

itens of Middleburg and vicinity. [March 21, '67

B. F. VAN BUSKIRK,

SURGICAL & MECHANICAL DENTIST

Selinsgrove Penn

TOHN K. HUGHES, Esq., JUSTICE OF THE PEACE,

Penn Twp., Snyder Co. Pa

Y. ... WAGNER, Esq., JUSTICE OF THE PEACE. Jackson Township, Snyder Co. Pa. Will attend to all business entrusted to fourth time somel oly has robbed me his care and on the most reasonable terms. DBJ. F KANAWEL, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,

Centreville, Snyder Co., Pa., Offers his professional services to the heaps don't begin to be as large as 6-28if

TRAYBILL & Co.,

WOOD AND WILLOW WARE him ! that's all I've got to say !" Brushes Cotton Laps, Grain Bags, Fly Nets, Buckets, Twines, Wicks, &c. No 345 North Third Streed, Philadelphia, er's pretty daughter, as merry-eyod, Oil Cloths, Window Shades, Brooms, Mats, could wish to see.

F. A. BOYER, Jr. AUCTIONEER,

Most respectfully offers his services to the public as Vendue Cryer and Auction, ser. Having had a large experience, I feel confident that I can render perfect A letter was by no means a thing of isfaction to my employees. [Jan. 9, '67t

B T. PARKS, ATTORNEY AT LAW & DISTRICT ATTORNY, MIDDLEBURG, SNYDER COUNTY, Pa

Office in Court House, [Sept. 15, '67tf THO'S SWIEFRD,

W. F. HANSELL, Removed from 21 N. Fourth Street CHINA GLASS & Queensware, 61 NORTH THIRD STREET,

PHILADEL PHIA.

Packages Constantly on Hand Original

MILLER & ELDER

WHOLESALE BOOK SELLERS Stationers, Blank book Manufaturers and dealers in Wrapping, Blasting, Cur-tainand Wall papers Paper Baga &c Genrallob Printers betti ferih Third street abere Rase Fallydefphik Fa.

Thou who hast done all for me THE CORN THIEF. BY NATTHEW MIDDLETON. " Its getting most to bad mother !

bucket upon his head, and down jumpexclaimed Farmer Penson, coming is ed Farmer Penson from over the low from the barn, one afternoon late in door, flourishing his horse whip and the autom. shouting : "What's the matter now ?" asked "Ah ! ha ! my fine fellow ! I've get good-natured Mrs. Penson, looking up you at last, have 1? Take that! and from her sowing. that! You will rob my coracrib, will "Matter ! Why this makes the you ?"

And thick and fast fell the blows March 12. Getf of corn ! You know I put forty bush upon the head and shoulders of the els in one bin, in the corn shed, and unhappy stranger. thirty in the other; and for at least latch.

"What's all this?" he cried. four nights past I'm sure some one ' Don't you know me? I'm-" has been in, stealing it, for the "A miserable thief!" roared his they were. I'll keep a watch to night assailant, interrupting his speech by and if I catch the scamp, were batide a shower of blows, that the man started off into a heavy run, puffing and blowing as he went, for he was very stout. At that instant, the door flew open.

and evidently past middle age. He was followed for some distance by the exasperated farmer, showing rosy-checked a country girl as you right he approached the door of the corn shed, and nut his hand upon the Down came the contents of the imprecautions upon him as he ran, uutil, at last, thinking him sufficiently "A letter, father !" she exclaimed Freeburg Snyder Co. Pa. as she entered ; "read it-do ! I'm punished, he gave up the chare and

> At the door he encountered a rough looking man, just bringing up a small common occurrence in the Ponson trunk.

> "Is Mr. Stockrich here ?" ho household ; so the farmer deliberately took out his glasses, and opening it, gired, of the farmer as he approached "No," was the roply; "he is not slowly persued its contents, a satisfied expected till to-morrow night." smile overspreading his countenance " He started twenty minutos before me, from the station," said the man "Who is it from ?" inquired Mrs " and he ordered me to bring the trunk Penson, every bit as curious as he ap to Mr. Penson's."

were hard at work.

"This is the place," gasped the " It's from Cousin David Stockrich farmer, a sickening thought coming whom we haven't seen this twenty years," replied the farmer; "and, over him; "put it down, he'll bealong what's more, he's coming down here soon."

And dismissing the man, he hurried to stay a week, to try the country into the house, where his wile and "Goodness !" exclaimed Laura ; he's daughter, who had remained up late to worth half a million, at least ! ain't he bake a batch of pies for Cousin David

as he did so.

daughter.

air."

tather ?"

" What is the matter father ?" ex-" And over sixty," added Mrs. Pencon. "Try to please him, Laura; he claimed Laura, as the farmer sank inmay leave you something in his will." to a chair.

"And he's to arrive to morrow "I've been horsewhipping a man, night," continued the farmer. "Be house, and toward the baro. At have been the rats assisted, no doubt, length, seeming satisfied that all was by his own imagination

> New Developments in the Wharton Case

Chicago Tribune says: The Wharton move in respectable circles, is the opin- of all. social quarrel extends to Washington. N. Y. Times. and as much has been said about the Van Ness family, it is now alleged that they propose to reverse their former decision and press the State authorities of Maryland to try Mrs. Wharton for the attempt to poison young Van Ness. If convicted on this charge, a term of imprisonment fand not death. would be the penalty. The testimony upon the Van Ness case is said to be evening was in unusually light spirits. more startling and definite than in the The next morning at the breakfast ta-Ketchum tragedy. Van Ness says that ae had never been asked, in all his ac juaintance with Mrs. Wharton, to attracted the attention of her mother. Irink noything until the particular claret. He drank but little of th s, and eried out that it was bad, and then started to go home, only a short dis under the cars and had been so seritance away ; he was seized with blindously injured that he died in about two ness, and experionced a sensation as if the back of his neck had been pinchshe had seen in her dream, how he thritt. ed in a vice and then lifted up. Grophad fallen and the car wheel had tering along like a drunken man, he was able to reach his doorstep and pull the bell. As the door opened he full forward in his hall, and knew no more for several days. The first thought on recovery was to send word to Mrs. Wharton not to give any of that claret to anybody, because it must have been drive it from her mind. that which made him sick. When Van Ness got out again his relatives had the iden that he had been sun struck, but immediately after repairing to Mrs. Wharton's she invited him to drink of then related the circumstances of her another beverage. He felt the same pain coming on him as before and almost immediately started for the fron dy some bours before. door, to rush home before the attack should come on. "Where are you going ?" cried Mrs. Wharton. "Don't stop me," said Van Ness, "that thing is coming on me again." He groped Jamestown (N. Y.) Journal.

his way along the hall, but before he could put his hand on the front door knob he reeled and fell into the hall, oleckt now ov ever bearing ov two and was dregged into the parlor where dogs fighting, unless there was a man whom I thought was trying to steal he laid for a week, suffering hauses, lor two around."

The affair, as may be well expected, has created a farore in the entire com- fool's wis los, the knave's reputation. Islands, that the mermids about that manity. That parties will be impli- the wise man's jewel, the rich man's section were sharkskin bustles, stuffed cated in the disappearance and subse- irouble, the peer man's desire, the with pickled ecis' toes!" A Washington correspondence of the quent death of the young taly, who evotous man's ambition, and the idiot ion of many. A day or two will show .-- I have noticed that whatever is, is A Strange Realization. the plum putding. Mr. Frank Caufield, who was killed on Friday last, was betrothed to a young lady of this town and was to COSA. nave married in two months. On Fri.

when the train passed here on its way west, the young lady saw him and had The Boy the Father of the Man. some conversation with him, and that Soloman said, many conturies ago Evan a child is known by his doings. ble her appearance was so much the whether his work be pure, and whethreverse of the evening previous that it er it be right."

Some people seem to thick that who asked her the cause of her appar- children have no character at all. On time when she asked him to have some ant trouble. The young lady there- the contrary, any observing eye soes upon related to her mother that she in these young creatures the signs of had dreamed that her lover had fallen what they are likely to be for life. When I see a boy in haste to spend every penny as soon as he gets it, 1 hours. She told the circumstances as think it a sign that he will be a spend

When I see a boy hearding up his ribly mangled his left leg and his left penales and unwilling to part with arm, and that he had lived in great them for any good purpose, I think is agony for about two hours. Her story a sign that he will be a misor.

When I see a boy or girl always was generally discredited by her moooking out for him or herself, and disciking to share good things with oth ers, I think it a sign that the child

When I see boys and girls of ten quarreling. I think it a sign that they man who had met so terrible a death will be violant men and women. came to the house of the young lady When I see a little boy willing to and said she had bad news for her. She taste strong drink. I think it a sign brother's death, corresponding in detail that he will be a drunkard. When I see a boy who never atten is to religion, I think it a sign that he will be a proface and profligate man. When I see a child obedient to his oumstances can bo vouched for .- ture blessings from the Heavenly Parent.

> time take place in the character, yet as general rule, these signs do not that it was reported by the captain of a I have noticed that money is the clamboat arrived from thee Feejee

Coulda't see 11.

A day or two since, a man not over right, with few exceptions-the left and above familiar with the dark ways eve, the left log, and the left side of of telegraphing, went into one of the offices with a despatch, which he insist-I have noticed that marit is always ed upon having sent off immediately. measured in the world by its suc- The operator a commodated him, and then have the dispatch on a hock ---The man hung around some time, evidently unsatisfied. At last his patience was exhausted, and he belehed out :

"Ain't you going to send that dispatch ?"

The operator politely informed him that he had sent it.

"No yer ain't" replied the indignant mun ; "there it is now on the heok."

And now they tell us Geo. Washington, to while sway the tedious winter hours at Valley Forgy, played "penny anty" with the chaplain. Thus ittle by little they are chipping off the perfections of our great model. How sail to be convinced that G. W. was only a man after all !

WOMAN'S RIGHTS .- A long nosed, hin shanked, old maid appeared at the door of a farmer's house in Iowa the other day, and wanted the farmer's wife to subscribe to some woman's newspaper and sign a petition for weman's suffrage.

•

The wife called :

"Charles, Tom, Jane, Richard, Lay?" and was soon surrounded by a crowd of rosy cheeked children. She turned to her visitor and said :

"Have you any of these ?" "No," was the sharp reply.

"Then," repliedt he buxom wife, go and got a fow, and afterwards come to me about woman's rights if you feel like it."

"I will consect to all you desire," said a young lady to her lover, "on condition that you will give me what you have not, what you never can have, and yet what you can give." What did she ask for ? & busband.

parents, I think it a sign of great fu-And though great changes some personal knowledge, and all the cir-

Josh Billings says : "I don't reckwith the dream as told by the young la-Never before has such a remarkable case of premonition come under our ther, who endeavored to persuade her that there was nothing in a dream. but to no purpase-she could not vill grow up a solfish persoa. About noon a sister of the young