

THE POST.

MIDDLEBURG, APRIL 19, 1872

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

To the School Directors of Snyder County.

GENTLEMEN:—In pursuance of the 43d section of the Act of 8th May A.D. 1852, you are hereby notified to meet in convention at the residence of Mr. J. W. COOPER, in the town of Snyder, on the 10th DAY OF THE MONTH, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, and session every year, to transact business, and to receive presents, and to have a meeting of interest and continuing requirements and of skill and experience in the art of teaching, as County Superintendent, for the amount of compensation for the same; and certify the result in the State Superintendent, at Harrisburg, as required by law, and with sections of said act.

W. M. STOVER,
Supt. of Snyder County.

Frederick, Pa., Apr. 19, 1872.

It is said that the Selinsgrove and North Branch railroad has been contracted for from Selinsgrove to Port Treverton. The contractor to have $20,000 per mile.

The Music Hall at Lewisburg was set on fire last week by some unknown rascals. The doors being closed, the fire was smothered before doing much injury to the building.

COL. A. C. SIMPSON, formerly a citizen of this county, has moved to Northumberland, Northumberland, Co. Mr. Simpson is an eminent lawyer, and had extensive practices in this judicial district. He is energetic and punctual in his business. We wish him abundant success in his new field of labor.

Oppression after eating, headache nervous debility, are the effects of indulgence. One, or two at most, of "Parson's" Purple Pills will give immediate relief.

Johnson's Analine Liniment may be administered to children with perfect safety, in cases of cramp, whooping cough, influenza, and almost any of the diseases to which they are liable.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE FROM DEATH.—Mrs. Elise, wife of William Kline, of Adamsburg; this County, fell to the bottom of a well 33 feet in depth, on Wednesday, the 10th inst. The well contained no water and was covered with boards.—Mrs. K. thinking the covering secure stepped upon the same and fell through.—She is very severely bruised, but under circumstances is doing well and hopes are entertained of her recovery.

BOTS OR CANEFLY.—The juveniles and some larger boys of this place, seem to enjoy themselves by taking a healthful exercise at playing "Twa Hall." Several incidents have already occurred through their fun, by leaving the bat slip from the hand while striking the ball. Boys hold firm while striking the ball. Only yesterday we saw a small boy with two nasty wounds in the face besides several broken teeth from the effects of a bat striking him in the face.

SUPPOSED CRIMINAL.—On Monday last, a man passing through the woods on the Cameron farm, near town, observed that the ground beneath the bushes of leavering recently been disturbed by spade. He concluding it was a criminal, he made his way to the house and informed his master, Mr. E. H. SNYDER, Adams, Middleburg, Jan. 14, 1872.

GRATEFUL DISCOVERY.—Kings' Barber Shop, of Lewisburg, the owners, a son, a daughter, and a brother, all of whom are engaged in the business, have already secured through their fun, by leaving the bat slip from the hand while striking the ball. Boys hold firm while striking the ball. Only yesterday we saw a small boy with two nasty wounds in the face besides several broken teeth from the effects of a bat striking him in the face.

The principal topic of conversation on the streets of Lewisburg for the past day or two has been the robbery of a large sum of money which was expressed from here lately to a bank in Williamsport. On the arrival of the package at Williamsport it was found short a large amount. One man is now in prison arrested on suspicion of having committed the robbery, but as there is nothing positive against him, and the sympathy of the community seems to be with him, we await further developments before expressing an opinion.—Lewisburg Journal.

A CHANCE TO WIN $20,000, AND, AT THE SAME TIME, AND THE SUCCESSION.—The sale of tickets in the Grand Legal Enterprise at Omaha, in the name of Mercy Hospital, under the auspices of the Sisters of Mercy, will be continued till May 20th, when the drawing will positively take place, in open public. This charitable enterprise enjoys the confidence of the Governor and best business men of Nebraska; also, the Mayor and President of the Board of Trade, Omaha. Highest prize, $50,000. Total, $150,000, in cash. The Tickets are $3 each or two for $5. For full particulars, address PARTON & GARDNER, Business Managers, Omaha, Neb.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Joseph Houser was instantly killed at Logue Iron Works on Friday last, just before noon. He was engaged with others in forging steel rods, when the ponderous hammer fell, one of the horns of the anvil broke, causing the end of the rail to suddenly fly up, and it struck Mr. Houser under the right jaw, cutting his throat and mangling his face terribly. His age was 32 years, and he leaves a wife and seven children. He was an exemplary man, but, we regret to learn, was poor in this world's goods, and had not even a life insurance policy to leave his family. In view of this sad case, we are again induced to ask the question. Why is it that so few of the laboring classes, whose lives are in daily peril, avail themselves of the advantages of a life insurance?

GO AND GET IT.—If you want a new suit of clothes of the latest style, cheap, go to G. C. Gutelin's, the clothier and get it. If you want a hat or cap, of any size or quality at a reasonable figure, go to G. C. Gutelin's, where you will find a large variety. If you want a good strong trunk or fancy valise, at a low price, G. C. Gutelin's is the man to get it from. If you wish to buy toys for your children, brothers or sisters, go to G. C. Gutelin's, where you can get anything in the toy line. If you want to be "swung up" to G. C. G. and G. Gutelin's, all kinds of candles, nuts, crackers, &c., for sale. In short if you want to be "rigged up" from head to foot, cheaply and fashionably, go to G. C. Gutelin's, Middleburg, Pa., and he will do it.

Advertising alone does not produce success. The thing which is ad must must have intrinsic merit, or else large advertising will eventually do it more harm than good. If you have anything you know to be good, advertise it thoroughly, and you will be sure to succeed; if it is poor don't praise it, for people will soon discover you are lying.

Such is the policy of the Burlington Route, which runs to the three great regions in the West; to Omaha, to the South, to the Mississippi Valley; to A. D. IRVING, THE 10TH DAY OF THE MONTH, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, and session every year, to transact business, and to receive presents, and of skill and experience in the art of teaching, as County Superintendent, for the amount of compensation for the same; and certify the result in the State Superintendent, at Harrisburg, as required by law, and with sections of said act.
