Hon. Henry Wilson gracefully and with his usual modesty, accepts the nomination for Vice President, and Gen. Grant does the same in the following brief note:

EXECUTIVE MANSION
WASHINGTON, June 10, '72.

Hon. Thomas Settle, President National Republican Convention; Paul Strobach, Elisha Baxter, and others, Vice Presidents:

GENTLEMEN:—Your letter of this date, advising me of the action of the convention held in Philadelphia on the 5th and 6th of this month, and of my unanimous nomination for the Presidency by it, is received. I accept the nomination, and, through you return my heartfelt thanks to your constituents for this mark of their confidence and support. If elected in November, and protected by a kind Providence in health and strength to perform the duties of the high trust conferred, I promise the same zeal and devotion to the good of the whole people for the future of my official life as shown in the past. Past experience may guide me in avoiding mistakes inevitable with novices in all professions and in all occupations. When relieved from the responsibilities of my present trust by the election of a successor, whether it be at the end of this term or the next, I hope to leave to him, as Executive, a country at peace within its own borders, at peace with outside nations, with a credit at home and abroad, and without embarrassing questions to threaten its future prosperity. With the expression of a desire to see a speedy healing of all bitterness of feeling between sections, parties, or races of citizens, and the time when the title of "citizen" carries with it all the protection and privileges to the humblest that it does to the most exalted, I subscribe myself, very respectfully, your obedient servant.

U. S. GRANT.

SOLDIERS' MEETING.—A National Soldiers' meeting has been called to convene in Pittsburg on the 17th of September, the anniversary of the battle of Antietam, to ratify the nomination of Grant and Wilson. As the gathering will be undoubtedly be a very large one, the Commercial suggest that a wigwam should be erected for the occasion.

SOUND TO THE CORE.—Little Delaware, famous for whipping posts and other relics of barbarism, held her State Democratic Convention the other day, and passed resolutions denouncing Grant in the bitterest terms, and declaring the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments to the constitution a fraud upon the people, and calling for a straight Democratic ticket.

HORACE AS A PROPHET.—If Horace Greeley is not a prophet, it must be admitted that he sometimes fortells. For instance, in a speech delivered in Trumbull county, Ohio, last fall, he said that "if the Democratic party were called upon to decide between Grant and myself, I know that their regard for what they must call principle would induce nine-tenth of them to vote against me." It now looks as if his prophesy was going to be fulfilled sooner than he anticipated. Although the politicians of the party may abandon their principles and stultify themselves so far as to endorse him at Baltimore, when it comes to voting, the masses of the party, will do just as Horace himself predicted they would do.

A prohibition convention met at Altoona last week and nominated the following ticket:

For Governor—Hon. Simon B. Chase, of Susquehanna.

For Judge of the Supreme Court—Hon. Joseph Henderson, of Washington.

For Auditor General—Mr. Barr Spangler, of Lancaster.

For Congressmen at Large—Col. George F. McFarland, A. J. Clark, and B. Rush Bradford.

Ten Reasons Why General Hartranft will be Elected Governor.

First. Because he is an honest man, against whom no allegation of faithlessness in the performance of a sworn duty or dishonesty in the discharge of an important trust, has ever been made or sustained.

Second. Because as Auditor General he has displayed the most efficient executive ability, enforcing the laws regulating his department with firm impartiality, and guarding the resources of the Commonwealth with a zealous care resulting in increasing our revenues in a manner to enable the State Authorities annually largely to reduced the State debt.

Third. Because he has collected more outstanding dues to the State Treasury, during the six years he has been Auditor General, than any six men occupying the same position previously. The rigid manner of his proceeding with county treasurers and the stearn impartiality of his course of action towards corporations, has not only induced prompt payment of dues and taxes belonging to the State, but it avoided harrassing litigation on both sides, and facilitated collections and payments to the satisfaction of all parties.

Fourth. Because the sternest and most impartial investigation of the office over which Hartranft presided for six years, showed that he was honest, faithful and impartial, his bitterest personal enemies and most uncompromising political foes, freely according him the written vindication of being a competent official and a trustworthy gentleman.

Fifth. Because he is a lover of his country, willing to undergo any peril and make the dearest personal sacrifices to insure the power of the government, and secure its perpetuity. He was among the first to volunteer in the struggle to suppress the slaveholders' rebellion—among the very first to repudiate a corrupt democracy, and take up arms to crush traitors—and among the last to leave the field, in order that peace might be permanently established. No volunteer officers from any State, won so large a portion of confidence from the regular army as did Hartranft, and no soldier in the field conducted himself with the same degree of modesty, unselfishness, devotion and fair dealing, as did John F. Hartranft.

Sixth. Because he has never been an office hunter; and never, directly or indirectly, canvassed for nomination for any political position. When he was first nominated for Auditor General, he could have easily secured the nomination governor, had he made a canvass; but believing at the time that the harmony of the Republican party was more essential to the success of radical principles for the good of the government, than the mere honoring of individuals, he declined to allow the use of his name for that position, and as a consequence was unanimously twice nominated by acclamation for Auditor General.

Seventh. Because he is a man of the purest and most irreproachable character, whose walk and conversation are in the direction of usefulness and honor, and whose entire private life is without a blur or act calculated to blemish the fame of his mature manhood. Sober, industrious, fair dealing, thrifty and enterprising, John F. Hartranft combines qualities of head and heart seldom found in one individual, and never advertised or autioneered by himself.

Eighth. Because his nomination by the Harrisburg convention was the direct result of the emphatic wishes of the masses of the people. At least four weeks before the Assembly of that body, General Hartranft had a clear majority of instructed delegates in his favor—and be cause, also, he had at least four-fifths of the Delegates from the majority Republican counties of the State. There never was a more thorough canvass for a Republican nomination for Governor since the organization of the party—no nomination could have been more fairly made in respone to the wishes of the people—and no candidate for the office of Governor ever presented a better record than does Hartranft.

Ninth. Because the loyal heart of the State desired his nomination.

Tenth, Because the honest masses approve his nomination.

The tax of 2 cents on checks, drafts and orders is all of schedule B that is retained.

And this is the detail of stamp abolitions in the law of June 6th, 1872.

Section thirty-sixth of the new law, and this section especially pertains to stamp duties, reads as follows:

That on and after the first day of October, 1872, all the taxes imposed by stamps under and by virtue, of Schedule B, of section 170 of the act approved June 30th, 1864, and the several acts amendatory thereof, be and the same are hereby, repealed, excepting only the tax of two cents on bank checks, drafts, or orders: Provided, That where any mortgage has been executed and recorded, or may be executed and recorded, before the 1st day of October, A. D. 1872, to secure the payment of bonds or obligations, that may be made and issued from time to time, and such mortgage not being stamped, all such bonds or obligations so made and issued on or after said 1st day of October, A. D. 1872, shall not be subject to any stamp duty, but only such of their bonds or obligations as may have been made and issued before the day aforsaid: And provided further, That, in the meantime, the holder of any instrument of writing of whatever kind and description which has been made or issued without being duly stamped, or with a defunct stamp may make application to any collector of internal revenue, and that upon application, such collector shall thereupon affix the stamp provided by such holder upon such instrument of writing as required by law to be put upon the same, and subject to the provisions of section 158 of the internal revenue laws.

The enthusiasm manifested at the various State and the numerous county conventions finds a fitting culmination in the grand National convention of the Republican party at Philadelphia.—Inter-Ocean, Chicago.

The National Republican convention has met and adjourned. The utmost enthusiasm and harmony prevailed. The ticket presented is a good and strong one—Grant and Wilson! With a victory can easily be obtained.—Pittsburg Gazette.

It is but another commentary upon the signal failure of Mr. Sumner to injure his fancied rivals by sneers and vituperation; and that the Philadelphia convention was enthusiastic and united, he may attribute largely to his own incendiary course.—Boston Globe.

The Philadelphia convention has expressed the wisdom of the Republican party in the renomination of Ulysses S. Grant. The party is unanimous, and the vote of the convention was unanimous.—Troy Whig.

It was not Grant as a military chieftain faithful to his trust in the hour of darkest trial, and victorious over armed rebellion, who was acclaimed in the convention: it was rather Grant as identified with the Republican party.—Brooklyn Times.

The largest aqueduct in the world is the Croton aqueduct of New York. It cost $12,500,000.

The neatest thing in the suicidal line is to fill your mouth with gun powder, and then chew upon percussion caps until the explosion comes. The kind of man who tries this never spoils the adjacent furniture with brains, for obvious reasons.

It is not safe to trifle with the affections of the factory girls of Providence. They are expensive commodities and if damaged have to be paid for at ruinous rates. An imprudent but wealty bachelor of 69 was wont to rise six o'clock in the morning to walk to the mill with Julia Vallot. Julia became sick and he gave her a pair of stout shoes and lent her his book of mortgages to read. Afterwards he took her to ride and in an unguarded moment the ardor of the venerable swain led him to make proposals of matrimony. They were accepted and when the ancient lover in his cooler moments desired to retreat offered a dollar to settle with Julia, he found himself caught in the gauzy meshes of Julia's web. A suit for breach of promise followed, and $14,000 was allowed by her intelligent jury as the value to Julia of her venerable bachelor.

A POLITICAL GRAVEYARD.—Reading is the graveyard of the Pennsylvania Democracy. The last Democratic State Convention held at that place nominated Henry D. Foster, a popular candidate, and Curtin defeated him by over thirty thousand majority. In 1866, its distinguished citizen, Heister Clymer was defeated for Governor by Gen. Geary, by nearly twenty thousand majority. Now Bucklew has become a Reading nominee, fate is said to think of.

THE RUSSELL MOWER & REAPER.

Manufactured by

C. Russell & Co. CANTON, O.

Weight and Strength,

There must be a certain amount of weight, for the reason that all the power that can be brought to bear upon the knife is derived from the gravity or weight of the machine upon the ground. That it must combine strength enough to do well the work or which it is intended.

Durability and Utility,

It is important that a machine should be durable, for no matter how excellent it may be in all its parts, if not durable it will prove useless. Utility is the great object in our combined Reaper and Mower to be useful is the desired aim.

The mower cuts a four foot swarth and the Reaper a swarth of six feet.

Rear Cut vs Front Cut

For the finest cut it has been claimed that it was the more easily handled; that it was safer for driver and machine; that there is not the same liability to injury, by falling or being thrown off, the driver would fall behind the cutters. The Rear Cut machine is more easily handled, because the horses are hitched nearer to the main axle, than in the Front Cut. No weight or sawing on the necks of the horses. The driver can see obstructions, thus saving himself and machine from injury.

Draft and Flexibility,

It is meritously claimed for the Russell to have as little side draft as any machine in use; and its flexibility adopts it to the inequalities of the ground over which it may be drawn.
