T P. CRONMILLER, ATTORNEY AT LAW,
Middleburg, Pa.,
his protessional services to the pubellections and all other professional as estrusted to his care will receive

A. C. SIMPSON.

Softneyfore Pa.,
Offer als professional service to the public. All business entrusted to his care will be promptly attended to.

[Jan. 17, 1671]

W. KNIGHT. ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Freeburg Pn.,

Find her troubled, cold and weary—

Find her troubled, cold and weary—

Find her children fretting, crying,

And the very embers dying;

This a new house, newly furnished and

Find her troubled, cold and weary—

Find her children fretting, crying,

And the very embers dying;

Then there comes a sad complaining,

For you feel her love is waning.

AVA. VAN GEZER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Lewisburg Pa. More his professional service to be pub-Collections and all other Profession-liness entrusted to his care sill re-bromps attention.

F. MILLER, ATTORNEY AT LAW. Lewisburg Pa Pers his Trofessional service to the public. Collections and all other professional hunges chipunted to his care will receive frompt attention. Jan. 3, '97tf BUMGARDNER HOUSE.

M. LINN, A. H. DILL

[tour cont to J.F. & J. M. Linn.]

TOLESYS AT LAW, Lewisburg, Pa.

The professional services to the Goldections and all other pro and business entraised to their care to in promptatteution. [Jan. 3, 4571] HARLES HOWER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Selinsonne

Sciinsgrave Pa., Sciinsgrave In the party of the party of the Collections and all other professions business entrusted to his care will receive prompt attention. Office two door with of the Keystone Hotel. [Jan 5, 6] SANURE ALLEMAN. HORACE ALLEMAN.

S ALLEMAN & SON. ATTORNEYS AT LAW. Selinsgrove Pa.

All professional business and collecting entrusted to their care will be promptly attened to. Can be consulted in English or German. Office, Market Square.

ATTORNEY & GOUNSELOR AT LAW Middleburg Sayder County Penn'a in English SAMUEL H. ORWIG, Main street. Consultation and German egunges.

J. C. BUCHER, ATTORNEY AT LAW. Lewisburg Pa. Offers his professional servicesto the pubac. All business entrusted to his care will be promptly attended to.

GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE Persons in need of a good and durable Sewing Machine can be accommodated at reasonable prices by calling on on Sau-unt Fauer, Agent, Schinsgrove. [Jan. 24, '68

DR. J. Y. SHINDEL, SURGEON AND PHYSICIAN, Middleburg Pa., Offers his professional services to the citizens of Middleburg and vicinity.
[March 21, '67

B F. VAN BUSKIRK, BURGICAL & MECHANICAL DENTIST

Selinsgrove Penr TOHN K. HUGHES, Esq.,

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, Penn Twp., Snyder Co. P.

Y. h. WAGNER, Esq., Jackson Township, Snyder Co. Pa. Will attend to all business entrusted to his care, and on the most reasonable terms, March 12, '68tf DRJ. F KANAWEL, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, Centreville, Snyder Co., Pa.

Offers his professional services to the public. 6-38tf CRAYBILL & Co., WHOLESALE DEALERS IN

WOOD AND WILLOW WARE Oil Cloths, Window Shades, Brooms, Mats, Brushes Cotton Laps, Grain Bags, Fly Nets, Buckets, Twines, Wicks, &c. No. 420 Market Streed, Philadelphia. Feb. 7, '67

GEO. W GRANELLO, Esq., Conveyancer. Middleburg Snyder County, Penna Conveyancing in all its branches expedi-ionaly executed. Debts and accounts collected, netruments of writing drawn with care and coursey. Apr.16-72.tf

B. T. PARKS, ATTORNEY AT LAW & DISTRICT ATTORNY, MIDDLEBURG, SNYDER COUNTY, Pa Coach & Saddlery Ware and figure, like my vis a vis of that Office in Court House, [Sept.16, '67tf

. P. HANSELL stype from El N. Fourth Street NA GLASS AL MORTH THIRD

VOL. 10.

FAIRMOUNT HOUSE,

Middleburg, Pa.

HENRY BENTER, Proprietor,

McClure City Pa.

Lewistown Pa.,

Harrisburg, Pa.,

A. H. LANDIS, Proprietor.

Every effort necessary to insure the con ort of guests will be made. The house has been early related. [oct18,18711]

Nos. 812 & 814 Market Street, (Above Eighth.) PHILADELPHIA.

Vitorney at Law,

Attorney-at-Law,

Atto mey-at-Law,

OFFICE, . WALNUT STREET,

Perry Township, Snyder County, Pa

Ohapma bahabis Sayde Co. ra Conveyanding Collecting and all differ business entrusted to his cale will be promptly at

DR. J. W. ROCKEFELLOW,

D. B. SLIFER'S WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

NO. 66 NORTH SECOND STREET,

(Below Arch, West Side.)

Factory and Wholesale Departmen

1603 North 6th Street, above Caford,

PHILADELPHIA.

JACOB P. BOGAR,

THERROTH, BERGSTRESSER & CO.

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN

PHILADELPAIA.

HARDWARE.

toves & Tinware. NARKET STREET,

Lewislown, Pen

Paints, Oils,

BHEY AT LAW.

Steel, Leather.

No. 206 North Wharves, (above

B. SELHEIMER.

Iron, Nails,

9-711

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON

Collections, Conv. uncing, and all other huness pertaining to the office will be prompt attended to. Office par Troutmansville.

G. HOLNBERGER,

C. KREITZEK

PILADELPHIA.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

MIDDLEBUBG, PA.

LLEGHENY HOUSE,-

Terans $2 00 Per Bay.

TOHN II. ARNOLD,

J THOMPSON BAKER,

R. D. WALTER Proprietor.

Aprile, left. 2

DAVIS HOUSE.

WALKER HOUSE,

SNYDER CO. PA., AUGUST 15, 1872. MIDDLEBURG

PRAISE YOUR WIFE. GRORGE GUYER, PROPRIETOR. Praise your wife it will not harm you, This house is in close preximity to the depot and has lately been rebuilt and refited. Rooms commodions—therable well supplied with the best the market affords—and terms mederate.

Nothing in it to alarm you: For I know you can remember, When from May to dark December, You could praise and never weary. Never thought these hours dreary,

Were you gainer, were you loser ! Be yourself the houest chooser, If it then was such a pleasure PAXTONVILLE, (Henfer Station. Praise to give in heaping measure, Only for what you believed her, Sarely, now that you've received her, Tried her virtues, found them sterling; Though in business ever whirling. You might find some word of cheering -Something tender, kind, endearing.

She has faults, aye, may have many, Don't you think that you have any? She may oft forget to meet you With a smile—may seldom great you.

Take her place. I can assure you 'Tis the very thing to cure you; Think of all the day's long worry of the ceaseless care and nurry; Mother must be here and there, She is needed everywhere. At the Millin, Central Surbury & Lewistown R. R. Deput, corner of Water and Dorcas Sts., George Flory & Son, Proprietors.

modation of travelers. A first class Restaurant is attached to the hotel, where Men's at all hours can be had. Terms Man's at all hours can be had. Terms For the sick prepare the diet.

Woman's work go try and do it; See if you will ere be through it.

From the warm and cheerful fire; Close your eyes, nor think of waking Till at least the dawn is breaking.

Mother, too, to rest is stealing. Through the shadowy chamber feeling; Covers one and southes another, Whispers tilt is only mother."Thinks ber day's work nearly done, When, in fact, 'tis just begun.

Baby frets and soon is crying. A. Beck, Proprietor. And in vain to soothe she's trying And in vain to soothe she's trying:
Take she must, an singing, singing,
With its crms around her clinging:
Rocking, walking, lulling soothing.
And its wayward humor smoothing:
While the westing hours are creeping.
And dear father's sleeping, sleeping.

Professional business entrusted to hiscar will b promptly ended to. [Feb 9,7 If, perchance, the noise awake you, Conscience for a moment shakes you, Just enough to make you say;
"Wife, you'll kill yourself that way,
Stop that child, and stop its crying,
You'd sing to it if you were dying. Lewisburg, Union Co., Pa.

Lewisburg, Union Co., Fa.

Lewisburg, Union Co., Fa.

It's only badness, not the cond.

Reen enough to have a frolic;

Reen enough to have a frolic;

I would take it. but it's crying.—

Could not stop it, no use trying;

And you soon again are sleeping,

Market Store

Market Store

Market Store

Market Store

Market Store

Think of this, t'will make you tender Of her feelings, and you'll render Many a little kind attention; Put a stop to all contention, And you'll find that word of cheering, And the pet-name so endearing.

Find a time to kies that forehead Furrowed with the care she borrowed From your shoulders, and you'll find her Daily growing younger, kinder; For her burden you will lighten, And the dreary days will brighten; Be a just and bonest man, Give her all the praise you can.

The Beautiful Decoy.

BY. A. S. WRIGHT.

One fine morning, in the autum of 1850, I stepped on board the cars in a distant Western city, en route for New York, for the purpose of FINE ASSORTMENT OF THE BES POLDURE PEACH WISKEY.

BRANDY. (IN, AND SYRUPS purchasing goods for the well known dry goods firm of which I was a member. I carried a large sum of Just received and for so le at the Eagle Hotel, in Middleburg. JOHN A. STAHLYECKER, Aug. 18, 1870. money, as we rarely did business on

After taking a careless survey of the passengers, and recognizing no familiar face. I leisurely unfolded my newspaper and commenced to read.

We passed several way stations Furniture Waresooms, and I, engrossed with my paper, had or notice who entered or left the car, hntil I suddenly became conscious that I was being influenced by some Place." pewerful magnetic force. To explain definitely how this knowledg was conveyed to me, I cannot, no more than I can accurately define the senations that assured me of the fact ; novertheless I was just as positive that son person was asserting or FISH, PROVISIONS, &c. ng to assert the supremacy will, by leading me captive, as of my existence.

> I raised my eyes, and as I did so a pair of very black ones epposite vere instantly averted. They were very beautiful eyes, too, as I soon disovered-large, liquid, changing with every varying emotion. Such eyes are capable of beautifying even an ly face. but when they belong to oung lady of faultless features niture not soon to be forgotten.

falls to inspire confidence.

When the cars stopped at the next became vacated, and as it was near the stove, my lady in black, apparently for that reason exchanged hers for it, as the day was raw and chilly. As she did so she dropped her gloves, and I, of course, immediately picked them up, and as I handed them to her I received a very graceful "thank you, sir !" and some trifling remark relative to her care- claimed : lessness. From this we easily glided into conversation, as neither, I fancy, was averse to such an agreeable oceupation.

She was well informed and lady like in mapper, and I abandoned myself to the enjoyment of her delightful society.

Many would term my fascination love at first sight, and laugh at my rhapsodies, but so far as my experimyself-controlled by another's will. without the consent of my own reason. This, I have no doubt, is often the disastrous results so often witnessed in unhappy marriages. There qualities.

It was growing dark when she said at the next station she must stop. I handed her my card, and she in return, favored me with a delicate bit of pastboard, with "Miss Ada

Harlow" neatly engraved thereon." Wen we arrived at the depot, I arose to assist her in alighting ; and and taking a heavy travelling bag in in one hand and her shawl upon my arm, I stepped upon the platform. and offered my disengaged hand to help her down the narrow steps of the ear. By some mischance she stumbled and fell-I, encumbered as I was, being quite powerless to prevent it.

I supposed it to be purely accidental, at the time, and endeavoyed to pain, and seemed to swoon.

I had but a moment to spare be-I saw no one, however, except the where to go.

The former aided me in carrying ered sufficiently to murmur her find some one to convey her home.

I inquired of the "attendant" if there was one I could get, and he thing more. said no, unless I went to the village, a mile distant.

The cars had already gone, leaving the victim of my unwise gallantry ; and, while I was considering what it was best to do, a man drove up in an open buggy, who made some inqui-ries concerning the arrivals by the last train, and was turning, with a

he could do so just as well as not, as he lived only a mile from "Locust

My companion asked me in such charmingly deprecating manner to accompany her that I could not resist, even if I had had a thought of so doing.

He was a stranger to her, she said; and I, having no suspicion of any ruse to entrap me, believed it. That the man might be a participant chin. in the preconcerted, scheme of which I was the destined victim, never occurred to me for one moment.

The night was dark and drear, and for a mile before we reached our destination a thick wood skirted the road on either side. I was armed not admit to myself that I had any apprehension of trouble, yet I kept my hand in close proximity to its friendly presence.
Finally we reached what my char-or called "Locust Place," and which ras so named, she said, from the re of locust trees in the rear of was soon taken. My ng. as I deter an innocent young girl; for, despite mer purity. The street door was in the middle, with a large, square room tently, I heard the street door open, during the summer, to be led out in sad, trustful expression, that rarely on either side, and chambers of cor- and some one entered. responding dimensions above.

As we drove up, a man appeared bed, I took the sheets, and securely was clothed in the manner of an or- necessary. dinary farmer.

In a guttural tone, he called out : "Good evening, Mr. Joe !"

And then holding up the lantern, composed the rest of the party, ex-home sick, hev ye ?" Before the person addressed had a chance to reply, Miss Ada said :

"Oh, no, father ; I had a little fall, and am somewhat lame, that is all." By the time we had assisted her to conding the stairs. alight a woman, , whom shde greete as "mother," came, all in a flurry, to know what was the matter.

ences prove, it was not at all similar nations. Miss Ada presented me to was no lock or other means of fasten- scaling the giddlest heights. The to love. I was attracted in spite of her parents in her own graceful way; ing it I had allowed it to remain more- goat boy's eye is as sure as his feetand amid their anxiety for her, and ly latched. their gratitude to me, I noticed noth- ges, and a head appeared through the lost and vagrant member of his own ing in the least calculated to awaken opening, and then the body of a mon flock. His ear, too, grows as sensi-

Foonfess, however, that I was sure a lighted condle. based upon a recognition of lovable divinity, but then I reflected, some that. The next moment I sprang to which it connot escape. times doting parents, conscious of the window, and lowered myself to But above all does he recognize, better, it seemed, than to avail my arm. self of their urgent invitation to stop My horse proved to be fleet as the Sometimes a goat see where I was till morning.

glanced around mo.

A well-worn woolen carpet covered gerous.

to say the least. But I was not long was rented by its owner to a person left to my meditations.

My host soon appeared, and invi- whose character he knew nothing.

been trained to tell no tales of heart child, and trained her to crime by or brain.

He left me with regrets that I the wonderful power of magnetism or the sudden tempest would have no tea, but soon returned with which she was endowed, for the But his familiar goal c bearing in his hand a glass of wine. purpose of decoying victims. Surely I would not refuse that he

She proved, he said, a valuable ac-like that of Appenzell, where he there in that one instant burned it- heard of. self into my brain. The wine was poisoned!

In his eagerness to accomplish his purpose, in an unguarded moment he had permitted the mask he usually wore-a stolid expression-to fall, and the purpose of his heart was revealed. Quick as thought I acted upon the knowledge I had gained; so slightly turning saide my head, I poured the liquid—not into my mouth—inside the breast of my thick cost, which, by chance, was buttoned nearly to the

I passed him the empty glass, and he left me, apparently satisfied. I was conducted soon afterward, to my bed-chamber, in the second story, and directly above the room already described.

When I had listened to the heavy footsteps of my host, as he descended he stair-case, I proceeded to examwith a revolver ; and, though I would line the room wherein I was expected to spend the night, and endoevored to find, if possible, some palpable proof to justify my fears.

My search, bowever, was unawail.

ing, and os I sat down fivally, in the damp and chilly atmosphere—thor-being or fire—to determine what

Advertising Rates.

One column one year
One-half column, one year,
One-fourth column, one year,
One square (10 lines) one insertion
Every additional insertion
Professional and Business cards of not more than five lines, per year. 5,00 Auditor, Executor, Administrator and Assignes Notices Editorial notices per line All advertisements for a shorter period than one year are payable at the time they are ordered, and if not paid the person ordering them will be held responsible for the money.

Select Poetry. robes, no one would have doubted white, some day, but at present only the sound that a horse was being ers to join their fellows in search of hitched not far from my window. I food on the mountains. The boy the morning and returning for milk-Carefully gropping my way to the ing and shelter at night.

Where the herdsman with his cows station, the seat directly behind mine at the door, holding in his hand a them to the window in such a man gout-boy, with his more nimble wards lantern. He seemed to be about fifty ner that I could descend by their sid will go with ease and safety, to years of age, and his burly figure to the ground, is ease it might be gather the scanty herbs that spring up among the weather-beaten rocks ; I was strongly inclined to make and from the most dangerous and my escape by that means at once, but apparently inaccessible heights will feared lest I might make a noise and resound the loud goat-cell. It is attract attention, as the window was then that the goat-boy feels himself directly above that of the sitting, a king-undisputed monarch of the ir order to see more distinctly who room I have mentioned, and, in case peaks. Yet he is in reality a poor I was discovered, my chance of get-little waif—frequently an orphan or ting away alive would be small. I or an outcast. Sometimes the boy at last decided I would wait, and will seek his own customers; again "What ! ye han't brought my gal shape my course according to circum- he will hire himself to a master from whom he will receive a yearly reward Till two o'cleck I heard no sound, of two dollars, besides his coarse and then a slight creaking noise. food, rough shirt and pants, old felt Silestly I approached the door, hat, and heavy wooden shoes with and, listening intently, I was confi- soles studded with mails.

dent that some one was slowly as. He acquires a wonderful facility in the art of climbing, and will slip The door at which I was stationed boldly along on the sharp edges of opened inward from the hall, and was precipiees to which it scarcely seems the only one in the room. I stood so possible that human foot can eling. that, as the door opened, I would be Indeed the mountaineers believe that After making the necessary expla-concealed behind it; and as there goat's milk imparts a magic skill in miles away he will point out the cha-Noistessly it swang upon its hin- mois to the hunter, or discover some mistaken for la grande passion, hence any doubts as to their sincerity." entered the room, holding in his hand tive as that of the game of the Alpino wilds. He knows each one of his prised to meet such rough, uncultito level a blow at his temple which and even by its cry of distress when is no true love. I hold, which is not vated people as the parents of my felled him to the floor with a heavy it has slipped into some chasm from > times doting parents, conscious of the window, and lowered myself to their own need of culture, will lavish upon their childred every possible advantage.

>
> Having seen my charge safely within her home, I turned to the me there were many more inmates of to the fierce and powerful foe ; and, man who had brought us, hither, for the purpose of engaging his services to come in direct contact with the in driving me to a hotel; but they horse already mentioned, which was es his enemy, or at least drives him all assured me there was none within fastened to a tree. Freeing bun with- away. The highest ambition of the all assured me there was none within a distance of seven miles, and it was already ten o'clock. I could do no already ten o'clock. I could do no cever, without receiving a bullet in my Sometimes a goat searching for wind, hence I was not long in reach- food, leaps upon a narrow ledge, I sat down in the neat though ing a little village, situated near the from which it can neither advance nor station, where I was kindly cared for, retreat. Seeing its danger it utters plainly-furnished sitting room, and My wounded arm proved to be pain- lamentable cries of distress, which ful though the injury was not dan- the goat boy hears and traces to their source the floor; cane-seated chairs ranged against the walls; a chintz covered adventure, and measures were at ones the animal and bring it back. Then But he finds it absoraise her, but she gave a little cry of lounge in one corner, a table with taken to arrest my would-be-murder- he hastens to a herdsman's cabin for a few books, and a bright wood fire, ers ; but when the officers arrived at help, and they repair with rope, to completed the picture—hardly in the house they found it entirely desome high crag overhanging the nar-keeping, I thought, with the rich at-seried, and though a strict search for raw helps when the herdsman fasfore the train would start, and, in three of the daughter of people who several weeks was instituted, no trace tens the rope around the body of the fore the train would start, and, in tire of the daughter of people who several weeks was instituted, alarm, I looked for the friend whom could not afford a more luxurious could be discovered of their whereas boy and lowers him down over the bouts. boute.

It was not ease; for, new that I

There was scarcely any farniture in goat. The most dangerous portion of his duty has still to be done, howattendant of the depot and a couple of idle-looking fellows, who, I judged ate presence, I could not help thinkwere there because they had no ing that I had acted very unwisely, only been occupied a few months, and through the dangerous mid air pass-who called his name Harlow, and of And yet notwithstanding, his braher into the depot, when she recovited me to walk into the adjoining ered sufficiently to murmur her room and have some supper. I devery and the hardships be endures, thanks, and bogged that I would clined, and remained firm, even thou' affairs of more immediate laterest, hard, black bread, and a morsal of be urged. I had taken lunch at one when one morning I took up a news cheese. If he is thirsty he goes to of the railroad stations at which we paper to read the confession of a the nearest goat, and lying down unhad stopped, and I did not desire any- criminal, accounts of whose daring der its udder, milks the refreshing and successful crimes having formed draught directly into his mouth, He seemed disappointed; I could and important feature in the papers without the intervention of a cup or out belp thinking he was unduly so for weeks.

—in fact, I did not like the man's countenance; it were a sort of non-committal expression, as if it had been trained to tell no tales of heart child and trained has to origin by most convenient pasturage, and the forcing her to employ her beauty, and safest retreats from the midday sun But his familiar goat-call isalways welcome in the early evening, as he descends from the heights to bring disappointed air, to depart, when my companion suggnsted that I might get him to drive her home, a disstance of three miles.

Surely I would not refuse that he said, after my long journey. No. I quisition to the band of desperadoes to which he belonged, and her low had been a matter of deep regret, stance of three miles.

As I did so I glanced at the countenance before me, and what I read I manage to my request, he said. That this convict was the person food for themselves and family, and whose acquaintance I had made five years before, I had no doubt; and the sanitary institutions, now scatter. notwithstanding the objections to calamong the Alps, for what is known repital punishment, I cannot say that I grieved when he paid the penalty of his crimes upon the scaffold, and thereby rid the earth of his foul presence.

The Gout bey of the Alp.

To find the genuine, uncontaminated goat boy we must sack him in some retired canton of Switzerland,

CAN ANY ONE THEE !-- Can any one knows little else than goats, and tell how young men who dodge cares for naught else than to guard washerwoman, and are always behind and protect them. In all the festive with their landlords, can play bilons of the herdsmen he takes liards night and day, and are always part, and generally figures as a sort ready at a game of cards ?

of merry andrew, dancing and caper-ong wherever fun and merriment are support their families who have no This gay life, however, is for him but of short duration; his work is very severe. The bells of his heard salute the ear of the early wanderer even before the chapel bells bid the pious peasants count their morning resaries. And the strange cry that rings through the valley is the peculiar goat call of the little goathed collecting his flock from the lowly shelfers along the path. The resident income and do not work, while others who are industrious and constantly employed are half starved?

Can any one tell how it, by that rings through the strange cry that range through the valley is the peculiar goat call of the little goathed collecting his flock from the lowly shelfers along the path. The resident income and do not work, while oth-