FOR GOVERNOR IN 1872,

HON. JOHN B. PACKER,

OF SUNBURY.

HEADQUARTERS REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 5, 1872.

In persuance of the resolution of the Republican State Central Committee, adopted at Harrisburg, Jan. 18, 1872, a Republican State Convention composed of Delegates from each Senatorial and Representative District, in the number to which such a district is entitled in the legislature will meet in the Hall of the House of Representatives, at Harrisburg, at 12 o'clock noon, on Wednesday, the 10th day of April, A. D. 1872, to nominate candidates for Governor, Judge of the Supreme Court, Auditor General, (should the Legislature provide for the choice of one by the people), and an Electoral Ticket; and also to elect Senatorial and Representative Delegates to represent this State in the State in the Republican National Convention, to be held at Philadelphia June 5, 1872.

Democratic Disgust of Liberalism.

The Democrats are disgusted with the "Liberals." The World of yesterday admits that the Republican party cannot be defeated by an intestine schism, and preaches a straight-out Democratic crusade. This is a change of front. The whole Democratic party of the country, North and South, has been looking forward to the Cincinnati Convention and the "Liberals" as the event and party which were to bring about a triumph of its cause. The movement has been changing shape of late, as the characters of the movers have improved.

At the outset the men who advocated bolting, and who set up Republican refusal to grant amnesty as the cause, and who started the agitation out of which has grown the Cincinnati Convention, were weak and foolish politicians who had been disappointed. Up to within very recently their division did not amount to a factious quarrel. There was not a statesman nor a distinguished citizen who approved it. In only one State had it any organization or could it muster a corporal's guard of adherents.

When the honorable and able gentlemen who oppose the renomination of President Grant looked around for a constituency and a support, their eyes naturally fell upon this band of dissatisfied men. Nobody else at all sympathized with them, and so they were obliged to accept this little clique of gramblers as their nucleus. They have been moulding it for the good of the party and the country ever since. They have been holding up to the faction the glorious record and triumphs of Republicanism and the treasonable history of Democracy. They have declared that they have no sympathy with this last organization, and they will do nothing which will promote its success; and such is the power of mind that the men who involuntarily have become their followers applaud all they say.

In these hands the Liberal movement is to be feared by nobody but the sinful association of Tweeds and Nasbys. Even the Sprinfield Republican says that its first duty will be to read the burial service over Democracy, while the Chicago Tribune, the leading journal which has supported Liberalism, addressing itself to the Connecticut Republicans, radical and liberal alike, says the grand issue of the campaign is the extinction of the Democracy, and adds: "Insure that, and the American people are free to go into the Presidential campaign unembarrassed by the presence of a party which has opposed all progress and all reforms, from the outbreak of the rebellion to the present time. The people are then let free to do something better than hurl back and forth the jargon of dead issues and defunct institutions."

It is just such utterances as these that have disgusted the Democrats with the "Liberals." They thought these men traitors in the Republican camp, but the expected aid and comfort has not been received. The truth is that, whatever blemishes there may be in the Republican party, it is so infinitely superior to the waiting Democracy that no honest Reformer will ever continue in a course or advocate a policy which will place the last named in power.

Governor Parker continues dumb. He would rather run for President on the straight Democratic ticket, with every prospect of defeat, than play second fiddle to Judge Davis with a reasonable hope of success. For this reason he is as silent as a clam: and silence becomes him better than speech.

Proceedings of the Penna' Republican Association.

At an adjournment meeting of the "Pennsylvania Republican Association" of Pennsylvanians, temporarily residing in Washington, D. C. held March 23d, 1872, for the purpose of instructing their delegates to the State Convention, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted and a copy ordered to be sent to each Republican paper in the State, with a request that the same be published:

Whereas, We repose entire confidence in the integrity, ability, and patriotism of Hon. J. B. PACKER Representative in Congress from the 14th Congressional District of our State, and believing that his purity of character, personal popularity, location, and eminent qualifications, render him the most available man in Pennsylvania to be presented by the Republican State Convention, at Harrisburg, on the 10th day of April next, as the candidate for Governor.

Therefore Be it Resolved, That this, the "Pennsylvania Republican Association, of Washington, D. C., claiming to be a representative body of the whole State, do hereby instruct their delegates, to the State Convention, to use all honorable means to Secure the nomination of the Hon. J. B. PACKER, for Governor.

Resolved, That our delegates are hereby requested and instructed to use all honorable exertions to promote the nomination of HON. ULYSSES MERCUR, of Bradford County, by said Convention, as a candidate for the election to the office of Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Resolved, That we have undiminished confidence in the high character, unquestioned integrity and tried statesmanship, of PRESIDENT GRANT, and that, as members of the Republican party, identified with its onward march of progress and proud of its history, we point with satisfaction to the fulfilment of his pledges, and the faithful discharge of the many and responsible duties of his exalted position as the surest evidence of his fidelity, and as the best assurance that can be given of the confidence with which the American people may rely upon him for an honest, fearless, independent, and upright administration of the Government during the next Presidential term.

Resolved, That, in the deliberate opinion of this Association, the Republican State convention about to assemble at Harrisburg, should cordially unite in presenting the name of HON. JOHN SCOTT, to the Philadelphia National Republican Convention, as Pennsylvania's favorite for the nomination of the Vice-Presidency. His record in the United States Senate for the last three years is without blemish. The soundness of his principles, the integrity which marks his private character, and the ability with which he has discharged his Senatorial duties, have commended him to to the respect of the Republican party of the nation.

Resolved, That, the delegates chosen to represent this Association in the State Convention at Harrisburg, be instructed to use all honorable means to secure an expression, by that Convention, in favor of the nomination of HON. JOHN SCOTT, for the Vice-Presidency, and the adoption of a resolution, instructing, the Pennsylvania Delegates, in the National Convention, to urge, by every fair effort, his nomination for that office.

Resolved, That, as it will soon become necessary to elect a United States Senator from the State of Pennsylvania, and recognizing in the HON. SIMON CAMERON a wise, judicious and far-seeing statesman, an eminent, thorough and active Republican, who for many years, has done efficient service in defending the great principles of the party, and in guarding with jealous care the interests of the State he so ably represents, and who has, uniformly, fully sustained his high reputation at home, while he has, by his ability and integrity, secured the confidence of the administration, and attained in the Senate a position, honorable alike to the State and himself, which it would be impossible for any new member to reach, and now possesses a knowledge, derived from a long legislative experience and an intimate acquaintance with the wants of the people, of the highest importance in advancing the success of Republicanism, and in the solution of the grave question arising in Congress; Therefore, it is the sense of this Association that the best interests of the State and the future success of the Republican cause therein, demand the re election of HON. SIMON CAMERON to the Senate of the United States, and he is, therefore, hereby earnestly requested to allow his name again to be used in that connection.

Resolved, That the Delegates from this Association are hereby instructed to urge upon the Convention, the justice and propriety of permitting this Association to name one of the Delegates at large, to the National Convention, to which the State is entitled. By order of the Association,

A. A. SHISLER, President.
R. M. JONES, Secretary.
Washington, D. C., March 23, '72.

ANOTHER Republican State Convention speaks out strongly for Grant. The Ohio Republicans met at Columbus, Wednesday, and nominated candidates for several State offices, selected delegates to the National Convention, and adopted a series of resolutions. The utmost harmony and cordiality prevailed, and all the proceedings, including the speeches and resolutions, endorse in the strongest manner, the administration of President Grant. There were no words but those of severe reprobation for the assaults upon the latter, and from the decidedly enthusiastic feeling which prevailed it is fair to infer that the Cincinnati Convention will receive little encouragement from the Republicans of Ohio. The platform adopted recites with pride the record of the Republican party and the leading achievements of the present Administration, takes ground in favor of such duties on imports as will best promote the interests of every branch of industry and secure to "labor of every kind constant employment and just reward," opposes further grants of public lands to corporations, and favors the renomination of President Grant for a second term.

Second Letter to the School Directors of Snyder County.

GENTLEMEN.—By what should you be governed in your choice of a County Superintendent? Has this question yet in all its bearings and with its proper force come home to your minds? I fear that some of you look upon the matter as of comparatively little consequence, and permit yourselves to be influenced by anything but purity of purpose and the educational interests of our county. I am no director myself, but, besides my own personal interest in popular education, I have been requested by Directors and others equally interested in our Public Schools, to write to you and to urge you to the impartial and faithful discharge of your duty. It is a fact too well known, that the Directors on former occasions of this kind, failed most lamentably, and consequently the people are anxiously looking forward to see what you will do; whether any of you will betray your trust and permit yourselves to be bought and sold with political promises and threats. The treatment Rev. Lazarus received three years ago, has by no means yet been forgotten. The means made use of to defeat him, were of such a dishonorable character as to reflect anything but credit upon his rival, and upon the intelligence and moral purity of some of the Directors then in office.

I have of late talked with a number of persons from all parts of the county, and learned to my utter disgust that certain parties (it is well known who) go from township to township basely and most shamefully misrepresenting Prof. Noetling, to defeat his election. Indeed to say that they misrepresented him, is using too mild a term; for they say what they themselves know to be real downright lies, of which they cannot substantiate even the merest shadow. They say, for instance: 1, That if he be elected, none of the present teachers will get certificates; that he will give none certificates unless they have the highest qualifications, and that none such can be employyd without a corresponding increase in salaries, which will make enormous taxes upon the county. 2. That he has robbed the county of twenty-four hundred dollars, for an insignificant strip of ground taken by a street made through his property. 3, That he will permit certain ministers to preach and hold revivals in all their school houses. 4. That, on account of his own school, he will not be able to attend to those of the public, and consequently must neglect them. 5. That all the Directors of Selinsgrove will vote against him.

Prof. Noetling's integrity and moral purity are so well known that, to defend them against such willful lies, seems like a waste of words; but as some people are apt to be misled by falsehoods, it may not be amiss to make a few replies.

1. So far as the examination of teachers and granting of certificates are concerned, judging from the Professor's known reasonableness, it is perfectly safe to say, that he will not be unreasonable in his expectations and demands, but will do justice to both teachers and the public. 2. To say that he robbed the county, if it were not utterly false, shows only the meanness to which some people will resort to effect personal ends. It is not necessary here to make further explanation of this, as the Selinsgrove Times has ventilated it sufficiently. 3. The Directors alone have the control of the school houses; and without their permission no meeting or anything else can be held in them. The Superintendent's duties are with the schools and not with the houses; the latter are built by the Directors and remain under their control. 4 His own school, he has promised (if elected), to give entirely into the hands of his teachers, so that it shall not in the least interfere with the interests of the public. 5. That the Directors of Selinsgrove will all vote against him, is as truthful as the other assertions already referred to, and hence needs no further comments.

What means are used to bias the mind of a Director, depends upon his intelligence and his religious views. If he is a member of a denomination favorable to revivals, robbing the county, rejecting the present teachers, high salaries &c. are employed. If he happens to be opposed to certain ministers and "protracted meeting's," revivals in the school houses, robbing the county, rejecting the present class of teachers, high taxes, &c. are handled.

That what I have said is already known to most of you I do not doubt; and should any of you not have heard all that is circulated to influence you in the choice of candidate, a little inquiry will readily reveal it.

I have now given you facts which can really be substantiated, and ask you to consider well what you do in choosing the candidate for whom you intend to cast your vote. Persons making use of such means as I have referred you to, must evidently be driven well nigh to desperation.

I have written you a somewhat lengthy letter but all I have said is meant for good. I have no desire to to do any one injustice, but, on the contrary. I cannot, either bear quietly to see injustice done, and I ask you to inquire into the truthfulness of all I have said:

In the last week's Post, some one signing himself R. thinks I should apologize for saying that Superintendent Wickersham in his late Annual Report suggests the propriety of appointing the Superintendents instead of electing them. That I was in error, I cheerfully acknowledge. I was led into it by a Director, who had so informed me.—All else in my first, letter except the above assertion, is correct to the very letter, and I can substantiate not only it but perhaps some things which R. might not be pleased to hear.

Wickersham, in the January No. of the School Journal, says: "If it (the Superintendency) fails of its purpose anywhere, it is owing to the officer, not the office, and next May the proper remedy can be applied by electing more efficient men." In view of the fact that a number of counties have very inefficient Superintendents, and the manifest desire on the part of the people to have the State Superintendent appoint those officers, Wickersham, in the December (1871) No. of the School Journal, says: 'If changes in the law relating to the superintendency be desirable, the coming session of the Legislature is the time to press them"

In conclusion, I again urge you fearlessly and conscientiously to do your duty at the comimg election. Let every Director be present.

Earnestly Yours.
LEWIS.

Middleburg, Mar. 29, '72.

WE copy the following from the Selinsgrove Times, by request:

A few days ago we met a school director from the country and we made the remark to him, "Well how do you men feel on the election of a County Superintendent?" We were rather nonplused and surprised at the reply he made. Says he, "Well I had been a Nœtling man, but since I learn that he is attempting to rob the county out of $2,400 for damages for land taken for the opening of a road, I have been feeling like going against him." Since then we hear from different sources and from different portions of the county, that some party or parties, and we need not say who, for any one can guess it, have been engaged in the disreputable and very small business of trying to injure Prof. Nœtling by misrepresenting him by downright lying! Were it true that Mr Nœtling asked $2,400 road damages, that fact would have no more to do with his fitness as County Superintendent than it would with his right to vote or his liberty of speech. We do not like to see a man injured and wronged in such a cowardly way, and it is for this reason we intend here to explain to the public all about the road damages:

A few years ago Prof. Nœtling purchased the property known as the Susquehanna Female College for the sum of $8,000. On one side of the College was a beautiful yard shaded with ornamental trees, a very valuable adjunct to a female school. Soon after the purchase of the property by Mr. Nœtling, the Chief Burges and the Town Council proceeded to open a publit street directly through the College yard, to which Mr. Nœtling objected, as it would ruin his schoolyard, and he made all the legal opposition to it he could. But he was compelled to yield and see his beautiful yard ruined; and to that extent his school injured. According to law in such cases, the Court appointed three disinterested men as viewers to appraise damages and value of the land taken, and they fixed the amount at $2,200. The commissioners refused to abide by the decision of the viewers, and as they have a right to do, took an appeal to Court, where the whole matter still rests unsettled. Now any man who knows anything about business, knows that in all such cases, the value of the land taken in all such cases, the value of the land taken is determined by a set of viewers appointed by the Court just as was in this case,—Mr. Noetling has nothing to do in fixing the damages; the Court appointed three men to assess the damages, and they (not Mr. Nœtling) fix the amount at $2,200. The Commissioners have appealed, not from the demands of Mr. Nœtling, but from the decision of the three viewers. It will now be left to a jury. These are the facts in the case, and any representation to the contrary is false, and we want every school director and the public generally to know these facts.

Now as to the land taken, what are the facts? The whole ground taken from Mr. Nœtling is equal, within a small fraction, of three town lots. One of these lots is located on the principal street in the Borough, between the college and the residence of Chas. Hower, Esq., and would to-day sell in our candid jungement for $1,200. Mr. Hower paid for his lot adjoining, some years ago, $1,000. The other lot of Mr. Nœtling's, fronts on the Depot, and for an adjoining lot there was offered Mr. Chas. Rhoads $600 which he refused to take. Besides these two lots, there is additional ground taken equal to a town lot, also fronting the Depot and railroad. It must be remembered that all of Mr. Nœtling's property is near the Depot and is the best part of the town, and for these reasons, to say nothing of the intrinsic good quality of the ground, is very valuable. The damages for moving barn, outhouses, fences, etc., are at least $200.

These are the facts of the whole case. Mr. Nœtling has only been a spectator or an opponent to the doings of the Town Council. They took his land against his will and fixed the price for him. Now for any to take advantage of him by circulating throughout the county that he is trying to ROB the county, is, to say the least a mean dirty trick! No school director ought to be influenced by any such reports, or any other reports.
