THE POST.

MIDDLEBURG..... ..... MARCH 28, 1872.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Mrs. M. E. Rodgers, Fashionable, Dress Maker, Market Street Middleburg, Pa. has just received a full line of latest styles from Madame Demorest's, 838 Broadway, N. Y. Ladies call and see my full sized dress patterns cut and trimmed to the top of the fashion. 4w.

The Station House at this place is being remodeled so as to make a ladies apartment. This is a decided improvement for reasons well known: our loungers will have room enough without intruding upon Mr. Dannis.

On the 9th inst., the House passed a bill authorizing the payment of $100, bounty to the three month's men who answered the first call of the Government for troops. This is a proper measure, and it is hoped that the Senate will promptly pass the bill.

Rev. Grave, pastor of the U. B. Congregation at this place, has been assigned a new field of labor, and will shortly move to Freeburg. Many of our citizens, in and out of the church, express regrets that we lose an esteemed citizen, and a faithful and zealous minister of the Gospel.

Senatorial Conference.—The Senatorial Conferees met at Sunbury on Friday the 22d and Mr. Nesbit of Northumberland county was selected Senatorial delegate to the State Convention, instructed to support Hon. John B. Packer for Governor. We will give our readers the full proceedings in next issue.

Fire.—The house of Joseph Kuhn, in Centre township, was destroyed by fire, with all its contents, on Wednesday, 20th inst, the family barely escaping. The wind was blowing a fierce gale from the west at the time and only required a few minutes to envelope the whole building in a sheet of flame. Defective pipe the origin. No insurance.

Suicide.—John Fislinger a resident of Susquehanna township, Juniata county, hung himself to the limb of a cherry tree, near his residence and in sight of his family, on the 18th inst. It is supposed that he was laboring under a temporary fit of insanity. He had, immediately previous to hanging himself, made violent demonstrations towards his wife and children.

A Musical Concert will be given at Penvertown, on Saturday evening, 30th inst., by the Middleburg Cornet and String Bands. It is hoped that the people of Beaver will turn out en masse and encourage them by a liberal patronage. The plays are well rendered, and strictly moral. The music consists of choice selections, and are well executed. The concert will be held in the large Hall in Boner Conrad's new building.

More than forty years have elapsed since Johnson's Anodyne Liniment was first invented, during which time hundreds of thousands have been benefitted by its use. Probably no article ever became so universally popular with all classes as Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

Pills which contain antimony, quinine, and calomel, should be avoided, as severe griping pains would be their only result. The safest, surest, and best pills are Parson's Purgative or Anti-Bilious Pills.

Surgical Operation.—J. W. Rockefeller, Dr. Brown assisting, successfully performed a surgical operation, on Wednesday morning of last week, removing a tumor from the region of right ovary. Miss Lizzie Smith, the patient is doing well, and no fears are now entertained that the operation will not prove a success. The removing of tumors prove fatal in so many cases that a successful operation is always attributable to the skill of the surgeon employed.

Cheap Music.—Peter's Musical Monthly is certainly the cheapest musical publication in the world, and we have yet to hear a single person say any thing against its varied and charming selections of Vocal and Instrumental Music. It is a Welcome visitor to thousands of Musical Families who have heretofore been unable to cultivate their musical tastes on account of the high price of music. April number, price 30 cents, contains 20 pieces of music. The publisher offers a trial trip—January, Feb. & March Nos.—for $1 00 Address, J. L. PETERS, 599 Broadway, New York.

"The Lost Heir of Linlithgow" is the name of a new book by Mrs. Emma D. E. N. Southworth, just published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. It will command a very large sale, as it is one of Mrs Southworth's most powerfully written efforts exciting and Sensational, and is fully equal if not superior to "Tried for Her Life." "Cruel as the Grave," "The Maiden," "The Family Doom," &c. &c., "The Lost Heir of Linlithgow" equal the best of the novels of Mrs. Southworth, and will prove very successful. It is issued in a large duodecimo volume, and sold at the low price of $1,75 in cloth, or $1.50 in paper cover; or copies will be sent by mail, to any place, post paid, by the publishers, on receipt of the price of the work in a letter to them.

The Lady's Friend for April.—The April number of this beautiful magazine makes its appearance in a pretty tint of Spring green, edged with clear white lace—cool and refreshing to the eye. Its contents are as greatful to the spirit "Lili," the finely engraved Steel Plate, is a charming and unique picture of a mountain maiden, with the birds and other innocent creatures flocking lovingly about her, drawn by some secret attraction. The Colored Fashion Plate is elegant as usual, "Spring Flowers" a pleasant scene, and there is an abundance of captivating designs for costumes and hair dressing. In literary matter this magazine maintains its well established superiority. Price $2. a year. Four copies $6. "The Lady's Friend" and "The Saturday Evening Post," $4. Published by Deacon & Peterson, Philadelphia.

In the Phrenological Journal for April, we find an abundance of that which is pleasant to read and good to remember. For instance sketches and portraits of W. H. Aspinwall, the eminent merchant; Robert S. Candlish, D. D. successor of Dr. Chalmer's of Edinburgh; the Engineers of of the Mt. Cenis Tunnel; besides admirable articles on Right and Wrong Views of Life; Respiration and its apparatus; Inebriate Asylum; History of Photography in America; Homes of Famous Americans; Rocky Mountain Scenery; "Stitch in time," or the Alabama Question; Early English Education, etc.; finely illustrated. Price only 3 cts., or $3 a year. S. R. Wells, New York.

Demorest's Monthly for April is bright, and full of good things as usual. Its fashions are particularly full and interesting to ladies, and its literary matter varied, thoughtful, and suggestive as well as entertaining. It is preeminently practical, and therefore most useful as a family magazine.

—Three thousand dozen eggs were shipped to New York in one week by a firm in Bowling Green.

—It is said that American copper cent circulate in Japan at three times their home value.

—Atlanta has twenty two hundred white and eight hundred colored children attending her public schools.

—The Germans of Illinois are fighting the temperance law of that State with considerable vigor, and some show of success.

Dead men tell no tales: if they did, anathemas against the depleting harvest, the drastic purge, and the terrible salivants of the materia medica, would arise from every graveyard. The motto of modern medical science is "Preserve and Regulate, not Destroy," and no remedy of our day is so entirely in harmony with this philanthropic logic as Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters. In this powerful, yet harmless restorative, dyspepsia, bilious complaints, and all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and nerves, encounter an irresistible antidote.

"How To Go West."

Forty years ago, Illinois was as far West as most people wished to go and journeys were made in the legendary "Prairie Schooner," but in these days of progress and improvement, the word West has come to mean Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas Colorado, California and the Territories, and the Pacific reaches almost any point desired by a splendid line of Railroad.

This line of Railroad is the Burlington Route, which starts from Chicago over the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy R. R., from Indianapolis over the Indianapolis Bloomington & Western Short Line and from Logansport over the Toledo, Peoria & Warsaw R. R., and running through Burlington, reaches Omaha, Lincoln, Nebraska City, St. Joseph, Atchison, Leavenworth and Kansas City, connecting with the Union Pacific, Kansas Pacific and other Railroads running from those cities.

Always go "By way of Burlington" and you will be sure to be right.

The Burlington Route has admirably answered the question, "How to go West?" by the publication of a practical and interesting document, filled with facts in regard to Time, Connections, Accommodations, rates of Fare, and other interesting items and illustrated by a large map, faithfully showing the whole West, which they distribute free of charge. Copies, and additional information, can be obtained by addressing, General Passenger Agent, B. & M. R. R., Burlington, Iowa.
