THE POST.

MIDDLEBURG.....AUGUST 8, 1872

Good Rezolushuns for 1872 and 1873,

BY JOSH BILLINGS.

That I wont smoke enny more cigars, only at sum body else's expense.

That i wont borry nor lend—espeshily lend.

That I will live within mi inkum, if i hav tew git trusted tew do it.

That i will be polite tew every boddy, except musketeers and bed bugs.

That i wont advise enny boddy, until i kno the kind ov advise they are anxious tew follow.

That i wont wear enny more tite boots, if i hav tew go barefoot to do it.

That i wont eat enny more chicken soup with a one tined fork.

That I wont swop dogs with no man, unless i kon swop two for one.

That I wont objeckt tew enny man on ackount of his color, unless he happens tew be blue.

That i won't sware enny, unless i am put under oath.

That i wont believe in total depravity, only in gin at four shillings a gallon.

That poverty may be a blessing, but if it iz, it iz a blessing in disguize.

That i will take mi whisky hereafter straigh—straight to the gutter.

That the world owes me a living provided I earn it.

That i will stick to my taylor as long az he will stick tew me.

That i won't swop any horses with a deakon.

That no man shall beat me in politeness, not so long as politeness kontinues tew be az cheap as it is now.

That i won't hav enny religious kreed miself, but will respekt every boddy else's.

That if lovely women smaks me on one cheek, I will turn her the other also.

That if a man kalls mo a whool, I won't ask him to prove it.

That I will lead a moral life if I lose a good deal ov phun by it.

That if a man tells me a mule won't kik, I will believe what he sez without trieing it.

That if enny boddy loozes even a goose I will weep with him, for it is a tuff biziness to loose a goose.

That if I ever do git a hen that ken lay 2 eggs a day, I shall insist upon her keeping one of the eggs on hand for a sinking fund.

That it iz no disgrace tew be bit bi a dog unless he duz it the seckend time.

That it iz just as natural tew be born rich az poor, but it is seldom so convenient.

That one of the riskyest things to straddle iz the back of a 60 day note.

That the best time tew repent ov a blunder iz just before the blunder iz made.

That i will tri hard tew be honest, but it will be just my darn luck to miss it.

That i won't grow enny kats. Spontaneous kats hav killed the business.

That i will love my mother-in-law if it takes all the money i kan earn tew do it.

That i believe real good lies are gitting skarser and skarser every day.

That i will respeckt publik opinyun just az long az i can respekt myself in doing it.

That when i hear a man bragging on his ancestors i wont envy him, but i will pity the ancestors.

That I won't believe in enny ghost or ghostesses unless they weigh about 140 pounds and can eat a good square meal.

That i won't bet on nothing, for things that require betting on lak sumthing.

That i will brag on my wife all the time, but i will do it silently.

That I will despize most things that i see, not out of malice, but out uv wizdum.

That I won't hanker for happiness, but if i see enny that i think iz a bargain i will shut up one eye and go for it.

That i won't wish i waz az pure as King David, but that i waz purer than i am.

That i won't kovet enny man's wife, nor his oxen, nor his kornstalks, nor color of his mustash.

That i will laff every good chance i kan git, whether it makes me grow phat or not.

Finally, i will search for things that are little, for things that are loneasum, avoiding all torch lite proseshuns, bands uv brass musick, wimmens rights convenshuns and grass widders generally.

A Thick Headed Dutchman.

A pious old lady, who was too unwell to attend her meetings, used to send her thick-headed husband to church to find out the text the preacher selected as the foundation of his discourse. The poor dunce was rarely fortunate enough to remember the words of the text, or even the chrpter and verse where they could be found; but one Sabbath he ran home in hot haste, and with a smirk of self-satisfaction on his face informed his wife that he could repeat every word without missing a syllable.

The words were:

"An angel came down from Heaven and took a live coal from the altar."

"Well, let us have the words of the text," remarked the pious lady.

"I know every word," replied the thick-headed husband.

"I am very anxious to her it." continued the wife.

"They are very nice words," he observed.

"I am glad your memory is improving, but don't keep me in suspense, my dear."

"Just get your Bible, and I will say the words, for I know them by heart. Why, I said them a hundred times on my way home."

"Well now, let's hear them."

"Ahem! An Ingen came down from New Haven, and took a live colt by the tail and leap[illegible] y can die ere I will consent to any thing but good government, and make a precedent always applicable as a justifica-

THE RUSSELL
MOWER & REAPER.
Manufactured by
C. Russell & Co.
CANTON, O.
Weight and Strength,
There must be a certain amount of weight, for the reason that all the power that can be brought to bear upon the knife is derived from the gravity or weight of the machine upon the ground. That it must combine strength enough, to do well the work or which it is intended.
Durability and Utility,
It is important that a machine should be durable, for no matter how excellent it may be in all its parts, if not durable it will prove useless. Utility is the great object in our combined Reaper and Mower to be useful is the desired aim.
The mower cuts a four foot swarth and the Reaper a swarth of six feet.
Rear Cut vs Front Cut
For the finest cut it has been claimed that it was the more easily handled; that it was safer for driver and machine; that there is not the same liability to injury, by falling or being thrown off, the driver would fall behind the cutters. The Rear Cut machine is more easily handled, because the horses are hitched nearer to the main axle, than in the Front Cut. No weight or sawing on the necks of the horses. The driver can see obstructions, thus saving himself and machine from injury.
Draft and Flexibility,
It is meritously claimed for the Russell to have as little side draft as any machine in use; and its flexibility adopts it to the inequalities of the ground over which it may be drawn.

Manhood: How Lost How Restored.
Just published, a new edition of Dr. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency Mental and Physical incapacity, Impediments to marriage, etc; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits Induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance.
Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be really cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
Sent under seal, in a plain envelop, to any address, postpaid on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps.
Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents.

Ayer's
Hair Vigor
For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color

A dressing which, once applied, is healthy, effectual preserving the hair. It restores gray or faded hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. The hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied or decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. It prevents the hair from falling off by keeping the scalp free from the dandruff and other impurities which clog the pores and obstruct the healthy functions of the follicles. By occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. For restoration of vitality it gives new life to the scalp, arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often present, even when the scalp is apparently healthy and inoffensive. Free from those pernicious and deleterious substances which render many preparations dangerous and sometimes destructive to the hair, the Vigor can be used with perfect safety. It will at once relieve the scalp of all irritating humors, and impart to it a healthy action, which is the only condition necessary to the production and support of a luxuriant growth of hair. It is not a dye, but will restore the original color, whether the hair be faded, gray, or prematurely white, with the gloss and freshness of youth. It will not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, lustrous, and a grateful perfume.
