MIDDLEBURG.....JUNE 21, 1872

A Conductor Sold.

A few days since the passengers on a Washington street car were much amused at the following scene.

As the car was passing down the avenue, a young man at the time standing on the platform taking it easy, with one foot on a trunk, was approached by the conductor and his fare demanded. He quietly passed over his five cents.

Conductor—I demand twenty five cents for that trunk.

Young Man, hesitating—Twenty-five cents? Well I think I won't pay it.

C—Then I shall put the trunk off.

Y. M.—You had better not, or you may be sorry for it.

Conductor pulls strap, stops car dumps trunk on the Avenue, starts car, and after going two squares, approaches the young man, who was still as calm as a summer day morning, and in an angry mood says: "Now I have put your trunk off, what are you going to do about it?"

Young Man, [coolly.]—Well, I don't propose to do anything about it; It's no concern of mine; it wasn't my trunk.

Conductor [fiercely.]—Then, why didn't you tell me so?

Y. M.—Because you did not ask me, and I told you you'd be sorry for it.

At this moment a portly German emerges from the car, and angrily says, "You feller, where is mine drunk?"

Young Man.—My friend, I think that is your trunk on the avenue there.

German.—Who puts him off? I hafe de monish to pay him. I will see about dot.

The car was stopped, and shortly afterwards the conductor was seen to come sweating up, with the trunk on his back—a part of the performance he did not enjoy half as well as did some of the passengers.

A Little Boy's Prayer.

More than thirty years ago a goodly minister, illustrating the efficiency of prayer, related the case of a little boy with a sore hand, which had become so bad that the physician decided that it must be amputated to save the boys life. The day was fixed for the operation.

When hearing this the little boy went to a retired spot in the garden, fell on his knees, and begged God for Jesus' sake to save his little hand.

The next day the physician came and examined the hand, when to the astonishment of all it was found to be so much better that amputation was unnecessary.

The hand got quite well again, and the little boy grew up to be a man. "and," continued the minister, holding up his hand: "this unworthy hand can now be shown to you as a monument of prayer answered through divine grace.

QUEER MISTAKE.—The Chambersburg Opinion states—some time ago the Colored Wesleyan church on German street in that place was sold at public sale, the purchasers having to remove the same from the ground. Workmen were sent from one of the planing mills to take down the building but failing to put in appearance at the place, one of the committee went to see why the workmen were not forthcoming. The proprietor knowing that the hands had been sent, hastened up to the place, but found all serene and quiet. A thought struck him and with strides that would have done credit to a Weston, started for the Bethel church, in Kerrstown, and on arriving at that point his worst fears were realized—the workmen were found busy sawing apart the wrong church! A yell and a gesture from the "boss" caused the saws and axes to fall from the hands of the destroyers and the work suddenly came to an end, not however until the building had been sawed into quarters, and otherwise made pervious to wind and weather. Explanations ensued, cracks were stopped and the other building "caved."

Nearly two thousand farms were taken up and improved in Washington Territory, last year by actual settlers. Increase of taxable property, two million dollars.

Sew, sew, sew,
At morn, at noon, at night!
Work, work, work,
But never out of sight!
For great and small, for young and old,
In summer's heat, in winter's cold,
By midnight lamp, by midday's sun.
'Twas sew, sew, sew, but never done,
When Grandma sewed.

Oh, oh, oh! 'twould charm the dullest eye!
The legs are sewed, the waistband's on,

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is widely known as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of years, with a constantly growing reputation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great corruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote, and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive disorders of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ulcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhœa, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poisons.

It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless languor of the season. Even where no disorder appears, people feel better, and live longer for cleansing the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of life.
