's most powerfully written efforts, exciting and sensational, and is fully equal if not superior to "Tried for Her Life," "Cruel as the Grave," "The maiden Widow," "The family Doom," "The Changed Bride," "The Bride's Fate," "Fair Play," and "How He Won Her," which have proved to be eight of the most popular novels ever published, and which are having unprecedented sales for Mrs. Southworth, as a novelist, stands at the head of all female writers. Her conceptions are marked by originality, and there is a purity and sweetness about her language which give a peculiar charm to her writings. Her characters are powerfully and touchingly drawn, and we learn to love them because they are more natural than affected. "The Lost Heir of Linlithgow" will be issued in a large duodecimo volume, uniform with Mrs. Southworth's other works, and will be sold at the low price of $1,75 in cloth, or $1,50 in paper cover; or copies will be sent by mail, to any place post paid by the publishers, on receipt of the price of the work in a letter to them.

Old prejudices are dying out. New facts are killing them. The idea that invalids weakened by disease can be relieved by prostrating them with destructive drugs, is no longer entertained except by monomaniacs. Ever since the introduction of Dr. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS it has been obvious that their regulating and invigorating properties are all sufficient for the cure of chronic indigestion rheumatism, constipation, diarhoea, nervous affections, and malarious fevers, and they are now the standard remedy for complaints in every section of the Union.

"How To Go West."

Forty years ago, Illinois was as far West as most people wished to go and journeys were made in the legendary "Prairie Schooner," but in these days of progress and improvement, the word West has come to mean Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas Colorado, California and the Territories, and the Traveler reaches almost any point therein by a splendid Line of Rail-road.

This Line of Railroad is the Burlington Route, which starts from Chicago over the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy R. R., from Indianapolis over the Indianapolis Bloomington & Western Short Line and from Logansport, over the Toledo, Peoria & Warsaw R. R., and running through Burlington, reaches Omaha, Lincoln, Nebraska City, St. Joseph, Atchinson, Leavenworth and Kansas City, connecting with the Union Pacific, Kansas Pacific and other Railroads running from those cities.

Always go "By way of Burlington" and you will be sure to be right.

The Burlington Route has admirably answered the question, "How to go West?" by the publication of a truthful and interesting document, filled with facts in regard to Time, Connections, Accommodations, rates of Fare, and other interesting items and illustrated by a large map, truthfully showing the whole West, which they distribute free of charge. Copies, and additional information, can be obtained by addressing, General Passenger Agent, B. & M. R. R., Burlington, Iowa.
