THE POST

MIDDLEBURG..... .....SEPT. 5, 1872

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

A farmer in York county recently plowed up twenty eggs each of which contained a snake.

Peaches are ripening, and rotting on the trees. Moreover, those that do pretend to ripen are quite insipid.

The tillers of the soil throughout the county are pushing forward their fall plowing, preparatory to sowing wheat and rye.

Public attention is directed to the sale of Personal property of Thomas McGovern, in Beavertown, on Saturday Sept. 14, next. See Bills.

A general canvass of the Welsh vote, in Montour county, elicits the fact that, with a single exception it is solid for Grant and Wilson.

The Democrats of Northumberland county have a chance to elect six Assemblymen, nine Sheriffs, six Prothonotaries, and five Commissioners.

The contract for building a new passenger track for the P. & E. R. R. Co., above Sunbury, has been awarded to Jacob S'asholtz and John Bowen, of that place.

The Discovery of immense coal deposits in the mountains in the vicinity of Jacksonville, in the upper end of Dauphin county, is creating much excitement in that locality.

We observe through one of our exchanges, that Charley Kleckner's lions, a few days ago, proposed to make a square meal of their tamer. They tore a steak from his leg, when the balance of meat withdrew.

Our exchanges are still engaged in reporting accidents brought about by the kindling of fires with the aid of coal oil. Parties who won't heed the repeated warnings given them, must put up with the consequences.

Louis J. Koch has been appointed Freight and Ticket agent and Telegraph operator at this station in the steal of Mr. Farran resigned. He comes well recommended for his proficiency and courtesy.

An additional freight train, east 9 a. m. and west 3 p. m. has been put on the road. This evidences an increase of business.

MESSRS. HAINES & SNYDER have their Planing Mill and Sash Factory in complete operation, and are turning out very satisfactory work. We have seen some of their work which exhibits skillful workmanship and the appropriation of the very best seasoned material. They are both master mechanics and all work done by them will be done with a view to strength, beauty and durability, and adapted to the latest improved styles, Rates reasonable. Try them.

A STRANGE FREAK OF LIGHTNING.—During the shower which visited this section of the country on Wednesday night last, a three year old steer belonging to Wm. Power in Centre twp., was instantly killed by lightning. When found he was lying on his back, in which position he was held by his horns which were driven into the ground. No marks of the stroke were visable on any part of the animal, but it is presumed he was struck on the head and made to turn a summerset.—Bloomfield Times, Aug. 28.

THE SIMPLEST KNOWN CURE FOR DIARRHŒA OR SUMMER COMPLAINT.—Take about one gill of rice and place in a spider over the fire, stiring constantly until thoroughly brown. Do not burn it. As soon as it is thoroughly brown, fill the spider with boiling water and let it boil until the mass is of the consistency of thin paste. If the rice is not cooked perfectly soft, add a little more water and let it boil away again. Be careful at the last moment that it does not burn on the bottom. When cooked soft, turn into a bowl, sweeten with loaf or crushed sugar and salt to suit the taste. Eat in Milk.

The editor of this paper has made use of the above remedy for nearly twenty years; has indused hundreds to use it, and never knew of its failure to cure in a few hours. A remedy so simple, so harmless and so readily accessible, should be published in every paper in the land.—Wenonah Advance.

In Memoriam.

At a meeting of the Smithgrove Union Sunday School, held on Monday evening, August 24th, 1872, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God in His mysterious and all wise Providence to take away, by the ruthless hand of death, in the vigor and bloom of life Calvin L. Fisher, therefore Resolved 1. That in the untimely death of Bro'r Fisher this Sunday School has lost an earnest and deeply beloved Superintendent, who, as an officer was a workman, that needed not be ashamed.

Resolved 2. That in view of Bro'r Fisher's congenial nature, unselfish kindness, wining, social qualities, proper zeal for the promotion of all that is good, we have occasion for tears of much more than ordinary sorrow, on account of his early departure.

Resolved 3. That, though we mourn, we will not refuse to be comforted, being assured by God's inspired word that those for whom to live is Christ; to die is gain, and that we also keep so watching for the coming of the Son of Man, as timely to be ready to depart and be with Christ which is far better when our time of departure shall come.

Resolved 4. That we offer our deepest sympathies to the mourning widow, the weeping children and all other stricken relatives and friends of the departed, and that we unite our prayers to the Father of all consolation whose loving kindness and tender mercies overflow so richly in behalf of the widow and fatherless, to grant them, in this hour of their bereavement, His all sufficient grace.

Resolved 5. That we as a Sunday School attend Bro. Fisher's funeral to-morrow and wear the usual badge of mourning to show our respects to the departed whose memory we shall fondly cherish.

Resolved 6. That a copy of this action be placed in the hands of Bro. Fisher's family, and also that a copy be sent to the different papers of the county for publication.

C. W. GUTELIUS has sold out his interest in the Democratic Guard at this place, and has retired from the editorship of the same. The purchaser is C. A. Reimensnyder. We understand that the paper is to be independent in politics hereafter, and will be called The Guard instead of the Democratic Guard.—North'd county Democrat.

A REMARKABLE ACCIDENT.—A few days ago Mr. William F. Eckbert, of this place, drove up to the Maine saw mill in a buggy, accompanied by a little daughter. When returning, about the middle of Schnure's peach orchard the wind blew off the little girl's hat, and Mr. Eckbert got out to pick it up. As he was doing so, the horse started with the little girl in the buggy. Mr. Eckbert got hold on the rear of the buggy but fell. He held on to the hind axle suspended by his arms, and while the horse was running quite fast he managed to crawl forward along the coupling pole till he got hold with both hands of the front axle. He did this in the hope that the line would fall down and drag and that he could secure it and stop the horse. But the line had fallen over the dasher and did not reach the ground. At the willows above Schoch's warehouse Mr. L. R. Hummel encountered the runaway and attempted to stop him, but he threatened to go over the bank, so he let him pass and then suddenly jumped into the rear of the buggy, seized the line and stopped the horse. Up to this time he was not aware there was really a man under the buggy as Mr. Eckbert had very much changed appearance, and didn't just then look like a man. The road is rough and stony. His shoes and stockings were torn off; the clothes were rent into shreds on his back, and the pantaloon legs were entirely gone, and he was covered from head to foot with mud and blood and many sore cuts and bruises. He drove home himself, but has since been confined to bed, and the Doctor thinks it will require a week to enable him to be out again.—Selinsgrove Times.
